Preface

This Handbook is an independent project undertaken by me and is not associated with Jesus & Mary and the Divine Truth Organization.

This book is basically a collection of excerpts from the outlines, letters and seminars from the Divine Truth website providing a quick reference.

Because the Divine Truth website literally has thousands of documents and transcripts, this is just a very brief summary of the Universe, God, God's Laws, God's Principles, Prayer, the Conscience and Forgiveness & Repentance as taught by Jesus and Mary.

This is a project that I have undertaken on my own, for my own personal use and I am more than happy to share it with anyone else who may also find this reference handbook beneficial.

Other than this Preface, I did not write any of the material in this book. All information came from the Divine Truth website (divinetruth.com).

Happy Reading!

About Jesus and Mary

Welcome to the Divine Truth website! My name is Alan John Miller, and many of my friends call me AJ. The beautiful woman you see with me is Mary Suzanne Luck. Just a little over 2000 years ago, we arrived on the earth for the first time. My name then was Yeshua ben Yosef, or the Jesus of the Bible, the son of Joseph and Mary. Mary's name then was Mary of Magdala, the woman identified in the Bible as Mary Magdalene. Mary was my wife then, and the first person I appeared to after I was crucified.

Because of my personal desire and passion for God, as I grew, I recognized not only that I was the Messiah that was foretold by ancient prophets, but also that I was in a process designed by God that all humans could follow, if they so desired.

I called this process becoming "Born Again". It is the process of the human soul being transformed into the Divine, the process of becoming At-One with God. Many persons who were connected with me in the 1st century came to know and follow this path while on earth, the most notable person being Mary Magdalene, who is my soulmate, and who was actually married to me in the 1st century and was pregnant with our daughter when I died.

Shortly after the time of my crucifixion, most of the Divine Truths that I taught my followers were distorted so much so as to not retain much of the Divine Truth. By the time of the 3rd century, large amounts of error had been introduced into my teachings from all forms of religious studies that occurred over the time period, with power being the main object for the distortions.

During the intervening time from the 1st century until the 20th century, I led, from the heavens, the process of discovery of even more spiritual Divine Truth, and this was fuelled by my personal desire and passion to become ever closer to God. Mary Magdalene, being my soulmate, also had a very similar desire, and, as Mary, and other followers passed into the spirit world, they also continued to exercise a desire to follow me in this process of discovery of Divine Truth and receiving Divine Love from God through prayer.

During these 1900 years or so, many more dimensional spaces (or as the spirits call them - Spheres) were added to the universe by the progression of those on the Divine Love path. Attempts, mostly unsuccessful, were made to reverse the untruth taught on earth associated with beliefs attached to the Bible, by connecting to people on earth who had received Divine Love.

In the early 20th century, myself and many other Celestial Angels, and spirits on other paths of spiritual progression, managed to convey many of the Truths to a man named James Padgett. We expected that these Truths would grow on earth once Padgett received these Truths, but unfortunately, no-one really fully understood the message that was given. In addition, Mary, myself, and some other spirits by the late 20th century had found a way to return to earth to demonstrate these Truths, along with many more Truths obtained over 2000 years of spiritual progression. So, in the latter half of the 20th century, 7 soul pairs, or 14 people, made plans to return to earth and teach the Divine Truth again.

This website has been prepared by myself and Mary, in order to deliver these Divine Truths to the world, and to freely provide these Truths to anyone who wishes to discover them. Please enjoy what these pages have to offer you. If you have been a seeker of Truth, and are open-minded and open-hearted, you will be surprised to have many, if not all, of your questions about life, God, and the universe, answered in a straight forward and honest manner, and the answers shall make your soul sing, just as our soul has sung with the discovery of each new Divine Truth.

But even more importantly, if you exercise your own Free Will and choose to put these Truths into practice, Divine Love will enter your soul and transform you into the creature God designed you to become. Divine Love will transform you into the person that God created you to be. And it all begins with Prayer!

With my Love

Jesus

How Divine Truth Was Discovered

Divine Truth

Divine Truth is God's Truth, the Absolute Scientific Truth of the Universe as known by God. It has existed as long as God has, and continues to exist whether humankind discovers it, or attempts to ignore it, as we often do.

Humankind, ever since their creation, has been in the process of discovering this truth, through the collective and personal experience of being born onto the planet, and then growing within the framework of God's Universal Laws.

Historically, humankind engaged in the discovery of God's Truth through experimentation, often by accident, but sometimes organised and planned. Because of this generally disorganised process, humankind's discovery of Divine Truth is often slow, and unfortunately, littered with partial truths. Subsequently the majority of God's Truth remains undiscovered and unknown to the average human.

Discovery of God's Truth

In the first century, a man was born who wanted to discover God's Truth. His parents were Joseph and Mary of Nazareth, and he was named by them Jesus ben Joseph (Jesus son of Joseph). A large amount of inaccurate information now exists on earth about this man, partly due to the misunderstanding of his discoveries, partly due to the exaggeration of his life, and partly due to the distortions of historical reality that occur over time on the earth.

Jesus was taught by his parents and his educators in Judaism to believe in a wrathful and vengeful God. But he personally felt that God must be better than any human, and in particular, more developed in Love than any human. He also felt that God, if God was loving, would have created a way for humankind to enter into a relationship with God and commune with God. This communication would therefore supply a much more rapid way of discovering God's Truth.

Jesus engaged a scientific experimentation process in order to discover what God's method for communicating with His children was. He named this yet undiscovered method "The Way", the only way in which a human could communicate with and receive Love and Truth from God.

He saw God as the loving personal parent of all of humankind, and therefore, made some basic assumptions about God before he developed his experiments. He assumed God is Love, God is the knower of all Truth, that God wanted a relationship with all of His children, and that God wanted to share His Love and Truth, with all of His children. Jesus felt that while he did not personally know for certain if these assumptions were correct, they were the only logical conclusion if God existed at all.

By the time he was 18 years old, he knew he had discovered "The Way", because a relationship with God had begun, and he now had a growing capacity to understand God's Truth, and receive God's Love, that he realised that no-one around him had. He began to encourage everyone around him to engage the same experiment. He became the first person to enter this relationship with God in human history on earth, and he saw his own role to become the teacher of "The Way" to the rest of humankind.

The Experiment

Jesus knew that any experiment he would develop to find "The Way" needed to be able to be engaged by a young child. It would need to be simple, and that God, if God loved, would have created a way that was natural for a child to develop, if allowed by its environment and parents to do so. He spent a lot of time with children, noticing them, and examining how they interacted with each other without parental influence.

He, within himself, also noticed that he could feel others' emotions, and noticed that others, particularly adults, had suppressed this natural capacity for emotional human connection and understanding. He believed that the experiment would need to engage truthful human emotion and loving desire in some manner, towards God.

In the end, he realised that the process of his own communication with God began far before he had personally become aware of the method. God had been educating him already, and all that was required was an understanding of the process so that he could share it with others. He recognised his own heartfelt longing for God, God's Love, and God's Truth, and he realised that God had replied whenever this longing was present. At these times his own emotions had been overwhelmed with the infinitely stronger emotions that came from God.

Jesus called these sincere heartfelt emotions of desire for God and God's Love, "Prayer". Every time he experimented by using his own will to create within himself a sincere truthful longing and desire for God and Her Love, God would respond, overwhelming Jesus with emotion each time. And during each occasion, Jesus realised he could understand more about God, God's Laws, and the universe around him.

The experiment was prayer.

Revealed Knowledge

As Jesus prayed, the knowledge that God has about the universe, humankind, and other facts were revealed to him, through his communication with God on each subject. Jesus then began the process of attempting to demonstrate to others that this Divine Truth was available to them also, as long as they used the same method to connect to God that he had discovered.

Truth About God

Statements of God's Truth about God

There is a large amount of information available on the subject of God, God's Nature, Characteristics, and Attributes, and God's Feelings & Emotions, but this information is not, and will never be, complete, due to God's Infinite Nature. This page is intended to contain introductory information about God.

Many statements about God made by religious movements on the earth, are in reality, blasphemous towards God. Humankind assigns characteristics and attributes to God which do not exist within God. Most human thought about God is very illogical and full of contradictions when it comes to describing the God's Character and Nature.

God's Existence

- God exists
- God exists outside of, and independent to, the created universe
- God is an entity, and not a quality, characteristic or attribute
- God is the Supreme Oversoul of the universe

God's Personal Characteristics

- God has personal characteristics and attributes which can be defined in quality
- God's personal characteristics and attributes appear infinite to the human, and logically are most likely infinite in reality, and cannot be defined in quantity by the human
- God's supreme attribute is Love
- God is perfect in Love

- God is not God's characteristics and attributes, but rather is the entity that has the characteristics and attributes. e.g. God can be said to be Love (God is Love), in that God is the personification of Love, but Love is not God, but rather is one of many characteristics or attributes of God
- God's other attributes include supreme knowledge, wisdom, power, and justice
- God has supreme logic, and anything that is not logical does not belong to God
- God has masculine and feminine characteristics and attributes, is perfect in sexual attributes, and can be said to be both Mother and Father
- God is omniscient and omnipotent

God's Personal Feelings for Her Children

- God directly created (see the section God's Creation) each human soul, and all humans, whether sinners or saints, are God's Children
- God especially desires a loving personal relationship with Her Children
- God has made Laws (see the section God's Laws) which make a loving personal relationship with God possible
- God knows, and wants to be known by all of Her Children
- God does not play favourites with Her Children, but rather all Children are valued equally
- God does not eternally punish any Child, but rather desires, and has made possible, the redemption of all Children
- God created a universe in which all Children can play, and this universe is not limited to the physical universe we can see with human eyes

God's Communication with Her Children

- God communicates directly with each Child through the process of soul-based communication
- Each Child can only communicate with God using the same process of soul-based communication
- Soul based communication is emotional, rather than intellectual, and comes from the feelings, and not the thoughts

- God does not communicate with a voice that can be heard with the physical body. Any person on earth who states they 'hear' God is not hearing God but rather is hearing another person in the spirit world who is claiming to be 'God'.
- God does not communicate with a voice that can be heard with the spirit body. Any person in the spirit world who states they 'hear' God is not hearing God but rather is hearing another person in the spirit world that they cannot see.
- God cannot be seen with physical eyes, nor with the eyes of the spirit body. God can only be 'seen' with the soul-based perceptions of the human soul.

What God is NOT

- God is not the universe itself; rather, God created the universe and the laws which govern it.
- God is not Jesus; rather, Jesus is only human, and not a part of God.
- God is not only Love; rather, Love is the supreme characteristic or attribute of God. God has many other attributes.
- God is not imperfect, and is not capable of making any mistake, and in particular, is not capable of making a mistake in Love.
- God is not angry or wrathful; rather, God is kind, compassionate, caring and loving.
- God is not punishing; rather, God desires all Her Children to be free of the pain and suffering they create by choosing to break God's Laws.
- God is not responsible for human suffering; rather, God knows that humanity created its own suffering by using its will to work against God's Laws of Love. These Laws have penalties exacted upon the human soul when broken. To remove its own suffering humanity must take responsibility for its own creations.
- God is not callous or indifferent to human suffering; rather, God has provided Laws which, when engaged by the human, have the power to redeem humanity individually and collectively from pain and suffering.

God's Truth

Statements of Truth about God's Truth

There is an infinite amount of information available on the subject of God's Universal Truth. This page is intended to contain introductory information about God's Truth.

God's Truth always has a scientific, practical, and logical foundation and basis.

Many statements about God's Truth (Divine Truth, Universal Truth, Absolute Truth) by religious movements on the earth, are in reality, blasphemous towards God's Nature and bear no resemblance to Universal Truth. Humankind commonly separates issues of faith from issues of scientific fact, and this mistake causes humans to hold onto ideas, concepts, and beliefs that can be demonstrated to be false.

Qualities of God's Truth

- God's Truth is infinite and cannot be contained within any finite material or being. A single person, or a single book cannot contain all of God's Truth.
- God's Truth is of itself, a thing apart, and admits of no variations or modifications. God's Truth is scientific fact and exists whether humans have discovered it or not.
- God's Truth and Love are always in perfect harmony, and without Truth, Love cannot be complete. All of God's Truth contains harmony with Love, logic and scientific fact.
- God's Truth does not and cannot compromise, even for the sake of peace. Since God's Truth is also unchangeable scientific fact, God's Truth does not and cannot compromise for any reason.
- God's Truth itself, with all the power and knowledge that it has as its foundation, will not compel a man/woman to accept it against his/her will. God's Truth honours the gift of free will given to humankind, and it will not force itself upon humankind. Instead humankind needs to develop a willingness to discover God's Truth before It can be discovered, proven and accepted.

- God's Truth will never and can never accommodate itself to the beliefs of men/women. Instead, men and women will need to willingly accept and conform their own beliefs to God's Truth once God's Truth has been discovered and proven.
- God's Truth results in freedom. God's Truth, once discovered and accepted, results in the ability to experience more freedom of action. Actions opposing God's Truth will always eventually be restricted by God's Laws.
- God's Truth results in a fearless existence. Fear is the result of not knowing God's Truth. e.g. When humankind did not know the earth was round, they believed that travel by sea was dangerous.
- God's Truth does not hurt anyone or anything. In fact, God's Truth, once discovered, accepted, understood and practised, always results in less hurt physically, sexually, emotionally and spiritually.
- God's Truth does not allow the lie, no matter what the price. God's Truth is always attempting to make itself known to humankind, and when humankind reject God's Truth the result is the pain and suffering of humankind. The price of pain and suffering is the result of God's Truth not allowing the lie.
- Living out of harmony with God's Truth results in penalties or consequences. Each refusal to accept God's Truth has its own penalty or consequence, since God's Truth is Universal Law.
- God's Truth is demonstrated by actions, supported by evidence scientific, emotional, physical and spiritual. God's Truth is not theoretical, imaginary or magical, but rather can be confirmed with evidence in all areas of life.

God's Truth in Practice

When I understand that God's Truth is infinite, I know that:

- God possesses Absolute Truth, and since God is infinite, Absolute Truth is also infinite
- God's Truth logically cannot be confined within a book or a person
- No single creation of God knows all of the Absolute Truth and never will
- I will never fully be able to discover all Truth
- I will never know everything completely
- I will eternally be progressing towards knowing God's Truth, and towards God
- Mistakes of knowledge will always be made
- Perfection in love is possible without knowing everything
- I should not resist new experiences or knowledge
- I will always be learning
- I should follow my desires in harmony with love without allowing fear of the possible consequences to limit me
- I shall be intellectually and emotionally confronted and stretched all my life

When I understand that God's Truth is of itself, a thing apart, and admits of no variations or modifications, I:

- Understand that personal "truth" is, and must, be changeable, always adjusting to conform to God's Truth
- Understand that if I refuse to accept God's Truth, the most probable reason is that I am afraid
- Know that God's Truth is never updated, since it has been and will always be Truth
- Know that once I receive God's Truth it will never need modification. e.g. Truth of Law of Aerodynamics always existed, but man did not understand until recently
- Emotionally accept that God's Truth is fixed and unchangeable

- Do not try to "negotiate" with God about Truth
- Do not complain that God's Laws feel harsh and uncompromising
- Do not try to avoid the consequences of confrontation between God's Truth and my own condition, belief, and experience
- Feel that God's Universe is loving, and pain is the result of my personal disharmony with God's Truth

When I understand that God's Truth and Love are always in perfect harmony, and without Truth, Love cannot be complete:

- I can see that Love cannot be complete or even possible if Truth does not exist
- I do not expect to receive God's Love when I am avoiding God's Truth in my life
- When I am not receiving God's Love, I automatically know it is because I am out of harmony with God's Truth
- I know that I am not loving when I am not speaking Truth or when I withhold Truth
- I do not blame others for my inability to receive God's Love or Truth
- I don't have a desire to convince myself I am receiving Divine Love when I am not
- I don't wish to help others avoid the Truth

When I understand that God's Truth does not and cannot compromise, even for the sake of peace:

- I know that God does not and will not change the Truth to suit me or my own understanding
- I always accept God's Truth when it is logically presented and proven to me
- I refuse to compromise God's Truth in my day-to-day life, even for the sake of peace or expedience
- Even if I seem destined "lose" something, I never compromise the Truth
- I am not afraid of "giving up" addictions or comforts out of harmony with God's Truth
- I refuse to conform to other people's addictions for the sake of peace or personal gain

- I refuse to soften the Truth in order to make Truth more acceptable to others
- I act in harmony with God's Truth at all times even when I am afraid or terrified
- I do not try to get a common intellectual ground with people in rage or hatred
- I love all people enough to say Truth even if it means losing their friendship or approval
- I know that bitter anger and hatred-based emotions are caused by my emotional opposition to God's Truth
- I never feel anything related to discovering Truth is too hard or time consuming

When I understand that God's Truth itself, with all the power and knowledge that it has as its foundation, will not compel a man to accept it against his will:

- I know that although I can make a personal stand for Truth and Love, I can never fight for Truth or Love
- I know that the laws of Free Will are sacred and precious since even God will never compel a person
- I know that wars, hatred, envy, and anger are all the result of a person wanting to compel others to accept "their" truth
- I know that if I fight for "truth", I walk away from love, and the more painful my life becomes
- I refuse to force or manipulate others to do what I know is harmonious with God's Truth and Love
- I respect the gift of free will in all people, even when they choose to use that free will sinfully (out of harmony with Love)
- I respect the gift of free will even when others choose to harm me with their will
- I do not attempt any manipulation of others even when I could easily do so knowing their emotions
- I do not force people to accept the Truth, but rather respond to their desire to receive Truth
- I never use "truth" about others to alleviate my own addictions or for personal gain

- I never manipulate others or events by withholding portions of truth
- I never attempt to force a person to do anything they do not wish to do

When I understand that God's Truth will never and can never accommodate itself to the beliefs of men:

- I desire to act in Truth and Love even if ridiculed, denigrated, shamed or threatened
- I do not compromise my beliefs even if it means I lose my friends or family members
- I do not compromise my beliefs even if threatened with death
- I am willing to be the only person on earth who accepts a state of Love and Truth
- I feel the effects of untruth on mankind in general, and in each situation I personally face
- I never justify the fear or anger-based positions of men
- I refuse to bow to the beliefs of others if those beliefs oppose God's Truth

When I understand that God's Truth results in freedom:

- I live a completely free existence; free from others' opinions, addictions, and desires, and promote the freedoms of others
- I do not allow other people's opinions, addictions or desires influence me away from living in Love
- I act fully on all of my own desires harmonious with Love even when other oppose them
- I honour my own beliefs even when others disagree with them
- I honour and experience my own emotions at all times in all situations without reserve
- I do not ever blame another person for controlling or attempting to control me
- I only respond in love when others attempt to manipulate or control me
- I am so free that nothing in my environment interferes with my loving desires

When I understand that God's Truth results in a fearless existence:

- Once I know God's Truth, I will no longer fear death or pain
- I live a completely fearless existence
- I do not allow fear to dictate to me how I live my life
- I do not need to plan my life to control my emotions or my environment
- I do not need to control others in order to prevent my own fears from being felt
- I believe I am completely able to feel all of my own emotions no matter how painful they are
- I realise that living in fear does not allow the full expression of my own personality
- I do not modify myself or my actions in order to please others unless I am unloving

When I understand that God's Truth Divine Truth does not hurt anyone or anything, I know that:

- It is emotional error, lies and deceit that hurt
- If I reject God's Truth because of potential pain, I am choosing to remain in error and pain
- Pain results from the exposure of emotional error by Truth
- Not being open and telling the whole truth always results in more harm and pain
- Withholding Divine Truth is harmful to everyone and everything around me
- When I compromise Divine Truth, I harm others as well as myself
- When I tell the Truth it allows the Free Will of each person to the greatest extent possible
- When others feel hurt by the Truth, they are out of harmony with Love of themselves
- I should not try to embellish the Truth or make it more palatable so that people will accept it
- When I try to embellish Truth, I am not honouring God, the creator of Truth

When I understand that God's Truth does not allow the lie, no matter what the price:

- I will not lie for any reason
- I will not withhold truth when it is in my power to give it
- I will not manipulate other's decisions by withholding information which may cause them to change their mind, unless they have asked me to
- I never lie nor allow the lie against God's Truth without addressing it, no matter what the price
- I understand that lying or withholding the truth has the high "price" of pain and suffering
- I honour God by always stating and living God's Truth in all situations
- I understand I will feel personal emotional pain when I personally ignore or deny God's Truth
- I do not resist hearing the truth out of fear
- I desire God's Truth with all my heart because I understand its power

When I understand that living out of harmony with Divine Truth results in penalties or consequences:

- I understand that all of God's Laws are also God's Truth
- I understand that God has made Laws and Truth for the orderly maintenance of His Universe
- I feel and understand that every time I break the law of God's Truth my soul experiences pain; whenever I choose to act outside of the Truth, I am also choosing pain
- I feel pain as a demonstration of my own desire to continue breaking the God's Law
- I feel pain in my life is the direct result of not living in God's Truth or God's Love
- I do not avoid dealing with past sins or errors just because of the painful emotions involved
- I have a passionate desire to live in harmony with all of God's Laws
- I feel no feelings of rebellion against God's Laws
- I enjoy how God has given me this direct feedback mechanism displaying my lack of Love

When I understand that God's Truth is demonstrated by actions, supported by evidence scientific, emotional, physical and spiritual:

- I am always on the lookout for evidence, scientific and mathematical proof for any Truth
- I understand that evidence will come from internal and external sources
- I recognize that the principles of God's Truth have direct impact on every area of my life
- I do not hold onto beliefs that are not supported by evidence
- I experiment with beliefs that have yet to be supported by evidence (i.e. I search for potential evidence rather than dismissing something without reason)
- I demonstrate I have learned the principles of God's Truth by acting in harmony with God's Love
- I will always give Truth with full understanding and compassion
- I desire to know God's Truth on all matters, and I am passionate about the process of learning God's Truth
- I understand that God's Truth affects my thoughts and feelings, not just my actions

When I understand that God's Truth is felt that it is emotional:

- I understand that God's Truth cannot be intellectually accepted without emotional acceptance
- I understand that God's Truth is an emotional experience which results in permanent change
- I understand that if any "truth" requires me to be devoid of emotion, then it cannot ever be God's Truth
- I understand that God's Truth centres around God's Emotions, Desires, Passions, and Intentions, and God's Love
- I understand that eternal growth towards universal truth is only possible when I have "emotional intelligence"
- I never try to intellectually change my life or my soul
- I always see that there is an emotion within me when I am out of harmony with God's Truth

- I always desire to identify, experience and release the emotion that is out of harmony with Love
- I do not intellectually deny nor falsify my own condition to myself
- I emotionally understand that I cannot teach the God's Truth if I cannot feel it
- I emotionally understand that I cannot assist another with Truth if I am yet to feel it myself
- I understand that unless I feel, my understanding of the universe will be flawed

What God's Truth is NOT

- God's Truth is not finite; it cannot fit inside a book or a person
- God's Truth is not incomprehensible; it can be understood
- God's Truth is not theoretical, subjective or abstract; is it practical, objective and definite
- God's Truth does not require faith without reason; it is reasonable, logical, and faith is built upon the predictability of God's Laws and Truth
- God's Truth is not changeable, variable or unreliable; it is steadfast, immovable, and mathematically and scientifically accurate and predictable
- God's Truth is not magical, miraculous, supernatural, paranormal, mysterious or secretive; it is authentic, believable, realistic, reasonable, logical, plausible, explainable, transparent and solvable
- God's Truth is not defined by human conception or understanding; it exists whether human's have discovered it or not
- God's Truth is not exclusive or elusive; anyone can discover, know or learn it
- God's Truth is not widely known on earth or in the lower spheres of other dimensions; since most people know little of God's Truth, and have an even lower desire to discover it

God's Laws

Statements of God's Truth about God's Laws

There is very comprehensive information available about God's Laws, the Hierarchy of God's Laws, the characteristics and attributes of each Law, and the penalties each Law incurs when it is broken. This page is only to be a short introduction on the subject.

On earth, general human understanding of God's Laws is mostly limited to God's Laws that govern the physical material of the universe. In life after death, most humans limit their understanding to the physical laws that govern the metaphysical. However, the most important laws to understand are the Laws of Natural Love, and the Laws of Divine Love, which operate upon the human soul while on earth, and determine much of what happens after a person passes from the earth.

Hierarchy of God's Laws

- God (see the section God) created a Hierarchy of Laws which govern the universe and everything in it
- God's Laws form the framework of the universe, and allow for the human to create within the confines of Law
- The lowest Laws control physical material, known by humans as matter. e.g. Laws of science such as law of gravity, law of aerodynamics, laws of physics, etc
- The next higher Laws control physical material, which is spiritual in nature, also known by humans as dark matter. e.g. Metaphysical laws of science, the physics of dark matter, etc
- The next higher Laws control the moral and ethical part of the human soul, its ability to become perfected in natural love, also known as Laws of Natural Love. e.g. What is morally and ethically right or wrong, loving human interaction, etc
- The highest Laws control the ability of the human soul to become Divine, and the human soul's relationship with God, also known as Laws of Divine Love. e.g. Laws governing the immortality of the human soul, forgiveness, repentance, etc

- God's Laws are educationally progressive; the understanding of each higher law is enabled by understanding the laws below it, and each law is easily discovered and understood if the human understands God's Love and has a desire for God's Truth.

God's Laws are NOT

- God's Laws are not arbitrary, inconsistent, indiscriminate or randomly applied; rather, all of God's Laws are perfect and predictable in their application. God made a universe humans can trust.
- God's Laws are not enforced by God; rather, each Law has been cleverly designed to ensure its own enforcement, whether the law acts upon physical or spiritual (dark) matter, or upon the human soul.
- God's Laws are not punitive; rather, they are educational and redemptive. The Laws educate each creature about its own limitations within the Universe, and also operate to bring all of God's Universe, including the human soul, into harmony with a condition of love.
- God's Laws are not secretive; rather, God has made a system of laws that can be easily discovered by humankind if the will of any human is exercised to do so.

Statements of God's Truth about God's Creation

There is a huge amount of information available on the subject of God's Creation, and humankind, both on earth and in the spirit world, has spent a lot of time gathering information on the subject. This page is only a short summary on the subject of God's Creations.

Many people are not aware that God has not created everything in the Universe, since God allows humans and other creatures to create. Most are also unaware that God's Laws prevent anything that has been created out of harmony with Love by any creature that has the ability to create, from existing permanently within the Universe, whether that universe is made of physical matter, or what humans know as dark matter.

The Universe

- God directly created all Laws which govern the material universe, everything currently within it, and everything that can be potentially created within it
- God directly supplied all of the energy requirements for His Laws to create
- God's Laws combined with God's Energy triggered the creation of matter and other creatures
- God's Creations, both material and law, are all perfect and without mistakes
- God did not create an infinite universe, or the potential of such, since this is logically impossible (due to God being infinite and existing outside of the material universe)
- God did not create all things within the universe, since God gave to other creatures the ability to create, and these creations are independent of God's Creations
- The created universe does appear infinite to the human due to its massive size

Universal Laws Governing Creation

- God created a Hierarchy of Divine Laws which govern how God's Creations can create
- God created penalties built into each Law which act upon the human soul when any creature (the human itself, or those creatures under the human soul's influence) creates out of harmony with love

Creation of Humans

- God created a Hierarchy of Divine Laws which govern how God's Creations can create
- God created penalties built into each Law which act upon the human soul when any creature (the human itself, or those creatures under the human soul's influence) creates out of harmony with love

Creation of Non-Human Creatures

- God created Laws which created non-human creatures
- God created Laws which allow non-human creatures to create independent of the human condition
- God created Laws which cause non-human creatures to create being influenced by the human condition
- God created Laws which allow non-human creatures to evolve or devolve as the environment demands
- God created Laws which allow non-human creatures to have the ability to evolve or devolve as the environment demands
- God created all Laws governing the evolution and devolution of all creatures
- God created Laws governing the ability of non-human creatures to create out of harmony with love by being influenced by the human soul

The Greatest Experiment

(Excerpt from the downloads section of the Divine Truth website)

Written by Jesus (also known as AJ Miller) to various people on 20th February 2006.

Jesus discusses general methods and approaches to learning, he provides evidence for God in creation, and he describes the process of experimentation with regard to the reception of Divine Love into the soul, as a means to find proof of the existence of God.

Introduction

Some time ago, I began writing some material that I believe may be used in the future as a basis for the presentation of simple information about the material universe demonstrating proof of the existence of our Father. This information is quite simple and readily available, and I have already presented some of it, but this information is not often taught, especially to children, so many persons grow up believing the evolutionary theories are facts, and as a result, believe that God does not exist.

Of course, true proof of God's existence can be easily obtained. All we need do is have a soul longing for His Love, and, if that longing is sincere and we have a desire to experience emotions, then our Father's Love will flow into us, and we shall feel it. Once we feel it, we then realize that God must exist, since we are feeling a sensation that comes to us from outside of ourselves, and that we did not have until we developed a longing for God's Love within our soul.

But due to the emotional injuries most people have developed from childhood that now reside within themselves, many people hesitate to try this experiment because of a concern about being misled or duped into believing something that they feel has the potential of being false, and so they prefer to remain in ignorance rather than accept a belief that can be demonstrated as falsehood. They would rather say; "I don't know", and be right, than to say; "I know", and be wrong. Such is man's lack of humility; his preference to be right overshadows his desire for investigation, and he often wishes to remain in ignorance rather than make an investigation that may turn out fruitless.

Because of this problem, many persons require at least some evidence of intelligence within the universe before they will even demonstrate a little portion of faith that is required to begin sincerely seeking truth and asking God for His Love.

Approaches to Learning

Within the methodology of computer programming, there are two basic approaches to developing software, and these approaches can be also used to determine the truths of the universe, or what we call the Divine Truth.

Bottom Up

The first approach to learning can be called the “Bottom Up” approach. This approach has many exponents because it is very modular, generally object oriented, and effective in its implementation especially when very large projects are undertaken. But it also requires much thought and care taken in the design of components or objects at the bottom level, because, if they ever need to be changed, then all of the components upon which their operation depends often also need to be changed.

You could liken this approach to a student who studies Biology having first to study the micro-organisms of life, then the macro-organisms, then the self-reliant organisms, then life dependencies, then the eco-system, then the biosphere. Using this approach, such a student, while studying at the level of the micro-organisms, does not really understand the relationships and the cause and effects within the eco-system, for example. They are “aware” of only that information they have studied but generally remain completely unaware of the inter-relationships and the overall “big picture”.

In a similar way, a computer programmer using the bottom-up approach may never know what the final software product being produced by the programming team actually does, since he or she may only program a small component which fits into the entire structure.

Therefore, individuals using the bottom-up approach to learning often have incomplete knowledge and a flawed view of the project or area of study, because in their own mind there is no understanding of the interaction between each of the simple components making up the whole. Often those who employ these programmers enjoy this state of ignorance, because from their point of view it assists secrecy; the programmers can complete the project, but very few of the programmers used may actually understand the purpose of the project.

Of course, God is not like this, even though man assumes He is, and God wants man to know everything He has done. God has no desire for secrecy, and truth is the opposite of secrecy. Truth is openness, and transparency.

Top Down

The second approach, logically, is the “Top Down” approach. This approach may use a set of “Bottom Up” components within its structure, but its focus is to define the tasks of the whole first, and then make the individual components fit that the whole. The programmer designing programs using a top-down approach has a complete knowledge of the entire task to be accomplished by the software.

The student studying Biology, by presenting the study of the biosphere as a whole, from the top down, would perceive the biosphere as containing interlinked environments and organisms, and then, as they study further down the chain of the levels of information within, they understand how each organism fits into the whole.

Learning Approach to Infinite Truth

How do we go about applying this to the truths of the universe? Well, you could say there are the same two methods of studying the truths of the universe.

Bottom-Up Approach to Truth

A person using this approach to study of the truths of the universe will usually study things in the following order.

Step 1 - Truths about the universe

Step 2 - Truths about others

Step 3 - Truths about myself

Step 4 - Truths about God

Now a person who seeks the truth by following this approach often becomes focused on Step 1, because, since the universe is infinite, there will always be an unlimited amount of things to study. A lifetime can be spent on each area of study, and still only a small portion of truth is available to the student. There is an infinite number of subjects that can be studied, and so, when a person has completed one area of study to his or her satisfaction, which may take a lifetime in itself, they can choose another and thus repeat this process at infinitum.

From the point of view of man, such a person who becomes an expert in his or her area of study is looked upon as a learned and educated person, someone to be looked up to and admired. They are “leaders in their field”, fountains of knowledge in their particular area of interest. And in fact, they are very wise and full of knowledge in that field and can be admired for being so.

But the result for them often is there is very little time left over available for them to study the other areas of truth, and although the person may gain snippets of truth from these other areas throughout their life, often because they are forced to by events and situations, and although they may think they are very knowledgeable and resourceful, since the universe is infinite, at any one time in their progression of knowledge they actually know a very insignificant portion of the truth.

This is the method of study that most use, and, because of this, they miss out on the real truth and knowledge of the universe. They study the creation, rather than the Creator, and since they do not go to the Source of all things for information, they are limited by their own conception of truth.

Top-Down Approach to Truth

A person using this approach to study makes what others may call a wild assumption, that there is a God, and then attempts to contact that Source of knowledge for the knowledge of the universe. He or she then generally studies knowledge in the following order.

Step 1 - Truth about God

Step 2 - Truth about myself

Step 3 - Truth about others

Step 4 - Truth about the universe

Now unfortunately many using this method of study never come to a true knowledge at Step 1 (because they generally believe God to be a God of wrath) and generally attempt to skip Step 2 altogether (because it is a very emotional process, which is often times painful and criticized by others).

But it is true, and it has been my personal experience, that if a person faithfully follows these steps in their approach to seeking the truth, their growth in knowledge of the secrets of the infinite universe is very fast. Also, accompanied with that tremendous growth, is the overwhelming happiness knowledge of certain aspects of Divine Truth brings to the heart of man.

So, my suggestion to you is if you are attempting to enjoy the secrets of truth using the “Bottom Up” approach, abandon that approach for a while, and experiment with the “Top Down” approach. Start from the point of view that there is a God, or that you expect there to be a God, and then work from that perspective. Those who have done this have found that the secrets of the universe have flooded into their consciousness, without the need for investigation, because, when God and His Love is first sought, all other things are added to you.

Man's Character

Like all truth, the truth of God's existence is something to be felt if it is to be believed, and if by nature you are not feeling a person, you will naturally have difficulty believing. Divine Truth can only be understood by the soul, and the soul contains the emotional part of man.

Man is sometimes such a complex character, especially when he only involves his mind in a discussion, and not his feelings and heart also. When he does this, the mind will often dismiss things that are believed to be impossible, even before it has a chance to ponder upon the knowledge, and to experiment with the possibilities.

Those persons through the centuries who believed in things that others thought impossible also are the persons who were the leaders in science, technology and advancement. They did not accept the general knowledge of the day as the truth about a certain matter, but rather, had the attitude of seeking for more truth, and the derision and mockery of others did not prevent their investigation.

If a man in his heart does not want to believe, it does not matter how long one talks or demonstrates truth to such a person, they will remain firm in the inability to accept. It is only when they open their heart they begin to desire the examination of new information. For many men and women, while they are on Earth, it will not be possible to convince them of the Divine Truth of God's existence, even through the presentation of mountains of evidence. This untrusting state within them exists either from the emotions they feel within them, or from the programming they have received via their culture or environment.

Often such ones need to be left to their own devices, and when they pass from the material existence into the other dimensions of existence, they will die in this great knowledge of theirs that there is no God, and within a very short space of time, they will be forced to recognize that they themselves still exist, which is against all the precepts and philosophies of men who do not believe in God. At that time, because of their continued existence, often they feel they must accept the existence of God, and sometimes such a person is then very willing to demonstrate a further desire to come to know and understand God.

Scientific Experiment

As I have said many times before, developing emotions of longing for truth, and emotions of longing for God's Love will result in such Love coming into the individual, and as a result, it will be proven personally to such a person that God in fact does exist. This is the greatest scientific experiment man can undertake, and, of all experiments, it is the one that has the most certainty in its outcome.

However, since many of those who pride themselves in their own knowledge do not allow themselves to make such an experiment for emotional reasons they refuse to examine, often we must focus our efforts on attempting to help such ones come to the emotional state where they feel they are able to at least try the greatest experiment. To do this, often we need to discuss the things we can see and touch in the material universe, and when the truth about these things touches their heart, then they may begin the greatest experiment.

The Bible

In addition, a discussion regarding the potentiality of God's existence often includes examining many of the sayings contained within the Bible and the other holy books, since many persons who do not believe in God quote things from these books as proof that God does not exist (since such books contain many illogical and unbelievable sayings).

Although there are many truths contained within the "holy" or religious writings of man, many of the things contained within the Bible and within the other books described to be of a holy nature are not the Word of God as claimed by the exponents of these writings, and as such cannot be relied upon either as proof for or against the existence of God. One must often look elsewhere for the supply of such evidence.

Evidence Presented

Just as the universe is infinite, so there is also infinite evidence of God's existence. Man in his material or mortal frame cannot see this evidence in almost all cases, and so he says he cannot believe.

But the same man believes the wind exists, something that cannot be seen, and he says that he believes because he can see its effect and can feel it (or touch it), and feels he understands the causes of such an effect. In the wind, simple and yet unseen, he believes because he sees its force, and, in believing, conceives its cause, and the knowledge of its cause always requires intelligence.

Other forces more complex but visible to the naked eye (such as the human body) he actually sees and touches, and does not completely understand and he does not conceive the cause, so, instead of believing that even more intelligence than he has is required to understand, he says it (the human body and other visible evidence of intelligence) arrived without an intelligent cause, a product of chance.

So much for the saying; “If I see, I will believe,” because there is much a man does not see, but believes in a cause that requires intelligence to deduce, and much the same man sees, but believes its cause to be without intelligence occurring only by chance.

So, we will discuss a few things only regarding the existence of God, and, if these things, added to all the evidence surrounding a man, cannot convince the man to try the experiment and see if God does exist, then at some time in his future he will be convinced, and hopefully then he will remember to examine the spiritual truths.

Cause and Effect

Any discussion regarding cause and effect as it is observed by man in this material world is an over-simplification of the operations of the universe, since there is much that happens in the universe which cannot be seen by man, but which causes a result that can be seen and observed by man.

Since man can see by his previous experience that many things he now knows he did not know in the past, it can be assumed (and accurately so) that he currently does not know many things that he will come to know in the future. In fact, the worst thing a man can have is a mind closed to the fact that growth is always occurring, even in his own knowledge and experience. A scientist or mathematician that does not have this viewpoint has really ceased to become a scientist or mathematician and instead has become the same as any religious person who refuses to accept that more truth exists, they have become engrossed in the “religion” of science.

For most events, man can only assume the truth of their cause, and does not actually know the truth, or may feel unable to believe anything else until some other cause which becomes known is shown to demonstrate the cause.

So, at best, any analysis of cause and effect from man’s perspective is spurious, as man would acknowledge if he was completely honest with himself, since there is so much that a man cannot see, either with the naked eye, or with measuring instruments currently known to man, and this can be demonstrated by his own history of advancement.

Now it naturally follows that, since the material world appears infinite to man, and that there are things that exist that are presently completely invisible to man within this material world but which he assumes to exist by their effect, there is a high probability of universes or worlds that are completely invisible to man. In fact, such universes have been demonstrated to exist by prominent mathematicians. Since these worlds are probably infinite, as far as it is known to man, then it must also be assumed that the list of what man currently does not know is also infinite, both of things visible and invisible.

If within these worlds, either the material that man can see, or the invisible which man cannot see, the cause for every happening was a random chaotic event as proclaimed by those who believe that everything came about by chance and not an intelligent cause, then man should see as a result; a universe that is completely chaotic, from the smallest of the particles he can measure, to the largest of the galaxies he can see.

In such a world, when he applies heat to a container full of water, sometimes it would boil, other times it would remain cold, and in others, it would freeze. Sometimes that water would taste like water, sometimes like wine, sometimes like fruit, and sometimes like acid and so forth. Since the world he proclaims to exist should be chaotic, then in every event, and in every substance, chaos would exist.

But the truth is, man keeps looking into the unseen, either down in size to the things he thinks are the smallest things of the universe, or up in size to the largest, and as it becomes seen, he sees order and design, the opposite to chaos.

And since there is a truth that can be determined, and that is, an effect must have a cause (or, of course, a combination of causes), whether that cause is (or combination of causes are) visible or invisible to man, the only result or answer to the question of how this design came about can be that there is a Designer, and this Designer maintains harmony within His universe.

Unregulated growth could never achieve anything but randomness and chaos, which is not what we observe in "nature".

Some Simple Mathematics

Most of the following information has been obtained from a web site created by Ron Knott, and you may find the information on his web site: <https://r-knott.surrey.ac.uk/fibonacci/fib.html>. Mr. Knott has done a lot of work compiling the mathematical and natural appearances of what is known as the Fibonacci series of numbers. Most of the text, and the images presented below come from his web site.

The "greatest European mathematician of the Middle Ages", as claimed by some, was Leonardo of Pisa, or Leonardo Pisano in Italian, since he was born in Pisa (Italy), the city with the famous Leaning Tower, about 1175 AD. He called himself Fibonacci [pronounced fib-on-arch-ee or fee-bur-nutch-ee], short for filius Bonacci. Some think he did this because Fibonacci is a shortening of the Latin "filius Bonacci", which means "the son of Bonaccio", since his father's name was Guglielmo Bonaccio. If you search the Internet, you will find much more information regarding the man.

It is claimed by some that he was one of the first people to introduce the Hindu-Arabic number system into Europe -the positional system we use today - based on ten digits with its decimal point and a symbol for zero: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 0. His book on how to do arithmetic in the decimal system, called Liber abbaci (meaning Book of the Abacus or Book of Calculating) persuaded many European mathematicians of his day to use this "new" system.

The book describes (in Latin) the rules mankind now learns in basic schooling for adding numbers, subtracting, multiplying and dividing, together with many problems to illustrate the methods. But, it also describes in one chapter a series of numbers, which he took from Indian scholars, who had long been interested in rhythmic patterns, and it was the French mathematician Edouard Lucas (1842-1891) who gave the name Fibonacci numbers to this series and found many other important applications of them.

The series is:

0, 1, 1, 2, 3, 5, 8, 13, 21, 34, 55, 89, 144, 233, 377, 610, 987 etc.

As you may be able to see, the next number in the series is constructed from the addition of the two previous numbers.

Also, related to these series of numbers is the Golden ratio, Phi. To calculate an approximation of Phi, you choose a higher number in the series and divide it by the number preceding it.

$\Phi = 987 / 610$, or approximately 1.618.

And the inverse of Phi is phi, which is:

$\phi = 610 / 987$, or approximately 0.618

Both Phi and the inverse of Phi (phi) are often called the Golden Section numbers. They are mathematically unique numbers, in that $1 + \phi = \Phi$, and $1/\phi = \Phi$. But they are also unique and highly present numbers in the material universe.

Mathematical Progressions in Creation

So, what does all this have to do with belief in God? Well, these numbers, as well as many other numeric sequences, continually appear in what man calls nature, but what I call Creation.

The Pinecone

The spirals of a pinecone have a clockwise rotation, and an anti-clockwise rotation, and in both cases if the number of spirals is counted in each rotation, each count will be a number contained within the Fibonacci series of numbers (8 and 13). The same principle applies to a pineapple as well, but the numbers of spirals are 13 and 21, still numbers appearing in the Fibonacci series

The Cauliflower and Romanesque Broccoli/Cauliflower

For the cauliflower, the spirals are 5 and 8. For the Romanesque Broccoli, the spirals are 13 and 21.

The Coneflower

Petal spirals are 34 and 55. The sunflower seed arrangement is similar, but with the numbers 55 and 89

Seed and Flower Heads

Each new seed is just ϕ (0.618) of a turn from the last one (or, equivalently, there are Φ (1.618) seeds per turn).

What God has used is the same pattern to place seeds on a seed head as He used to arrange petals around the edge of a flower AND to place leaves round a stem. What is more, ALL of these maintain their efficiency as the plant continues to grow. That's a lot to ask of a single process, and all of these relate to the Φ , or the Golden Rule.

The amazing thing is that a single fixed angle can produce the optimal design no matter how big the plant grows. So, once an angle is fixed for a leaf, say, that leaf will least obscure the leaves below and be least obscured by any future leaves above it. Similarly, once a seed is positioned on a seed head, the seed continues out in a straight line pushed out by other new seeds, but retaining the original angle on the seed head. No matter how large the seed head, the seeds will always be packed uniformly on the seed head.

The arrangement of leaves is the same as for seeds and petals. All are placed at 0.618×34 leaves (seeds, petals) per turn, and this single fixed angle is Φ .

If there are Φ (1.618...) leaves per turn (or, equivalently, $\phi=0.618...$ turns per leaf), then we have the best packing so that each leaf gets the maximum exposure to light, casting the least shadow on the others. This also gives the best possible area exposed to falling rain, so the rain is directed back along the leaf and down the stem to the roots. For flowers or petals, it gives the best possible exposure to insects to attract them for pollination

Plant Growth

Many plants show the Fibonacci numbers in the arrangements of the leaves around their stems. If we look down on a plant, the leaves are often arranged so that leaves above do not hide leaves below, and the angle of rotation is based upon ϕ .

Petals on Flowers

3 petals: lily, iris (Often lilies have 6 petals formed from two sets of 3)

5 petals: buttercup, wild rose, larkspur, columbine (aquilegia), pinks

8 petals: delphiniums

13 petals: ragwort, corn marigold, cineraria, some daisies

21 petals: aster, black-eyed susan, chicory

34 petals: plantain, pyrethrum

55, 89 petals: michaelmas daisies, the asteraceae family.

Some species are very precise about the number of petals they have - eg buttercups, but others have petals that are very near those above, with the average being a Fibonacci number.

Appearance of Spirals

Spirals of a similar nature appear within flower petals, plant leaves, plant branch growth, animal reproduction, the unborn child, human body growth, seashells, hair curls, hurricanes and galaxies. The above information just scratches the surface.

Summary

This leads to larger final issues, which Einstein expressed as the question, "How is it possible that mathematics, a product of human thought that is independent of experience, fits so excellently the objects of physical reality?" If you think that everything around you is chaos, then you need to reconsider, because everything from the microscopic to universal aggregate is striving toward simple and beautiful geometric patterns, striving towards complete order.

Man has discovered, and is continuing to discover, mathematical beauty in the world around him. He can drill down into the smallest thing that he can see or look upwards to the largest thing he can conceive, and in it all there is order and design.

The presence of these mathematical series in creation, because of the order and design, can only suggest an intelligent Designer. A Creator does exist, and this Creator is intelligent, infinitely more intelligent than man, since man understands an infinitesimal portion of the universe this Creator has made.

The Greatest Experiment

If the physical universe is striving towards order, could not it also be the case that the other parts of the universe, not seen by man, the spiritual and soul parts, the other dimensions proven by mathematics to exist, are also striving towards complete order and harmony, not just in a physical context, but also in a moral and spiritual context?

Would it not make sense that if we desire to know the truths about these things as yet unseen by the eyes of most people in the material world, our highest priority should be to find out how to go about contacting the Source of such things, the Creator of this universe?

To contact Him, all we need do is have a soul longing for His Love, and, if that longing is sincere and we have a desire to experience emotions, then our Father's Love will flow into us, and we shall feel it. Finding God is simplicity itself, so simple in fact that the majority of mankind, mortals and spirits, overlook the only method we have of ever finding Divine Truth, which is made possible by two things; the sincere desire of a man to seek for and feel God and His Love (which we call prayer), and the overwhelming Passion of God to give all His Children His Love, and have all of His Children come to know Him and experience the joy and happiness of Living in His Love.

This is the greatest experiment, and when any person tries it, the experiment often begins tentatively but ends in complete certainty. God is Reality, and the Love and Truth that comes from Him is Real. When we try the greatest experiment, we at that time also begin to live in reality.

So, my brothers and sisters, live in reality, in our Father's Love, seek for it, and desire it above all else. Seek first His Love, and all the other things will be added to you.

Although the contents of this message may be well known to you, I hope that you have enjoyed a reconsideration of this information.

With love from your brother

What Is Prayer?

(Excerpt from the downloads section of the Divine Truth website)

Prayer is:

A soul-based longing

A passionate desire & longing coming from the depth of our emotions (from the soul) directed towards God

A pure, earnest and sincere yearning (seeking with all the heart) directed towards God

Prayer is NOT:

An intellectual thought or belief, or words

A demand of God

An expectation that God takes responsibility for our own decisions and actions

What True Prayer Does

True prayer opens and develops the portion of our own soul that allows us to receive

True prayer modifies the soul, and breaks down the soul's barriers, restrictions and blockages to reception

True prayer connects our soul with God's Soul

True prayer always activates God's soul into an emotional response

True prayer always is accompanied by passionate desires and emotions

How God "Hears" Prayer

God feels our emotions the instant we have feelings & emotions directed towards God

If those emotions & feelings are harmonious with Love, God's Soul instantly responds emotionally

When God responds emotionally, God also instantly acts

God "hears" our intentions (the desires/feelings that we are going to have in the future)

God "hears" our emotions (the desires/feelings that we currently have right now)

So, God "hears" our prayer by having an emotional response to our prayer, and instantly acting upon it

Personal Truthfulness & Honesty

God’s Soul always responds to emotions of personal truthfulness and honesty

We must be emotionally truthful and honest with ourselves at the soul level (not the intellectual level)

Eg. Head says: “Thank you for the food on my table tonight”, Heart says: “I’m angry because I don’t have enough, and I want to have more”.

Eg. Head says: “Please help that person to be more open to love”, Heart says: “Please make that person more open to my love”

Emotion, Desire, Passion & Intention (Longings Of The Soul)

God’s Soul always responds to an emotional longing, passionate desire, with sincere intention

Prayer comes from the emotional and passionate place in our soul, not the intellectual place

God hears what is in our soul, not what we think is in our soul, or just in our head

The emotion and passion must be harmonious with love and truth before we will be “heard”

Often our desires and passions do not match what we are praying for

Eg. praying for a soulmate relationship, when our emotions are projecting sexually at multiple persons

Eg. Praying to be more truthful in our life, but avoiding truth at every opportunity

Sincerity & Purity

God’s Soul always responds to sincerity and purity of desire

Prayer comes from a sincere place in our soul, not from insincerity or just to make a point to others

Often our so-called prayers come from selfish emotions, rather than pure emotions of love

Eg. Praying to give “love” to the earth, when we daily make choices that destroy the earth

Eg. Praying more for someone after they died, than when they were alive (comes from our own emotion)

Eg. Praying when we are with other people, but not when we are alone

Earnestness

God’s Soul always responds to the Earnestness in our soul, and does not respond to a lukewarm attitude

Eg. If we feel we want something harmonious with Love, but do not wish to do anything to get it, then are we really demonstrating an earnest spirit?

Thankfulness

God’s Soul always responds to a thankful and grateful spirit within ourselves

Eg. We often receive good things, but then demand more, or are never satisfied.

Eg. When we have a good house, not being happy with what we have and wanting a larger one.

What Will Be Heard by God

Prayers That Address Causes Rather Than Effects

God’s Soul only responds to prayers that address the causes of problems (never the effects)

Quote from Padgett Messages “God will not answer prayers that deal with effects only” by Elias

If God addressed effects, then we would continue creating the effects without any change

If our prayer is about causes, then we are addressing the soul condition for the effect

Eg. Praying to stop our partner leaving us is an effect, and cannot be answered

Eg. Praying to help our partner and ourselves address emotions that cause separation is causal

Eg. Praying for material or spiritual things we don’t have is a prayer about effects

Eg. Praying to know and feel the reasons why we do not have material or spiritual things is causal

Eg. Praying for our children's behaviour to change while not addressing our own emotions

Prayers About Changing Our Desires, Longings, Passions & Emotions

God's Soul responds to prayers asking for help to change ourselves and move towards Love

Divine Love does not prepare the soul for the inflowing of Divine Love

Divine Love can only flow into a soul already prepared for its inflowing

Prayer addressing the soul's opposition to love (the sin or error in the soul) is essential

Eg. Praying for God's help to expose within us the reason why Divine Love is not flowing is causal

Eg. Yelling and screaming at God about the anger we have in our heart is causal but needs to go deeper

Prayers About Having God's Protection & Care

God's Soul always responds to petitions of protection as long as God's Laws are not broken

God always assigned additional protection to persons who ask for it IF:

The person asking has a pure motive

The protection asked for is in harmony with God's Laws

Eg. If ask for protection from evil spirits, but refuse to deal with evil emotions within, what will happen?

Prayers That Are Harmonious with Free Will

God's Soul always responds to prayers that respect and honour free will (both our own and others)

Eg. Praying that someone else be assisted to deal with certain emotions if they desire to be

Eg. Praying that someone else change in order for your life to be happier is not harmonious with free will

Prayers That Are Harmonious with Divine Love

God's Soul always responds to prayers that are harmonious with Divine Love

Any prayer harmonious with Divine Love will be responded to by God

As long as the Laws of Divine Truth are satisfied, Divine Love will flow when we pray for it

Eg. If we refuse to live in personal truth, and pray for Divine Love, Divine Love cannot flow

Prayers That Are Harmonious with Divine Law

God's Soul always responds to prayers that are harmonious with God's Laws

Eg. Many ask for God to take away their own Law of Attraction, which She cannot do

Eg. When experiencing a Law of Attraction event, we can ask for assistance to see the emotional reason

Eg. If we hurt someone over a period of time, God cannot take away the effect on the other person even if we clear the causal emotion, unless the other person is desiring that to occur.

Laws involved are: Law of Compensation (to ourself), Law of Cause & Effect (to ourself and the other person), Law of Desire etc.

Eg. Prayer for someone else to respond to truth cannot really be answered

Eg. But if pray for them to be opened up emotionally to have a desire to respond, that can be answered

Eg. Cannot pray for someone to be absolved from the Law of Compensation (what they sow, they reap)

Eg. Can pray for the person to open up themselves emotionally to a feeling of sorrow and repentance

What Will NOT Be Heard by God

Demands

God's Soul does not respond to demands, bargains, or negotiations

All demands of God come from deep rage and anger with God, which needs to be released

Eg. If you save my child, I'll go to church every Sunday

Eg. You say you're a loving God, so you should fix this problem now

Eg. I'll give up having sex with a married woman next week, as long as I can do it now

Eg. I know what I am doing is wrong, but I know God will forgive me (please forgive me for what I am about to do!)

Expectations

God does not respond to our expectations or timing requirements

All expectations of God come from our deep desire to have God do what we want (often we also expect that God makes others do what we want)

Eg. Cupid; draw back your bow, and let your arrow fly, straight to my lovers heart for me (laughs)

Eg. God will look after me, even if I break God's Laws of love

Eg. Driving dangerously but expecting God to protect us from something happening

Heartless Repetition

God does not respond to mind based repetitive prayer

Eg. Doing the rosary without emotion

Eg. The Lord's prayer said without emotion

Eg. Praying before a meal, but not appreciating the meal itself

Prayers That Harm Others or The Environment

God does not respond to prayer asking for harm to occur to others or the environment

Eg. All prayers that God be on "our side" in a war will never be heard

Eg. Praying for a big property development to go through that harms the environment

Eg. Please help my daughter see that she is engaged to a loser

Prayers Asking God to Fix What We Have Created

God does not respond to prayers asking to take away the Law of Cause & Effect. In doing so, God would be breaking Her own Laws, which She shall never do

Eg. Praying to God to cure our cancer when we refuse to deal with the emotion that has created it

Eg. Please stop my child from suffering (the child's suffering is a direct result of our unhealed emotion)

Prayers Asking God to Do Things That We Refuse To Do

God does not respond to prayer that asks Him to do something that we are currently refusing to do

To answer such a prayer, God would need to break the Law of Free Will

God always respects our own free will, even if our free will is exercised to harm ourselves or others

Eg. Praying to God for a job change, when refuse to leave the job we are in because of emotional error

Eg. Praying that a person finds out the truth about something, when we refuse to tell them what we know

Eg. Praying to improve your health, when actively suppress own emotions & make unhealthy choices

Forms Of Prayer

Any form of prayer is acceptable, as long as it does not break God's Laws

Quiet emotional discussions with God

Singing about God, or about emotional aspects of your connection with God

Dancing and movement that connects you to emotional feelings about yourself and your relationship to God

Anything that assists you to embody the experience of feeling your longings

“Padgett Message” God Will Not Answer Prayers That Deal With Effects Only (Elias — Prophet of Old)

I AM HERE. Elias, Prophet of Old, (Elijah).

I will write a short message to-night, as it is late and you are tired.

Well, I desire to say that the message you received from the Master contains some of the most important truths affecting the relationship of God to man in his worldly or material living.

Every Truth that was uttered has in it an element which shows that man to a certain extent must expect and know that God will not interfere with the law of compensation as to its effects and results. Only will He help man to remove the causes that so certainly entail the results, and the sooner men know this and more thoroughly understand it, will they become able to avoid the consequences of sin and the violation of law, and also understand that no prayer will cause God to respond, where a suspension or setting aside of his laws or their workings are necessary.

He will respond to prayer, where that prayer asks the removal of causes, but never when it applies only to effects.

This Truth men should learn and in their prayers ask that those things or causes which in compliance with the law of compensation bring about results that are harmful to them be removed, or eliminated from their acts and deeds as well as from their desires.

I could write a long message on this subject but will not do so now, as you are not just in condition to receive it.

I will come soon and write at length.

So, with my love I will say, goodnight.

Your brother in Christ,

ELIAS.

The Prayer for Divine Love

(Excerpt from the main page of the Divine Truth website)

Our Father, Who is in Heaven, we recognize that You are All Holy and Loving and Merciful, and that we are Your Children, and not the subservient, sinful and depraved creatures that false teachers would have us believe.

We know that we are the Greatest of Your Creations, and the Most Wonderful of all Your Handiworks, and the objects of your Great Soul's Love and Tender Care.

We know that Your Will is that we become At-One with You and partake of Your Great Love which You have bestowed upon us through Your Mercy and desire that we become, in truth, Your Children through Love, and not through the sacrifice and death of any of Your Creatures.

We pray that You will open up our Souls to the inflowing of Your Love, and that then will come your Holy Spirit to bring into our Souls this, Your Divine Love, in Great Abundance, until our Souls are transformed into the Very Essence of Yourself; and that there will come to us Faith—such Faith as will cause us to realize that we are truly Your Children and one with You in Very Substance, and not in image only.

Let us have such Faith as will cause us to know that You are Our Father, and the Bestower of every Good and Perfect Gift, and that, only we ourselves, can prevent Your Love changing us from the mortal into the Immortal.

Let us never cease to realize that Your Love is waiting for each and all of us, and, that when we come to You, in Faith and Earnest Aspiration, Your Love will never be withheld from us.

Keep us in the shadow of Your Love every hour and moment of our lives, and help us to overcome all temptations of the flesh, and the influence of the powers of the evil ones who so constantly surround us and endeavour to turn our thoughts away from You to the pleasures and allurements of this world.

We thank You for Your Love and the privilege of receiving it, and we believe that You are Our Father—the Loving Father who smiles upon us in our weakness, and is always ready to help us and take us to Your Arms of Love.

We pray this with all the earnestness and sincere longings of our Souls, and, trusting in Your Love, give You all the Glory and Honour and Love that our finite souls can give.

AMEN.

Praying For Divine Love

(Excerpt from the downloads section of the Divine Truth website)

Introduction

The prayer contains the most powerful Divine Truths that help us connect to God

When at-one with God, we come to feel about everything how God feels

Prayer is like a deep desire to know God well as a friend, to understand Her Feelings & Emotions

God “hears” our prayer by having an emotional response to our prayer, and instantly acting upon it.

God Loves all, but God’s personal Love cannot enter the soul that has not asked for it (Law of Free Will)

God’s Love can only enter a soul that has desire to remove the error from itself & wants to practice Truth

Remember it is the soul, and not the minds belief that controls the operation of the Holy Spirit

Eg. In your mind you may believe you have self-worth, but at the soul level you may not

Eg. In mind may believe in harmony with Truth but soul emotions be completely in disharmony

God is a Being or Entity with Attributes & Characteristics

This is a basic Divine Truth, and unless the soul accepts it emotionally, we cannot receive Divine Love

He is not some abstract force, without personality, nor is He part of or inside all His creation

His Love, can be within or part of any of His children, depending on the at-onement that exists

If God was just a force without personality, then a personal relationship with God would be impossible

Eg. Illustration of Electricity. Electricity is a force, but is it an entity that can love you?

If our concept of God is damaged, then we cannot enter a personal relationship with God

We must first clear the emotions that cause our concept of God to be damaged

God's Nature is Beautiful

God is Beautiful, Holy, Loving and Merciful, and, very important to understand, never wrathful

If we believe God is wrathful, then we have an emotionally damaged concept of God

God's Nature is that of tender care for us, so we do not need to live in fear.

Since our soul has been created directly by God, we are all God's Children in a direct sense

We are all great in God's eyes, none of us are more important or more blessed than the other.

If we are in error, we do not need to punish ourselves, since our Mother never feels such things

We only need to come to recognize that we have further progress to make

God will demonstrate to us the areas in our life where changes can be made only if we want to know

We were created perfect

God created the human race, and the soul itself, perfect

Sin and error is of our own creation, a combination of our personally leading a life of error, our ancestors passing down error through the genetic code, actions performed by them that impact on our nature

God does not, and has not made mistakes in our creation, any perceived mistakes are in fact erroneous

Any erroneous concept of God will prevent our eventual at-onement with God

We need to take personal responsibility for the existence of sin and error within us, in:

1. within the material body in things such as disease and sickness
2. within the spiritual body in issues of spiritual health and morality
3. and within the soul with issues of love for others, love for partner, and love for our Father

God will never force her Love upon an individual without the soul of the individual longing for that Love

If we choose to keep the feelings and thoughts that are error we prevent God Love entering us

We are worthy of Love

Any feeling that we are “not good enough”, “unworthy”, “unloved by God”, “alone in this world”, “without anyone that cares for us”, “bad inside”, “unable to be redeemed”, “unable to be forgiven” and many of such similar feeling are emotions of error which will prevent Her Love from flowing to us.

Eg. If we are sad within our soul, we can deny that sadness with our mind, and use denial tools

Eg. We could choose to feel the sadness, experience and release it, which allows space for Love

We need to understand that a part of worthiness is to validate and experience our own emotions

Each time we release, if we pray to God for Love, these dormant feelings no longer block Her Love

When we feel unworthy, we are in disagreement with God’s own opinion of us

God desires Our Love

God’s desire is that we become at-one with Him

God’s desire is that we have a personal relationship Her

God does not desire or create us to live alone and unloved

God desires our love, but does not demand our love

Our love is the most precious gift that we can give God, and God cherishes our love

We come to God in Truth, understanding Divine Love & Truth are priceless

Love cannot flow to a more complete degree unless the soul also accepts and believes Truth.

God’s Love is not available to us if we refuse Divine Truth (which is different to personal “truth”)

Our reception of God’s Divine Love is dependent to a large extent on our personal love of Truth

If we have emotional injuries about God, & continue to reject the Truth about God, we reject Divine Love

We may reject truth for many reasons:

We may not wish to take personal responsibility for our personal beliefs and feelings

We may wish to blame others for our emotions

We may feel that others should accept the Truth first

We may not want to feel our hurt pride or become the laughing stock of others

We may prefer to accept the lie so we can stay friends with those whose love is conditional.

We may feel that if we accept the truth family and friends may reject us

So our personal love of truth may not be as strong as we thought

God's Love and Truth are priceless; we must understand it is a treasure of the highest value

If we reject Divine Truth for any reason, we are saying to God that Her Truth now has lesser value

Love of God does not involve sacrifice

God is abundance, so sacrifice of any kind is not called for

Everything in the Universe is God's; there is nothing we can sacrifice that would demand Her Love

There is nothing we can do to make us more worthy to receive Divine Love

Because of the gift of Free Will God cannot take our love from us if we are unwilling to give it

Because of the gift of Free Will God cannot take give us Her Love if we are unwilling to receive it

If we feel we have "made the sacrifice" to obtain Divine Love, then we are yet to understand God or Love

Receiving God's Love requires an open soul

Before the Love can be felt by a soul desirous of its inflowing, our soul must be open to the inflowing

God will not open up our souls to the inflowing of Divine Love, unless we want it to occur from the soul

Our openness at the soul level depends on our humility, our willingness to feel all our own emotions

God will assist us to open our soul using methods that also have the effect of confronting the error that is preventing the opening of the soul

The Holy Spirit

God's Holy Spirit is the medium or conduit by which God's Personal Love is impressed upon our soul

Holy Spirit requires that our soul be opened by other methods before it can transmit God's Love

Holy Spirit connects instantly with a soul that is open to the inflowing of God's Love

Holy Spirit is so sensitive to our soul longings that it senses the instant a connection is longed for

Holy Spirit is so sensitive to the intensity of the longing & makes connection proportional to the intensity

The Holy Spirit is God's special force or energy used to transmit Divine Love to Human Souls

Attributes of God's Love

God's Love is infinitely abundant; there is no limit to the amount we can receive

God's Love is the only substance that can totally transform us into the Divine state, and give immortality

Once we have received of God's Love to the extent required, we experience the complete transformation

Divine Love expands the soul's capacity to Love (and therefore expands the soul's power and beauty)

The Role of Faith

True Faith is a knowing of things real, substantial, things have been and are continuing to be proven

Faith makes the aspirations and longings of the soul a real, living existence, so certain with no doubt

Faith is a progressive quality, and it increases as possession of this Divine Love increases

Once we are conscious that Divine Love is always within us, our faith also is now continuously felt

God Is Abundant & Perfect

God gives us everything, does not expect us to live in poverty, or embrace a life of self-denial & sacrifice

We will always be provided for

When our struggle for existence ceases to become a struggle, we have come to know God's abundance

God's Love is truly unconditional, only we ourselves can prevent Her Love from flowing into our souls

The humble soul makes all effort to find feelings and emotions within that prevent connection with God

Any prevention of the flow of God's Love into our soul is always personal

Any lack of abundance in our life, or others' lives, must firstly be addressed by our own Law of Attraction

Longing Of the Soul Is Required

Our earnest aspiration, our soul longings, are the method by which Divine Love will flow

We need to understand that feelings, emotions, aspirations, inspirations & desires come from ourselves

We are not controlled by any force outside of ourselves, this is the truth of personal responsibility

If Divine Love is not being received, then the cause for this is within ourselves (and not with God)

Make the transition from blaming others for emotions, to taking personal ownership of emotions

Take action in personal life to live a life of Truth, this honours your soul feelings & emotions

God Has an Unlimited Nature

Since God is perfect in Love, She will never betray herself to provide us with our desires

We will act in the same manner in our own relationships when we understand this about God's Nature

As we receive Divine Love, God's Unlimited Nature becomes a part of our nature, we become powerful

As we grow and progress, our soul will possess more of God's Love, we will express more love to others

God's immense power is seen when we see that each of us can receive Divine Love to more abundance

Temptations Of the Flesh

Temptations of the flesh are caused by feelings, emotions and desires in disharmony with God's Love

Responding to these temptations does not assist our soul progression and personal happiness

The process of overcoming temptations, is not by using the mind to force the desires, feelings & emotions

When we allow the 'temptations of the flesh' they influence our ability to receive God's Love

Eg. Desire for food versus gluttony

Eg. Desire for sex in harmony with Love verses sexual promiscuity without true love

Eg. Desire for abundance versus greed

God does not punish us, but actions that lead us away from Love hurt us emotionally; we hurt ourselves

Associations Affect Us

Our associations affect us; they influence us in many ways, for good or evil.
Eg. Drinkers, smokers, sex addicts etc

We cannot generally see that which is invisible to us, so we usually cannot see evil spirits surrounding us

Spirit's motive for influencing us is to experience the satisfaction of the desires they had while living

Influence can be felt with all types of destructive behaviour, drinking, drugs, smoking, sexual activity, etc

Spirits with bad motives or incorrect beliefs may take action to prevent mortals from following the truth

Spirits who have never followed the Divine Love path will always influence us towards Natural Love

Spirits can be in just as much spiritual darkness as we personally are or even be in a worse condition

Many spirits and mediums do not respect God's Gift of Free Will (telling others what to do)

Listening to these can result in abdicating personal responsibility, taking actions damaging to ourselves

It is beneficial for us to develop in Divine Love before we attempt to get advice from the spirit world

Be Thankful

Thankfulness & gratitude are important qualities, a product of our feelings and emotions of appreciation

How can we not be thankful for what we have, and then ask for more than what we have?

"What a lousy gift, you did not spend much on that, I did not really want it anyway, you can have it back"

Sincere thankfulness and appreciation connect us to even greater feelings of Love from God

God Is Never Wrathful

If we make decisions that result in disconnection from God, God does not punish us or become angry

We are being perfectly led, so there is never any need for punishment

When we come to see that we are the creator of our own life, we will avoid behaviour that hurts us

When we are insensitive to our own soul, we have a lot of difficulty understanding pleasure & pain

God created us & the Universe so that we eventually are happy, so punishment is unnecessary

Earnest & Sincere Longings

Our prayer comes from the soul, is expressed by feelings, emotions, desires, inspiration and aspiration

The prayer needs to be felt within us before our Father can feel our sincere longings of the soul

This is something we have complete control over, the expressions of our own soul's longings

Give God Glory

As we progress in the development of our soul, we exceed the being we were originally created as

We become a new being, Born Again into His Love to the extent that we are now a part Divine Love

We have a part of God's Divine Nature within us, immortal, powerful, loving, compassionate; with infinite capacity She created within us to grow and be taught by Her

We are yet to fully know how much God has done in Her Desire for us to experience Her Love

God is deserving of all the glory and the honour our finite souls can give,
Amen

We don't emotionally demand or ask others to correct things for us

We don't emotionally demand or ask others to support us in our addictions

We don't focus on other people's problems or issues to make ourselves feel better

Want to FEEL the Truth, rather than just talking about or acknowledging the Truth

We seek Divine Truth, rather than seeking to maintain our own position

We seek to emotionally accept Divine Truth, rather than just talking about Divine Truth

We emotionally understand rather than an intellectually understand Divine Truths

God's Laws are "written on our heart" – Our heart grasps the principles of all of God's Laws

Is the Law of Divine Love (Repentance and Forgiveness) written on our heart?

Is the Law of Cause and Effect written on our heart?

Is the Law of Attraction written on our heart?

Is the Law of Desire written on our heart?

What actions would demonstrate that these Laws have become a part of our nature?

Since our heart has changed, the Divine Truth is easy to understand and follow

We do not need anyone else to tell us the Truth, or help us to determine the Truth

Being Humble

A sincere passionate desire and longing to FEEL all of our own emotions and feelings, no matter whether those emotions and feelings are pleasurable or painful to feel, without attempting to involve others, blame others or hurt others, whether those emotions make people around us uncomfortable or afraid. A passionate desire to emotionally see ourselves as God sees us without embellishment or denial.

When we are Humble, we have a passionate desire to FEEL all our emotions ourselves

We do not need anyone else to share in our personal emotional experience

We do not talk about our emotions and feelings without feeling them

We notice when we are creating emotions of self-deception in order to avoid the real emotions

Eg. Punishing ourselves when we need to feel fear instead

Eg. Being angry and blaming of others when we need to feel our own unloving demands

Eg. Feeling numb to prevent ourselves from feeling other emotions

Eg. Feeling “hurt” by others when we are really angry and demanding of others

Eg. Criticizing others rather than feeling our desire for power, control and glory

When we are Humble, we are not selective with our emotional expression

We openly and overtly show our true feelings, whether painful or pleasurable

We do not wait for the agreement of others before we show our true feelings

We do not select only pleasurable feelings, and reject painful feelings

We do not try to make ourselves feel something when we feel other things instead

Eg. Make ourselves happy when we actually feel sad

Eg. Make ourselves strong when we actually feel weak

Eg. Make ourselves positive when we actually feel hopeless

Eg. Blame ourselves to avoid feeling the pain of being treated unlovingly by others

Eg. Blame others to avoid feeling the unloving desire to treat others unlovingly

We do not put on one face for work, another for home, another for friends
 We do not resist telling the Truth about what we are doing to others in order to avoid attack
 We do not plan our life to avoid pain

When we are Humble, we don't expect others to accept or agree with us

We are completely prepared for and allowing of others to have their own emotional experience
 We engage our desires without expecting the approval or acceptance of others
 We do not change our behaviour just because we are with a different set of people
 We are emotionally open without being attacking or unloving
 We do not change our life for the sake of others approval or acceptance

 We are able to see the causes within ourselves of the effects of our creations
 We are able to feel when we are not personally repentant or forgiving of self or others
 We actively desire to FEEL when personal Truth is presented to us
 We stop talking, and act in harmony with Love without fearing consequences of loving actions
 We stop expecting others to act lovingly and desire to lovingly correct others

A Burning Desire For God

(Excerpt from the downloads section of the Divine Truth website)

Written by Jesus (also known as AJ Miller) to various people on 22nd February 2006

Jesus writes about what is required within ourselves to generate from a burning desire for God. In it Jesus gives an overview of natural love, Divine Love and the principles of receiving Divine Love, and he describes the five conditions that must be met in order to fully passionately desire God.

Introduction

Well, it is some time since I have written to you, and the primary reason for this is that I have been working through my own emotions and feelings on a large variety of issues and also done a bit of traveling within Australia. But I have been feeling strongly for a while about writing a few things down, things that I have felt about often over the past few months in particular, and that may benefit others in helping them with their own progression.

I realized just recently that I had written on this subject of having a burning desire for God almost one year ago, but I had not completed the message and sent it to everyone. Since it is an important subject, and one I have been discussing with different people individually, I decided to complete the message and send it to everyone.

What I write in this message will be one of those subjects that I would like to say much more about, because I am passionate about this subject, and there are so many facets to it that a person can meditate about the subject for many days, and still come to see new points pertaining to the love of our Father. The subject is, "A Burning Desire For God".

Human Relationships

When our Father designed the universe in which we live, both the portion accessible when we are in a material body, and the portions that are accessible in a spiritual body, He designed it with the view that any of His Children who truly choose to observe could see His Nature and Personality reflected in the things created. In doing this, He designed an automatic education system for the soul, a system which, if the soul remains sensitive to its environment and observations, would lead the soul on a journey of discovery that would always result in the discovery of more Divine Truth.

Observing creation not only informs the observant and humble soul about its own place within God's Plan, but also tells us much about the personality of our Heavenly Father, and as the soul comes to appreciate more and more Divine Truth, so it also comes to deeply love the Source of all Truth.

When our Father implanted within our soul the desire for natural love, His intention was that this automatic education system for the soul would result in the soul becoming aware of certain laws that seem to govern the relationships of natural love between souls. Once the soul is aware of those laws, then the soul also has the ability to become aware of the laws governing Divine Love, and this is why progression in natural love is important to the soul understanding the laws that govern the progression in Divine Love, and often precedes a persons progression in Divine Love.

This subject has many facets that will be discussed and written about later, and it is not the intention to discuss all of the details of natural love within this message. However, I want to demonstrate some basic principles of natural love, particularly between two persons who have become loving partners on the Earth, and then how these principles can be applied to the Divine Love of our Father.

Principles of Natural Love

As most persons entering a relationship would know, there are some basic requirements for the relationship to grow and develop. At this point I will not discuss why these requirements exist, but rather just what the requirements are for a loving relationship between two people to continue.

Entering or maintaining a loving relationship is an exercise of our free will, since a truly loving relationship will always be based on our desire and passion. It is true that many relationships today (with parents, friends, lovers) are based on other factors and needs that have been created by damaging emotional impressions from our childhood, parents, culture or environment, but unless the principles or laws of natural love are present, at some time in the future (physical or spiritual), all of these types of relationships break down because the principles governing the Laws of Attraction are contravened.

So, what are the basic principles maintaining a truly loving relationship with another person while on Earth? They are:

1. The object of my love will have a burning desire to know me and give their love to me and must also feel that I desire their love from them.
2. The object of my love will have a burning desire to be known by me and receive my love and must feel that I desire to give my love to them.
3. I will have a burning desire to be known by the object of my love and receive love from them, and I must feel that they desire to give their love to me.
4. I will have a burning desire to know the object of my love and give them my love and feel that they desire my love.
5. I will have a burning desire for natural love to be active in my life with all people.

When you examine these principles, you will see that if one of these principles is not satisfied, it becomes more and more difficult to maintain the relationship in question, whether that relationship be with a parent, child, friend or lover.

As I have said, many relationships today are based upon emotional damage rather than natural love, and so usually a number of the above principles of natural love are often not satisfied, thus causing dissatisfaction to be created with the relationship. Once this occurs, then either the relationship becomes based on other factors revolving around emotions disharmonious with love rather than love itself (such as the desire for approval at the cost of love and truth, the desire to be needed by someone – anyone will do, and so forth, which are all issues of co-dependence) or, the relationship itself breaks down completely.

When a relationship is dissatisfying it often becomes difficult to determine what the true cause is. The main reason for this is that each person in the relationship generally has emotional damage that distorts their own concept of love and their definition of loving behaviour, and so a tendency often develops to “blame” the other person in the relationship for the cause of dissatisfaction when often the true cause lay within our own soul.

Many people also avoid personal progress, and so when their own feelings and emotions are challenged, they react angrily towards the source of the challenge, rather than developing a sincere desire to examine their own emotional pain or error within themselves, and see how that pain or error could be causing damage to the relationship. So they avoid their own pain, and in the process, blame all of their pain on another person. These resistive reactions to situations or people are often referred to as ego.

Another very large reason why relationship breakdown occurs is that relationships are often developed on the basis of each person in the relationship originally being attached or attracted to the other person because of their own emotional injuries. In other words, the original attraction is not based on pure natural love, but rather based on distorted emotions needing to be satisfied. If one person within this relationship begins to deal with these emotional injuries, the cause for the attraction may no longer exist for that person, and new causes of attraction must develop for the relationship to remain intact. If the second person in the relationship refuses to address these issues, then generally the relationship that previously satisfied the emotions of each participant (satisfying emotional injuries or errors, co-dependence), now no longer satisfies at least one person, and the result will be a breakdown in the relationship.

Of course, if both parties in the relationship truthfully from the soul desire change, have personal integrity and honesty, and are passionately desirous of personal emotional and spiritual growth, then even if the relationship began due to co-dependent attractions, the relationship will be a great source of comfort and strength to assist each individual to progress personally, and can often survive the upheaval of dealing with and releasing emotional injuries.

Principles of Divine Love

Entering a relationship with God, and receiving His Divine Love as a result, will automatically challenge all of the emotional injuries and errors within us. Since our Heavenly Father is perfect in Love, if we do not feel the effects of receiving His Love the only cause can be within our soul. Our Father has created a perfect system for healing us in every way, the primary way being healing us from emotional pain caused by emotions and feelings in disharmony with Love. The results of this healing then are transferred from our soul into our spirit and physical bodies, and so a person on the Divine Path is eventually also healed from all spiritual and physical disease as well.

If we seriously consider this point, we can see that this very much simplifies our spiritual growth, and also our growth in understanding and displaying natural love to others. We have a way of finding out all of our personal emotional injuries that will harm any relationship, and this way is by following the Way to Divine Love, which results in our being able to feel the flow of Divine Love from our Father. If the Divine Love does not flow and we cannot feel it, then the cause is our own error, and if we have courage and are truthfully longing for and seeking our Father, we will be determined to find the source of those errors within, and ask His assistance for their removal.

The Law of Activation (which is sometimes also called the Law of True Desire or Passion) operates upon the true condition of the soul. A person can believe in their mind that they are longing or have a passionate desire for something in harmony with God's Laws, but if that desire is of the mind only, and does not originate within the soul, the thing longed for will not result at all. If the desire does originate within the soul, but its intent is not pure in its nature, then only effects that are in harmony with impurity will result.

This principle of course also applies to Divine Love and its reception. If we think we long for Divine Love, but the desire does not originate from the soul, but only from the mind, then the Holy Spirit cannot be activated to bring us the Divine Love. In other words, we can say; "Yes I want the Divine Love", but not ever really feel like we want it, and of course, if this is the case, we will never receive it.

Or, if we do actually long for Divine Love, but the longing or desire originates from intentions that are impure in their nature or not in harmony with truth (a desire to control, and desire to be in a better condition than someone else, a desire to get the benefits of Divine Love), rather than a pure desire to come to know and experience our Father, we of course will get what we truly long for, and not what we believe we long for. Divine Love cannot be obtained by effort that is directed in disharmony with the Laws of Divine Love. A lack of personal truth, universal truth, personal purity, or purity of intent will all result in our inability to experience greater amounts of Divine Love at some point.

If we long to have our Father understand us, and yet do not wish to understand ourselves, then we will only ever receive the Divine Love to a small degree, and then we will stagnate, because a person having Divine Love to a greater degree will also come to long to know themselves. If we long to have our Father understand us, but we do not wish to understand our Father or others, then again we will only ever receive the Divine Love to a small degree, and then we will stagnate, because a person having Divine Love to a greater degree will also come to long to know God more fully, and understand, know and demonstrate true love to others.

If we desire to feel one of God's emotions (His Love), but do not desire to feel our own emotions, then while we retain such a view, we cannot receive any more of our Father's Love. His Love is an emotion, far more powerful in nature than our own emotions, so, if we cannot allow ourselves to experience our own emotions or take personal responsibility for our own emotions, then how can we expect God to be able to give us some of His Emotion. Surely, while we are full of our own emotions bottled up and not experienced, our Father is not able to give us some of His Love, because we are exercising our free will in a manner disharmonious to the reception of that Love.

Principles of Receiving Divine Love

So now we come to a very important point, one that cannot be dismissed, and that needs to be meditated upon fully to understand the operation of Divine Love upon our soul. For Divine Love to be received within my soul to the extent that I become at-one with God, five conditions must exist. They are:

1. God has a burning desire to know me and Love me, and knows when I desire Her Love.
2. God has a burning desire to be known by me and receive my love, and know I desire to give my love.
3. I need to develop a burning desire to be known by God and receive Love from Her, and know She desires to give Her Love to me.
4. I need to develop a burning desire to know God and give God my love, and know She desires my love.
5. I must have a burning desire for Divine Love to be active in my life.

Please note that I have said, “For Divine Love to be received within my soul to the extent that I become at-one with God, five conditions must exist.” This is very important. Obviously, for a person who is just beginning on the path of obtaining the divine soul, not all if any of these conditions may exist initially, and yet they will receive Divine Love to some extent. But, to become at-one with our Father, all of these conditions must exist, and if they do not, at some point, stagnation in our relationship with Him will occur.

When you examine these conditions, you will see how similar they are to the conditions that must exist for natural love to exist between two humans. Let’s examine each of these conditions in turn, and then perhaps analyse some circumstances in which these conditions may not be satisfied.

Our Father’s Desires

Our Father of course has many desires that come from His Soul, and He is continually expressing His Desires in the entire universe, and this includes the material universe, the spiritual universe and soul universe. Of course, each universe is successively greater in its potential experience, and therefore, each universe includes consecutively greater diverse expressions of God’s Creation.

As we have been told, God’s Greatest Creation is the soul of man, and remember by the expression “soul of man”, I mean the soul that contains two distinct parts that separate at the time of incarnation, yourself and your soulmate together. In time, due to each soul half’s progression in Divine Love, these two parts will again be one, a process referred to as soul inion, and will again form the single unit that our Father created, but now with a consciousness of its own complete identity (which identity consists of the sum of the identities of the two halves), and a consciousness of its own individualization (which individualization consists of the amalgamation of the individualization of each half).

We also know that the mortal body is a machine, material in nature and controlled by the soul via the spirit body, and this machine is the way in which one half of the soul can progressively gain experience and knowledge of the physical universe in which it lives. Of course, at the initial stages the universe experienced is primarily the one that it experiences via its physical senses, since the physical senses are the first of its senses to develop and mature. Then it can learn to also experience the spiritual universe, via the use and development of the spirit body and it’s senses (even while in a physical form), and then eventually if it has found the correct Way, the Way of Truth and Divine Love, it can learn to use and develop the senses of the soul (even while in a physical form, or spiritual form), and experience the soul universe.

Now, it is commonly conceived that man must be in a spirit body to experience the spirit universe and must be in soul only to experience the soul universe, but it is a mistake to think this way as will be demonstrated over the coming years. The truth is that our experience, especially beyond the sixth sphere of the spirit universe, is totally dependent on our seeking for Divine Truth, having a burning desire for our Father's Personal Love, His Divine Love, and accepting the changes that these things bring to us. In the first century my life demonstrated that a person could exist on Earth, but have access to the entire spirit realm, dependent on the exercise of the free will of the person and the amount of Divine Love in their soul. In the 21st century, it will be demonstrated by fourteen (14) different individuals, seven (7) complete souls, that it is possible to also have access to many of the creations of our Father in every part of His Universe, and so we will demonstrate what the Divine Truth about soulmate love really is.

It is our Father's Desire for us to not only know about the potentiality of these facts, but also to be able to grow spiritually enough to enjoy all of His Creations, which are, in the end, an expression of His Love for His Children collectively.

Our Father's Love for All Collective Children

Our Father has demonstrated the Love that He has for his children collectively in all aspects of His Creation. While in the physical body, most people concentrate on their experience in the material universe, and even in this universe there are so many potential experiences that we could claim it alone is a world of infinite possibilities. And so it is.

When we meditate upon what our Father has done in this universe, and if we are growing in our expression of natural love only, it is possible to see that billions of lifetimes could be used and yet still not everything in this universe would be able to be understood completely. God created this playground, full of creatures that are an expression of His Love, primarily for the purpose of the education and enjoyment of the soul half experiencing the material universe. He created this as an expression of His Love for each child of His, and this Love is expressed independent of whether the child themselves actually acknowledges the Creator or not.

It was this Love of the Father that I referred to in Matthew 5:45, where the substance of my words are recorded when it says; "Our Father in the heavens makes his sun rise upon wicked people and good, and makes it rain upon righteous people and unrighteous." Our Father has literally provided a smorgasbord of variety in almost every field, and after tens of thousands of years of human existence on Earth, still man is yet to discover everything there is to enjoy in the physical universe, in fact, they have barely scratched the surface.

Not only has He created these things, but He has also created a material body via which the half of the soul living in this physical universe can enjoy a complete experience of the physical universe. The senses of touch, taste, smell, hearing, sight are all complimented by the almost infinite variety of sensations we can experience via those senses, and these sensations create new emotions, desires and passions within us. And all of this is an expression of our Father's Love for His Grandest Creation, the human soul.

Of course, the spiritual universe is much grander, in scale and variety, and the soul universe grander again in scale and variety, and all of this our Father created as a playground of discovery for the human soul, each one of His Children whom He Loves dearly.

In addition, and perhaps even more wonderful, our Father did not just design all of this, and set it all in motion, and then let it all operate without His further consideration. Our Father also demonstrates a burning desire to completely know each single individual soul completely, and so He takes a personal interest in each half of the soul as it progresses through the experience of life in the playground. He knows every action we have even taken, every thought we have ever had, every feeling we have ever felt, and every desire we have ever nourished. He knows the effects of each action, the effect of every thought and word, the effect of every feeling, and the effect of every desire, and He is constantly attempting to communicate with us through His Universe so that we can grow towards a blissful life experience. He does this whether we deny Him or know He exists, fear Him or love Him, listen to Him or shut our ears to Him, walk away from Him or towards Him, are ignorant of Him or progressively understand Him, lie to Him or tell Him the truth.

Such is the Love God has for each of us, collectively and individually. He has His Burning Desire to know us completely, and so He does.

Knowing God

Knowing God is, of course, much more difficult for us, than it is for God to know us. So, our Father, being perfect in His Nature, and complete in all His Expressions of Love, designed a perfect way for us to come to know Him. But in creating this Way, He did not expect us to choose it, nor does He punish us when we walk away from it. He just provided it for those who wanted to come to know Him. Coming to know God is optional, not something we must do, nor something we will ever be forced into doing. It depends totally on our own desire and passion, the exercise of our own will.

We can decide to experience and enjoy as much of this playground He created that we can without knowing Him, and He will still Love us with His Great Love and still attempt to communicate with us, because His Burning Desire to know us is not tainted with impure expectations and always respects our own will. We will come to know as much about Him as we wish to know, based on our own desire and passion. We can investigate the playground He created, both physical and spiritual, to the limits of our own capacity as created, without ever really having a desire to understand the Person who created all of it. Such a person can feel they are completely happy within themselves, as many persons who are now living in the 6th sphere feel. They are self-reliant, examples of perfect natural men and women, living in harmony with the moral laws of the universe, perfected in natural love, and feeling the joy of discovery each day within the universe our Loving Father has created for them to enjoy.

Their overwhelming desire and passion is to know and enjoy the creation. But they want to retain their own concept of the Creator, since they wish Him to conform to their own intellectual ideas and imaginations of who and what God is, and they either refuse to make other personal changes necessary to truly experience God, or they remain ignorant of how to completely experience God.

But, for those who have a burning desire to truly come to know Him, God created the Way, the Path of Truth and Life, and this creation is truly His Greatest Expression of Love to all human souls, since this is the only Way to further discovery of His Nature. He gave all of His Children a means to come to truly understand Him, and He did this by offering the means for His Children to obtain a part of Himself, His Divine Love. In obtaining It, their own soul becomes transformed in nature so that they are now able to begin to truly understand their own Father.

Of course, His Divine Love is not the only part of Himself that He may offer to us, as during our further progression we will realize, but it is the first and most important part of Himself, in that without it all other progression towards understanding God, and as a byproduct, His creations above the 6th sphere of the spiritual universe, is impossible.

Not only does our Father have a burning desire to know us individually, but He gave us an even greater gift than free will, and that is His Divine Love, a part of Himself, so that we could grow in a manner that would result in our coming to know Him by personally experiencing His Feelings of Love, and this substance our soul receives from God causes the transformation of the soul of man into the Divine.

Such is our Father's Burning Desire to know us, and be known by us. He created the entire universe so that we could come to know Him, and to feel His Love for us, and so that we would eventually develop a burning desire within ourselves to truly know Him.

So, let's examine in more detail the soul conditions that will need to exist for us to continue to receive Divine Love.

1. God has a burning desire to know me and Love me, and knows when I desire Her Love.
2. God has a burning desire to be known by me and receive my love, and know I desire to give my love.
3. I need to develop a burning desire to be known by God and receive Love from Her, and know She desires to give Her Love to me.
4. I need to develop a burning desire to know God and give God my love, and know She desires my love.
5. I must have a burning desire for Divine Love to be active in my life.

Soul Condition 1: God's Burning Desire to Love Me

God has a burning desire to know me and give Her Love to me, and knows when I desire Her Love. There are three parts to this soul condition. As I have shown God does have a burning desire to know each of us individually, and She also has a burning desire to give us Her Love, and Her Creation of the Laws of Divine Love demonstrate these facts. The simple fact that each person who longs for Divine Love receives It demonstrates that God has a burning desire to know and love each person individually.

But the third part may be difficult, not for God, but for ourselves. Do we let God know that I desire Her Love? How does God know what we desire? She does this by Her feeling our true desire. The instant we have a desire for Her Love, God feels in Her Soul the pull of our true desire, and the Holy Spirit in this case is automatically activated by our pure desire, and then soul condition 1 is completely satisfied. This operates instantly, and without failure, as does everything else God does. As far as it depends upon God, everything is in place. It only remains that She can feel our true desire. Of course, God can feel all of our desires, but Her Love only responds to a pure emotional desire coming from our soul that is in harmony with Her Laws. For God to feel our true desire, we must have a true desire. So the question becomes; do I really have a true desire for God's Love? Is this desire I say I have pure, without corrupting influences? I will discuss this matter more in the section under soul condition 3.

Soul Condition 2: God's Burning Desire to Be Loved By Me

God has a burning desire to be known by me and receive my love, and knows when I desire to give my love. Again, there are three parts to this soul condition. As I have shown our Father does have a burning desire to be known by each of us individually, and He also has a burning desire to receive our love, to the extent we are able to give it. Again, His Creation of the Laws of Divine Love demonstrates these facts.

However, again the third part may be difficult for us. Does He know I desire to give him my love? How does our Father know that we love him? He does this by His feeling our love. Since our Father created our soul with the ability to send our love to any other soul in the universe, including His Divine Soul, the instant we feel love for our Father, He feels it. So then soul condition 2 is completely satisfied. Our Father feels our love without fail the instant we feel it within ourselves.

Because our emotions are involved, loving thoughts can only come from loving feelings. So there is no such thing as a thought of love without an emotion. The mind or the brain cannot love. But the feeling of love that comes from the soul can be activated by thoughts of the mind. So there is a relationship between thoughts and loving feelings or loving emotions.

As far as it depends upon our Father, everything is in place. It only remains that He can feel our desire to love Him. For Him to feel our love, we must have pure love for Him and be feeling it ourselves. So the question becomes; do I really have pure love for God? Am I in love with my Father? Is this love I say I have without corrupting influences or impure expectations? I will discuss this matter more in the section under soul condition 4.

Soul Condition 3: My Burning Desire to Be Loved By God

Now things begin to become more difficult, because now we must begin to know ourselves truly, and be able to feel our own pure emotions, desires, passions and longings.

Let's examine this condition's three phases one at a time.

I need to have a burning desire to be known by my heavenly Mother

Do I have a burning desire to be known by anyone? Often, I may say that I do, but I may be in a state of psychological reversal regarding the matter, where my thoughts and my feelings are actually opposite. (Please note this is the cause of many diseases, from migraine headaches to cancer.) For example, a person often states they have a burning desire to be known by someone else, and then they spend the majority of their life lying to others, withholding truth from others, misrepresenting their true feelings, running away from trusting others, avoiding emotional transactions, and withholding their heart in love. So the truth is that they do not really want someone else to know them, even though they think they do.

This is similar to a person who says they want to lose weight and goes on diets one after the other but never loses weight. They believe with their mind they wish to lose weight, but there is a feeling within them that is more powerful saying they wish to remain fat or gain weight. It may be as simple as, “If I lose weight, I will look attractive, then I will get unwanted attention, and I don’t want attention, so I will stay fat.”

There are usually deep emotional causes from childhood for this kind of reasoning that are completely ignored by the mind, because the mind responds to the soul emotions saying; “I (the soul) want my mind to help me to deny any true emotion that causes me to feel pain.” When this occurs, the mind will attempt to follow the soul’s incessant instructions and avoid all food, drink, events, memories, and situations that trigger the emotional pain. Or, conversely, it will be attracted towards food, drink, events, memories or situations that assist it to be distracted from pain. While we are in this condition, we are using our mind to filter and avoid what our soul says is negative emotion, and while we do this, we do not have a pure desire to truly know ourselves or be known by God.

Allowing myself to be known requires my emotional openness. It requires that I want to expose myself as I truly am to God and others. It requires that I understand that She sees everything within me, even those things that I feel ashamed of, that I feel guilty for, that I feel rotten about. It requires that I am honest with myself, and see my own condition as it truthfully is, rather than the condition that I portray to others falsely. It requires that I live in truth.

Having a burning desire to be known is often more easily satisfied in the spirit world than on Earth. The reason is that shortly after entering the spirit world, most spirits realize how naked they are in regard to their own thoughts and feelings, and the condition of their own soul. Often the spirit will then “give up” the pretence they kept while on Earth, because in the spirit world they find such a pretence fruitless. So, for a spirit it is not very difficult exposing true thoughts and feelings, whether creative or destructive, to their heavenly Creator, since the truth has been already exposed to themselves and others.

But, on the Earth, it is very easy to deny our own true thoughts and feelings, and we often spend our entire life denying how we truly feel, also attempting to hide the truth of our thoughts and feelings from others. When we are in this habit, we are actually trying to hide ourselves from ourselves, and as a subsequent result, we also by default are attempting to hide ourselves from our Father. We cannot have a desire to hide ourselves from ourselves, and at the same time have a desire to be open to our Father. These two desires are in opposition to each other and will result in our Father feeling our burning desire to remain hidden rather than a burning desire to be known and loved. If I desire to hide myself, then I do not love myself, which means I do not love what my Father feels is the best of His creations. So, the end result is that we dislike something our Father Loves, and we are in disharmony with our Father's feelings. We have in fact become critical of His Greatest Creation.

This is one of the reasons why people who have personal discussions with me at times get angry and frustrated with me. When I am talking with any person, I will concentrate on the emotional transactions that happen between myself and the other person, and this usually has the effect of exposing emotional injuries. Then, because many persons on Earth are still very desirous of covering over their true emotions (they are yet to accept they are naked emotionally), often the person I am talking with gets angry with me in an effort to deny the truth about their deeper emotions.

Some prefer continuously and for long periods to project anger, hatred and resentment towards me rather than realize that they are just afraid about going deeper within themselves towards their emotional truth. Once a person is on the Divine Path, this kind of conduct becomes rare, and certainly never lasts for long, because the disharmony such desire (the desire to avoid emotion) creates with the opposing desire of receiving Divine Love (a blissful emotion) causes the soul to be in a very "discombobulated" state (as the Apostle John would say), a state that most people cannot endure for long.

I need to have a burning desire to receive Love from God

Do I have a burning desire to be loved by God, to receive Her Divine Love? Do I have a burning desire to be loved at all? Often, I may say that I do, but again I may be in a state of psychological reversal regarding the matter, where my thoughts and my feelings are actually opposite. For example, a person often states they have a burning desire to be loved by someone else, and then they spend the majority of their life hating themselves, and this self-hatred is demonstrated by their lack of care about their own self, their physical and emotional health, and their own spiritual condition. The constantly reject their own soul, by constantly rejecting their soul's emotions, passions and desires.

Often, we project our love injury feelings and emotions onto our Father, but deny this process with our mind. In our mind we say; "I really want my Father to give me His Love", but our feelings are that we are unlovable, maybe because our parents or our primary caregivers did not demonstrate love to us. This may especially be the case if we have experienced emotional, physical or sexual abuse. Abuse teaches us that we are unable to be loved by those people who "should" love us, so then we feel we are unlovable. We are saying to ourselves emotionally; "If my mother (or father) could not love me, then nobody can." Of course, we still desire someone's love, but each time someone attempts to love us, we use words or actions that push them away, because we believe we are unlovable. So we come to believe we want love, but our true soul condition, which will activate the soul of our Father, is that we feel we are unable to be loved.

The Law of Attraction will expose this condition within us. When we are in this condition, we will feel that we love others, but that others do not understand us or love us. Of course, it is not love that we are experiencing for others, but rather co-dependence. The soul in the condition where it believes it is unlovable will surround itself with people, but each one of those persons will project expectations upon the individual so that eventually the individual sees that it really does not want love but wants dependence. If love “hurts”, then it is not love, and at some time in the future we will need to come to understand what love is before we will progress.

We can believe with our mind all we want, but unless our true soulful desire or passion is for the thing we say we want, we will never receive it. This illustrates the damage that can be done by the great undermining negative influence of poor parental care. Feelings of dissatisfaction felt within childhood are under the influence of our soul in pain, then denied and buried by our mind in an effort to prevent further painful experiences, and the result is our inability to recognize our own true feelings and emotions. All of this must be reversed. It is our soul’s emotional condition that activates the Law of Attraction, not our intellectual reasoning.

Childhood feelings regarding love that are in error have the largest effect on the soul attempting to desire its Mother’s Love. All of these emotions will be confronted if we truly seek and desire Divine Truth and Divine Love, and as we come to know and love our Mother, a byproduct of such experience is that we also come to know and love ourselves. God created this process, which is perfect in all its ways, a process that exposes within us all of our personal love injuries, exposes all of our personal desires and passions that are in disharmony with Her Laws or Her Love, exposes all of our thoughts, words and actions that are the effects of our soul’s true condition, and all of our selfishness, pride, shame, guilt, sadness, fear, anger and resentment.

If we truly want God’s Love, then we must also truly want to recognize within ourselves and release from ourselves all of these disharmonious conditions.

I need to feel God desires to give me Love

One of the greatest shortcomings of mankind alienated from God is their concept of our Creator. Concepts are drastically limited by our own emotional injuries, and mankind continuously “projects” their emotional condition upon God, and beliefs and attitudes towards God are mostly based on conceptions of persons who portray a God they wish to see rather than desiring to come to know Him as He truly is.

Those on a spiritual path often cannot explain who or what God is, and they also do not have a concept of His personality. Because of this, they struggle to understand that God wants a personal relationship with them and wants to give them His Love. They believe that Absolute Truth, Divine Truth cannot be known nor understood, so they never ask for Divine Love or Divine Truth or seek it. Others project their own feelings and emotions onto God, and desire God to be full of anger and resentment, wrathful, eternally punishing those who disobey, someone to be feared. Would such a fearsome being want to really love them? Is it even love when it is so conditional, with the constant threat of punishment underlying God's intent?

Those who are on the intellectual and moral path to "enlightenment", as it is often called, have many limitations of conception which are then projected onto God, and God, if He exists to them at all, then becomes an unapproachable force, a nebulous energy or power without personality, a part of each one of us, but existing throughout the universe; a total conundrum, a mystery unfathomable, full of contradictions and inconsistencies. They come to believe that having a relationship with God is to just have a relationship with Self, that Self is God expressed, that God needs us to experience Himself. To them, the love of God means the love of our "higher self". Will a person with this belief ever really seek God's Love and His Truth?

Obviously, we could mention multitudes of reasons why we may not believe or feel that our Father desires to give us His Love, and these reasons vary dependent on our emotional condition, the beliefs of our mind, and our experiences in our life. If we truly want to have our Father's Love, then we need to feel that He wants us to seek for it.

For many of us, our earthly parents have not been very expressive with their love, imposing upon us their own emotional and love injuries, or they may have even been quite abusive towards us. When this is the case, our emotions and feelings gathered from these experiences will be projected towards either the feminine or masculine parts of God, and as a result, often we will want to believe mentally that God is loving and caring, but within our emotions are another set of feelings which tell us that God does not care, does not feel, does not understand, and certainly does not want to love us. All of these emotions need to be challenged if we are to experience Divine Love in our lives.

A true conception of our Father and his Qualities and Attributes will progressively be enhanced as we receive His Divine Love, since His Divine Love is the substance that transforms our soul and gives it the ability to more deeply understand the Source of that Love.

Soul Condition 4: My Burning Desire to Love God

Mankind's way of living has become so distorted, and the condition of the soul so covered with sin and error that many people in this world want something without being prepared to give of themselves. They want to be loved, but do not want to risk loving. They want to receive gifts but are not generous in giving. They want more material things, but they do not want to give anything materially unless they get in return. They want someone else to work for them, but they do not want to work for others. When they are poor, they want to take from the rich and give to the poor, when they are rich they want to take from the poor.

This also is a primary reason why many receive the Divine Love of God to a certain extent while they are on Earth and then fail to receive it more until sometime after they have passed over into the spirit world. They want, but they are not prepared to truly give of everything they have.

Becoming at-one with our Creator requires us to have the same kind of feelings within our soul as She has within Her Divine Soul, and this will automatically result if we possess Divine Love within our own soul, because the Divine Love modifies our soul in a manner that transforms it into a being that can begin to feel God's feelings and emotions. Our Mother gives of Herself constantly, not just Her Attributes and Qualities, but also of Her Emotions and Feelings. She is a never-ending clearinghouse of Gifts. She is not a storehouse, She never keeps anything to Herself, and Her Desire is always to share with others. Her Desire to share Her Love with us is the primary reason for our own existence.

Initially when we begin to know that God's Love is available to us, we generally do not have a burning desire for It, since we really do not know what God's Love is, nor do we know the advantages to ourselves in our generating within us a desire to experience Divine Love in our lives. So, initially, our desire could be said to be cold or lukewarm, because it is not really possible for us to have desires towards God, when, at the same moment, we have many desires that are disharmonious with Divine Love.

I need to have a burning desire to know God

At the beginning of any relationship, we are usually in a condition where we do not know the person we have just met, and so therefore, we are not in a position to truly appreciate them. Just like any new acquaintance, we will never get to know a person we have just met unless we feel some sense of rapport with them, some sense of desire to get to know them. We walk past thousands of people, often even within the space of a single day, without ever really expressing a desire to get to know any of them.

And often we do the same thing with God. We often walk past all of the things our Creator has done and rarely give a thought that we can get to personally know the Being who was the Cause of this beauty. So, one of the first emotions that is necessary to develop in our relationship with God is a desire to get to know Her. She is right next to us, knowing every thought, word and feeling, and the cause for every thought, word and feeling, and yet we ignore the only way to connect with Her.

Often the seed of desire to know God never is allowed to grow within us, and usually this is because of many of the negative viewpoints of God that we have. In many of my seminars, I have found people actually hating me for even using the word “God” when referring to the Creator. Some have even walked out. This inner emotion within them is often caused by terrible experiences with religion during their childhood formative years. Our relationship with God will require that we experience and release all of those negative emotions about religion and God that have been imposed upon us by people who do not understand our Creator. It is not possible to have a burning desire for Love from a Being who we hate, or fear, or view as sexist, racist, or partial. So, all those emotions will need to be worked through and released before we can be at-one with God.

I need to have a burning desire to give God my love

Often it is one thing to come to know someone, but quite another to actually want to love them. When we get to know different people, we generally are very much confronted either by our own emotions or by the emotions of the other person, and these factors will determine whether the person will eventually be a true friend or not.

Obviously, God’s emotions are always pure, and so, if we have not yet developed a burning desire to come to know God, then it is only because we are yet to truly understand God’s Divine Qualities and Attributes. Usually we attribute many negative emotions to God, such as wrath, a desire to punish, a lack of parental care, a lack of desire to want us as Her child, and many other similar emotional erroneous beliefs that have attached themselves to our soul while we have been growing up are often the underlying cause as to why we avoid a relationship with God.

While these emotions are within us, we will struggle with developing a burning desire to give God our own love. But the beauty of Divine Love is that, as It begins Its influence upon the soul, It confronts all of these emotions, and, as long as we ourselves are prepared to exercise our own free will to experience and release those emotions, all of the reasons why we have a negative viewpoint of God will eventually vanish.

But this is often a difficult process, especially if we have called upon God in the past as a child, and we feel He has not responded or heard our plea. This is particularly the case with many sufferers of sexual or violent abuse. They have often called out to God wanting God to stop the abuse from occurring, and, not understanding all of the laws surrounding the issue, develop a deep resentment of God which often lasts beyond their earthly existence and many hundreds and sometimes thousands of years in the spirit world.

But we cannot ever see the truth when anger dictates our responses. We also cannot ever really come to know love when we are full of personal rage. And our rage and terror, like all other emotions, need to be experienced to be released. This is when we often feel that everything is too difficult. Our soul has become like a body full of the barbs of poison, placed there by the arrows of another, but still needing to be removed. Our Father cannot assist in the removal unless we are willing. We often want God to break His Own Laws to remove the poison we have ingested, and our rage at God at His seeming refusal to do so, although misplaced, is really a reflection of the depth of terror we feel about dealing with these emotions ourselves. It is very hard to understand God when we already believe God to be uncaring, and it is also very difficult to allow ourselves to trust God will help us through the maze of emotion, when we believe that He never did help us when we were first experiencing it.

So, developing a burning desire to love and seek God is very difficult when we have so many emotions within us that cause us to already feel rejected by Him. Of course, if our parents had assisted us to experience and release these emotions when we were young, we would not now have these problems coming to love God. We would have already come to see that the true cause of our emotional damage was not God, but rather the people who chose to harm us, and we would have already learned that the Laws of Compensation would result in those ones eventually having to experience the pain they caused. But our parents often are in even worse soul condition than ourselves due to events that have affected their lives, even if they were not the actual cause of the violence against us.

Even the reincarnation philosophies that dominate much spirituality today have been created in an attempt to understand personal pain. But the true reason for all personal pain is that man decided many millennia ago to walk away from God and to exercise his own free will in a manner disharmonious to God's Law. And God, who gave man this supreme and most beautiful gift of free will, would not be able to correct the situation in the manner that most humans have in the past wanted without also removing the gift He gave.

All God's Laws are perfect, and God, more than anyone else, knows this. Man has tried the experiment of lawlessness, of self-reliance, and it did not, and does not, bring the happiness man expected. When we come to see how beautiful the gift of free will is, then we will truly begin to feel a deep desire and love for the Creator of such a gift. But like any powerful gift, it can be used for powerful badness, or powerful goodness, and man is only now beginning to see the full effects of his error.

So, if you do not have a burning desire to know and love God, then it is probable that you have within you some emotions of self-reliance, or some pain which you have associated with God or believe that God is its cause. If this is so, these emotions will also be confronted in your desire to seek Divine Love.

I need to feel God desires my love

It is very difficult to love someone whom you believe does not want you to love them, and who you also believe does not love you. Many times, our concept of God is that our Creator is far away, some All Powerful Being to whom we appear just as ants, or even pawns in the larger game of universal life. We often feel He is not personally interested in our troubles and concerns, that He does not listen to our cares and troubles and certainly does not desire love from us.

These emotions are actually quite devastating to our relationship with our Divine Parent. Since God is completely self-existent and self-sufficient, He is not needy in any way, so, therefore, He does not need our love.

However, once we ourselves progress in love, we come to see that there is a vast difference between neediness, and love, and there is a large difference between need and desire. Need is usually based around emotional injuries, while love is driven by pure and sincere passion or desire.

There are many emotional reasons why we may feel that God does not want our love. Almost all of those reasons come from false beliefs surrounding God that have entered our soul and taken possession of it. All false beliefs that remain with us generally have emotional content, and so, they are hard to work through and release. This of course also applies to false beliefs surrounding God.

In any relationship, if I believe the person I would like to love does not want my love (even if they really do desire my love), then I will prevent myself from giving them my love in an effort to avoid the potential pain of being rejected emotionally. I may construct many intellectual reasons for my decision to believe they do not want me, and most of these will revolve either around assumptions about the other person's true desires or revolve around my wishing to believe that they do not want me (deep emotions of unworthiness, guilt, shame, loneliness, or fears of rejection).

Once I work through these emotions, along with learning the truth about God, I will be able to feel that God desires my love, and also desires to give Divine Love to me.

Soul Condition 5: My Burning Desire to Live Divine Love

Once Divine Love is received into the soul, one of Its Laws is that It requires the exercise of love with others. Holding love within is an act based around emotions of fear; fear of rejection, fear of loss, fear of not having enough, fear of emotional exposure and so forth. As God's Love enters the soul, you will automatically find yourself developing a desire to love others, and your fears will all be confronted.

The development of this desire is not intellectual, and it does not require effort, in the sense of trying to live a life of love while inside there are still emotions of pain. Instead, as the Divine Love enters the soul, it causes your sincere desires and passions to change, and while previously situations may have resulted in feelings sadness, fear or anger (although you may have intellectually denied the expression of these emotions), now, automatically, without having to try, you find yourself expressing Divine Love in your life in all situations, and in particular situations you would have normally desired to act differently.

It is like 1 Corinthians 13:4-7 from the Bible states:

4 Love is long-suffering and kind. Love is not jealous, it does not brag, does not get puffed up, 5 does not behave indecently, does not look for its own interests, does not become provoked. It does not keep account of the injury. 6 It does not rejoice over unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth. 7 It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

or

13:4 Love is patient, love is kind, it is not envious. Love does not brag; it is not puffed up. 13:5 It is not rude, it is not self-serving, it is not easily angered or resentful. 13:6 It is not glad about injustice, but rejoices in the truth. 13:7 It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

When a person has received Divine Love, the reflection of this Love in the manner described in the Bible begins to happen automatically, without an intellectual attempt to meet any standard. If we find ourselves not being able to demonstrate these qualities, then all it means is that we are yet to either receive enough Divine Love for the expression to be automatic, that we are yet to release emotions that prevent the pure expression of Divine Love, or that we wish to hold onto harmful emotions.

When Divine Love enters the soul, it creates a burning desire within the soul to express itself in love. It does not require us to "try to love", or "try to be kind", or "try to be patient", or "try to be calm". We will automatically be these things as the Divine Love transforms our soul, because the Divine Love turns our “heart of stone”, into a “heart of flesh”. It transforms us into a being that reflects Love, not because we intellectually force ourselves to, but because our passion has also been transformed from being based on injurious emotions to being based on Divine Love.

If we have to “try” to do the “right” thing, then we are yet to be transformed by Divine Love. “Trying” is the result of intellectual and moral development in Natural Love, or the result of emotions of error yet to be released from the soul. Divine Love transforms us from making effort into natural expression without effort. For that reason, it is true freedom.

If we are yet to reach that place, then all we need do is continue to release the negative emotional baggage we carry and continue to sincerely long (pray) from the heart for Divine Love from our heavenly Parent. The Divine Love will do Its work. If ourselves or others do not notice personal changes that are automatic, then we have become stagnant in the reception of the Divine Love and we need to address within ourselves the reason why we are not exercising our emotional free will to allow further progress.

Summary

Sometimes a person’s desire for Divine Love is motivated totally by a desire to be happy personally, and to be free of the worries and strife that a life of alienation from God brings. In other words, we often seek Divine Love for less than pure reasons that come from selfish needs. Our relationship with God will expose all desires and passions that are disharmonious with love. Our Divine Parent is sincere in all His Feelings and Emotions, and He also instantly knows when our motives are pure and sincere, because these qualities resonate with His Soul.

When we begin prayer, having a burning desire is not always possible because other emotional baggage that must be released taints desire, only upon release of emotional error can a pure and sincere desire be realized. As we release our harmful emotions, we grow in sincerity and purity, and our desire for God grows. In time, as we progress and grow in soul development with the assistance of God’s Love, our Free Will is able to be exercised in a completely pure manner, and with sincerity.

When this happens, we will be able to say; “I have a burning desire for God.”

Facing Personal Truth

(Excerpt from the downloads section of the Divine Truth website)

Written by Jesus (also known as AJ Miller) to various people on 27th August 2006.

Jesus discusses the need to take personal emotional responsibility and face the truth emotionally within oneself if one truly desires at-onement with God.

Introduction

Well, I am now back in Australia after 3.5 months away overseas in the USA (Dallas, Miami, Port Charlotte, New York), Barbados, Canada (St John), and England. I came home via Singapore to Perth Western Australia, where I spent two weeks with John before returning home.

My greetings again to everyone I met, and the new people who I became friends with as well. I miss all of you, and I am sure we will catch up again within the next 6 months or so. There are so many things I could talk about with regard to the trip away, but it is better that when I see each of you next if you have questions, I would be happy to respond to them.

I did not take a camera with me on my journey this time, and so I do not have any photos to show you. Sorry about that. I am not one for taking photos (or being in photos very much), mostly because I prefer to have the experiences without having to be conscious of taking a record. But the downside is now I do not have photos of all of the beautiful people I have met, so next time I will be more diligent.

One thing I have noticed during my travels is that many persons still feel frustration in their progression towards their Heavenly Father, and I would like to discuss in more detail with you all what I see as the primary reason for this condition of frustration and a feeling that many have that they are still not progressing very rapidly towards their Heavenly Father.

Living in Harmony With God's Love

Rapid progression towards God, and therefore rapid reception of His Divine Love which makes this progression possible, can only be obtained by a soul that continually lives in harmony with truth with regard to its own desires and longings to receive Divine Love.

When we say or think that we have a desire to really have more Divine Love flow into our soul, and yet we are not conscious of receiving that Love, then we must face an important truth, and that is; we do not have a pure sincere desire that comes from the soul. When I have mentioned this to some, they have become offended with me, as they believe they do have a sincere and pure desire. Then I ask them if they feel the sensations of the Divine Love entering their soul on a consistent basis (ie. every day for most hours of the day). Most answer truthfully that they do not. I then ask them why this is the case. Most do not feel they know, but they assure me they have a pure desire for the Divine Love.

But if we have a pure sincere desire from the soul, our Father will immediately respond to our soulful longing, and give us more of His Love. He never delays the delivery of His Love to the soul who truthfully desires it. Never, ever does He withhold that which is sincerely desired with a pure motive from the soul. God is completely Faithful in His Laws of Love, and He never fails to respond to a sincere, pure desires. It is very important we understand this one vital fact. If we are not receiving the Love, and yet we think we are longing for it, then the cause our not receiving it is not God's "mysterious ways", as some may call it, but rather that our own longings and desires are not pure, truthful or sincerely motivated.

The Holy Spirit is the connection via which our soul is connected to God's, and which allows the flow of His Divine Love into our own soul when it is longed for. The Holy Spirit is a Spirit of Truth. The Holy Spirit cannot maintain a connection with our soul when our soul is in a condition of having impure, untruthful or insincere desires. If we choose to lie or withhold the truth about our passions, desires, longings and feelings, even to ourselves, then we automatically break the connection with the Holy Spirit, and from that moment it becomes impossible for our Father to give us more of His Love until we re-establish the connection by living in emotional truth. This is totally dependent on our own thoughts, words, and actions, which are motivated by our own true feelings and emotions, and God will not, and cannot without breaking His Own Laws, which He shall never do, give us the Love we think we desire when we are exercising our free will in a way that is preventing a connection with the Holy Spirit.

There are sins of omission and commission in regard to truth. We involve ourselves in a sin of commission when we lie, since a lie, given for whatever reason, and made either to ourselves, to God or to another person, is the result of a desire on our part to misrepresent the truth. A desire to misrepresent truth comes from an emotion within us that is in disharmony with happiness and God's Laws (even the Laws of Natural Love), and it is this emotional cause we need to find, address and release before we can act with a pure desire.

We involve ourselves in a sin of omission when we withhold the truth from ourselves, from God, or from others. When we withhold the truth, and fail to be open or transparent in our dealings with ourselves, others or God, since withholding the truth is also motivated by desires or emotions within us that are in disharmony with God's Laws and happiness, we will need to find, address and release these emotional causes of our desire to withhold truth before we can expect to continue to receive God's Love.

In other words, if we lie or even cover over the truth, and omit to be open and transparent with ourselves, God or others, then we are also involved in a sin of commission or omission towards truth, and the result of that sin will be that we will break the connection with God's Holy Spirit, and His Divine Love will no longer be able to flow into our soul. Without truth, Divine Love cannot flow.

Even if our own condition is not observable to ourselves, our Creator and every Celestial spirit is completely aware of every fault, error, belief, desire, passion, emotion and longing within us that is opposing our soul's reception of God's Love. They are all waiting for US to become conscious of the error WITHIN OURSELVES. I must emphasize this! God waits for US to become conscious of the ERROR within OURSELVES before He can give us more of His Divine Love. It is our responsibility to find the errors within ourselves, although we have the assistance of God, our Celestial friends, all of those in a better spiritual condition than ourselves, and also other synchronistic events involving any person or situation, which can demonstrate to us our own errors. Our soul will attract the events and circumstances required to expose within ourselves our own errors, and this is one of the operations of the Divine Law of Attraction.

So we need to come to see ourselves as we truly are from God's perspective, rather than how we wish to be perceived by ourselves or others. One of the greatest causes of stagnation with regard to the reception of Divine Love is our personal desire to retain false mental concepts of ourselves in an effort to avoid a confrontation with our emotions of error within.

Some Reminders About Emotional Clearing

Our Father, since He always Loves us and wants us to find the correct path, is always using his angels and events and circumstances to confront our own errors within, and He has constructed the Laws of Attraction to enable the soul to become confronted with its own error, and this Law operates whether a person has received Divine Love or not.

A soul in error will generally attract pain and suffering to itself, whether that pain be physical in nature (which is usually the result of the active denial of emotions within), or emotional. Generally, many of us have a large amount of fear of dealing with our internal emotions, and so, because of this fear, we also need an even greater amount of physical and emotional pain before we are willing to face our own internal truth. Truth exposes all fears as False Expectations Appearing Real, and once we are perfected in Divine Love, we will have no fear. "Perfect Love throws fear aside."

Almost all physical suffering is emotionally caused. All physical and emotional suffering is the result of sin, whether that sin be of our own making, or the result of the sins of the parents, environment, culture and so on being visited upon our soul, and then, as a subsequent effect, upon our spiritual and material bodies. The effects of ALL sin can be removed from within us, no matter what or who is the cause, depending on our personal and pure desire to enter a deeply loving personal relationship with our Creator. As we receive His Divine Love, this Love has a purifying effect on our soul, which, in turn, affects the condition of our spiritual and physical bodies towards the state that they no longer experience suffering. If we continue to progress until we are in a condition of at-onement with God, at that time even on Earth all suffering will cease, except for that caused by others exercising their free will towards us in disharmony with God's Laws (and even those effects are sharply reduced).

Our Father created our body as a perfect system to measure pain, and pain is always an indicator that something is wrong within ourselves. Physical pain is a response provided for the protection of our material body, and emotional pain for the protection of our spiritual body.

For example, if we put our hand on a hot stove, we will quickly feel the pain of a burn, and this causes us to respond in a way that protects our hand from being burnt to a cinder and totally damaged. So the pain is a protection for our physical body, and a reminder that placing our body in the path of fire will damage our own body. This causes us to exercise care with potential situations that may cause this pain.

In a similar way, emotional pain is a reminder that if we continue a course of action that is in disharmony with our own creation, we will continue to bear its consequences. For example, if I continue to express my anger with everyone who walks into my path, eventually I will be left completely alone or in the company of other angry people, since no-one who is peaceful will want or value my company. I am continuing to sin, and while I continue to sin my soul's condition continues to degrade. I must find a way to release my anger and connect to my sadness that does not harm others, myself, or God's living creation.

Taking the emotional example further, if I choose to not release the sadness that causes my anger, and if I then choose to continue to suppress the anger and sadness, eventually I will become depressed, and I will be so unhappy that I will feel that life is not worth living. However, once I connect with my sadness, realize the truth about it, and release it and talk to my Father about it, now the operation of His Love will help me overcome the sadness completely so that its cause will be forgotten, and in addition as a result of the cause being removed, I will not be able to get angry nor become depressed.

So, my emotional pain is an indicator that I have emotions, beliefs, practices, thoughts, words or actions that are, or I am living in an environment that is, in disharmony with God's Laws, and to no longer experience emotional pain

I must choose to realize and release the soul-based causes of the emotional pain. In other words, I must choose to CHANGE and have an emotional desire to do so.

Some Practical Advice

As I have said, one of the greatest causes of stagnation is our own refusal to humbly accept our own true emotional and spiritual condition and then choosing to develop a desire to change that condition. While we desire to retain false mental concepts of ourselves and wish to project to others a false impression of whom we really are, it will be impossible for us in that condition to receive more of our Father's Love.

So how do we go about determining who we really are? It is difficult asking others, because unless they are in an obviously better spiritual and emotional condition than we are ourselves, they too may have erroneous concepts of truth and love, and they may then teach us even more erroneous concepts that we will later have to remove from our own soul in order to progress.

Do we even really want to know who we really are? Or are we content to retaining a false concept of ourselves while we live on Earth, preferring to live in a condition of ignorance? Eventually, whether we do it now or later, and whether we do it kicking and screaming against all of the Laws of God (which will cause us great amounts of additional emotional and physical pain), or working in harmony with those laws (which is the least painful method), we will at some time need to have a pure desire to truly know ourselves, and this applies whether we follow the path to the perfection of our natural love, or the Divine Love Path.

Surely, the best thing for us to decide is to be completely open and honest with ourselves, others, and especially our Creator, about our own true emotional and spiritual condition.

Coming from a position of having a sinful nature, how to we achieve this? A sinful nature means that we will generally have a pre-disposition to deny our own true condition due to all of the emotions of error within us. In addition, we may actually desire or have a passion for things that are in disharmony with God's Moral or Ethical Laws (Laws of Natural Love), and while we continue to believe these things are able to be practiced without penalty, we continue to worsen the condition of our own soul and therefore increase its pain until we recognize the truth.

The only way I can progress consistently and without limit is to emotionally accept that I am in a condition of error, that only God is the source of Absolute Truth, and that I must generate within me a pure desire to seek for and find His Truth. This is the only path that will set me free. To do this, I must begin to see myself how God sees me, and I must desire from the heart to come to know Him and His Truths. I must become God-Reliant. A side benefit of this course of action is that I will also come to know myself completely, and I will place myself in the condition of being able to receive God's Divine Love consistently. His Love is the only substance that can transform me into a Divine Angel, and it will also create within me untold happiness.

If I am not conscious of the Divine Love entering my soul, and assuming I think I desire it to enter me, then there must be something wrong within myself for this condition to exist. Although I think I desire His Love, I must not have a sincerely motivated pure desire for it. So, I must question myself truthfully and openly if I want to move beyond this condition of stagnation in regard to receiving and experiencing my Father's Love.

I do this by asking myself a few important questions on a daily basis. These are:

1. What events are currently happening in my life that demonstrate I am out of harmony with God's Love and how have I attracted these events to my life?
2. What emotions within me are triggered by these events and are those emotions in harmony with truth and love?
3. Do I feel any emotional or physical pain? If so, what reasons within my beliefs, emotions, desires or passions could there be for my experiencing this pain?
4. How do I portray myself to others, am I being emotionally truthful and open?
5. Am I still doing things that God or a Celestial angel would not do?
6. How do I really feel inside, and what tools am I using to deny my feelings?
7. Have all my actions been moral and ethical? If not, what is the emotional cause for my being immoral or unethical?

As most who know me realize, I have a notebook with me most of the time. I then use this notebook to write down things that I notice in my life that are not in harmony with my Father's Laws of Love, based on my own honest answers to these questions. I then make those subjects a matter for prayer with my Father.

Coming from a condition of sin, sometimes during my progression I have felt physical pain and yet not been able to identify its emotional or spiritual cause. Or I have experienced frustration. During this time, I make the subject a matter of intense prayer to my Father, asking Him to demonstrate to me using whatever methods are at his disposal over the next few days what the true cause may be. I then make an effort to take notice of the events and circumstances that happen over the next few days to see what my Father is telling me is the cause of the issue. I am particularly careful to take notice of everything, even those things of what may normally be called minor, since I have found that it is often the instant mental dismissal of something that has been presented to me many times that has been the cause of the stagnation. He is so Merciful and Generous towards me that He keeps on showing me what is wrong within me even when I have repeatedly ignored the issue, and the closer I return to Him the more I remember the consistency of His Love.

I do these things and much more because what I desire the most in my life is to know my Creator intimately. This desire has been with me for as long as I can remember. My relationship with Him is my passion. He is my never-ending love. It is difficult for me to describe in words how intense this desire for God is within me, and I cannot keep from weeping just thinking about it. Every other desire within me is subservient. I realize that I cannot keep coming closer to Him without confronting all and any error within me that keeps me distant from Him, and just as my desire for Him is personal, passionate and real, so too I take personal responsibility for the condition within me that prevents my progression towards Him. While my soul exists, this will forever be the state I seek.

It is not possible to reach God without facing personal truth; without seeing things as they really are within our own personal emotional and spiritual condition. We cannot fake it until we make it, we cannot counterfeit passion for God, it either exists as a real substantial emotional feeling, or it does not exist and needs to be developed and nurtured by coming to know the Divine Truth. We cannot fake a desire for Divine Truth, we either have a passion for knowledge, or we need to be willing to remove the emotions within us that cause us to reject it.

So rather than becoming frustrated with your progression, allow yourself to re-examine your own feelings, desires, passions and longings, and be totally willing to face the truth about yourself as God sees you. If you do, you will find that your relationship with Him will forever grow.

I have re-read this email, and although it does not fully express my feelings perfectly, I hope that it has been helpful to you. Please remember that I love you very much, and my desire is that you continue to grow ever closer to your Father.

Bye for now

Love AJ

Secrets Of The Universe

(Excerpt from the downloads section of the Divine Truth website)

Introduction

My name is Alan John Miller (AJ), I am 46 years old, and live around 3 hours' drive from Brisbane, QLD

Much of what is presented today may seem strange and perhaps unbelievable to you

If you feel it has the ring of Truth, then you may like to investigate it more

If you feel that it is too unbelievable, then you will probably think I am crazy, & forget what I have said

Purpose of this discussion is to give an overview of the Universe & how the universe operates

Many concepts you will find confronting, and some perhaps overwhelming emotionally

Other concepts you may feel quite angry and upset about, and this is what I would like to confront first

Your Emotional Response

Your Container Of Emotions

Later in this discussion I will present the Truth about the Human Soul, but at the moment let's think about the soul as a container of emotions, either satisfied, or dissatisfied

Satisfied Emotions

These include emotions such as joy, peace, excitement, joy, pleasant surprise, love

These emotions are generally comfortable and joyful to feel, and they are not painful

Dissatisfied Emotions

These are indicated by doubt, fear, anger, resentment, etc

There is a difference between doubt, fear, anger and discernment

Doubt is an emotion that causes you to emotionally oscillate; & can be quite painful

The way to emotionally deal with doubt is to feel each emotion on each side of the oscillation

Discernment is an emotion that causes you to remain open to all possibilities until one is proven to you

These emotions range from being uncomfortable to feel, to downright painful

Your Response To What I Say

You will have many responses to what I say, ranging from joy to disbelief & incredulity

All I ask is that you own your own emotions, and if you cannot, then please leave our presentation

I am giving you my time for free, you are free to leave at any time – so no need for anger

In the long line of confrontational things you may hear today, the next will be difficult for you

Who Am I?

My transparency

In the past, I have tried to tell people the Secrets Of The Universe without mention of my own identity

But sooner or later, people ask me the same question; “How do you know these things are true?”

My answer always is “Because I have personally experienced everything I am telling you!”

Of course, their response is always; “How did you come to experience those things?”

And my answer is “Because I connected to God in the manner I am teaching you to!”

Q: “How did you learn to do that?” A: “God taught me through my own desire!”

Q: “When did you begin that?” A: “Just a little over 2000 years ago in my own life!”

Q: “So you are saying you lived on earth before?” A: “Yes, on just one occasion!”

Q: “And who were you then?” A: “Well, you would know me as Jesus of the Bible, Yeshua Ben Yosef of Nazareth!”

At this point you have 3 optional choices

Either I am crazy & delusional, which surely would mean that everything I am about to tell you won't make much sense, and you would certainly be able to make a judgement on the matter!

Or I am devious & dangerous, which if I am clever, will take much longer for you to work out, which I suppose is not very comforting for you at the moment

I am really Jesus. Mmmm. That's a bit of a problem, if I really am!

General comments about other's misconceptions of me

Firstly, you can test the Divine Truth for yourself by experimentation rather than just believe what I say

But I must be honest & truthful with you if I wish to retain my own connection to God

Which means being honest & truthful about who I am, even if that is challenging for you

Now due to the world misconceptions of me, you may feel I am saying to you that:

I want you to worship me – certainly not true, I want you to develop a relationship with God,

I want you to trust me – certainly not true, I want you to come to trust God

I want you to agree with me – certainly not true, you always have your own free will

I believe I am above you – not true; I believe you are my sisters & brothers

I believe I am better than you – not true; I currently feel I am lesser than you

I want your money – not true; that's why I have charged you nothing to be here

You must follow me – not true; you have the free will to follow anything you want

I want to be a cult leader – not true; I don't make a very good one because I honour Free Will

What do I gain from saying to you I am Jesus; nothing; in fact, often get anger etc

What will other people think of me if I listen to a man who says he is Jesus

Who Is God?

God is the entity who created the Laws of the Universe, the rules that govern your complete existence

God designed what you would classify as the governing structure, the parameters & possibilities

God has an infinite number of attributes & characteristics, some of which I have experienced

The instant God desires, the instant what She desires is created

God's Energies

Creative energy – the energy (or spirit) that flows from God as She creates

Pranic energy – the energy (or spirit) that flows from God as She maintains creation

Life energy – the energy (or spirit) that flows from God that brings the life force

Governing energy – the energy (or spirit) that flows from God which structures all Laws

Holy Spirit –energy connecting God's Soul to human souls (his children) in a personal relationship

Divine Love is an emotion (an Energy in Motion) from God

These “energies” are not God, but rather attributes or qualities that God displays

God is Love, but Love is not God, God is Creative, creation is not God, God is Life, but life is not God

General comments and misconceptions of God

People judge God through their own emotional injuries about God

We avoid the concept of God by saying; Creator, Source, the Universe, etc

We avoid the concept of a Personal God

We judge God through the religious/non-religious definitions of God

e.g. Catholic; God is a judgemental punishing judge of the universe

e.g. Hindu; there are many Gods for many different characteristics

e.g. Islam; there is One God who demands constant worship & attention

e.g. New Age; we are all God's; we are all a fragment of God; God is within

e.g. The Atheist; there is no God

God's primary attributes or qualities

Primary Energy – Holy Spirit through which Divine Love flows in a personal relationship

Primary Qualities – Divine Truth and Divine Love

Primary Characteristics – Masculinity/Femininity

Divine Truth is Absolute Truth; very different to our own personal truth Our personal truth can become in line with Divine Truth

Desires to share Love with all His children personally; desires a personal relationship with all Children

The Universe Itself - Dimensional Space

The universe was created by God as the playground for the human soul

The universe is made up of continually increasing numbers of dimensions, currently 22 in number

(Correction from Jesus – currently 36 in number, not 22)

Each dimension is continually expanding laterally; continual creation occurs in each dimension

Each dimension is separated by inter-stellar space boundary governed by Love (Natural or Divine Love)

Each dimension is in a certain fixed low-hi range of love development

Each dimension has matter that human soul is able to touch, taste, smell, hear & see through its interface

Transition occurs when the human soul exceeds the highest love development of the current dimension

Currently existing dimensional spaces

1st to 7th Spheres - Dimensions of probation or transitions in love

6th Sphere - The highest dimension of progression in self-reliance to perfection in Natural Love

7th Sphere – The sphere of final transition from the human condition into the Divine condition

8th Sphere – The first sphere of at-onement with God; called the first Celestial sphere

8th to 21st Spheres – The Celestial spheres; the transition of the soul into the soul-union state

22nd Sphere and Above – The dimensions available to the soul in the condition of soul-union

(Correction from Jesus – the union state is the 36th sphere, not the 22nd)

The physical human form is only capable of experiencing the physical dimension in which earth resides

The spiritual form (spirit body) can experience any dimension til the 21st depending on soul condition

The soul-union form (completed soul) can experience all dimensions currently known to exist

Hierarchy of Universal Laws

Physical Laws

These laws operate upon physical/meta-physical matter & generally studied by scientists Most people on earth/spirit world “understand” these laws a little; they govern our physical life e.g. law of gravity, law of aerodynamics, law of electro-magnetism, etc

Natural Love Laws

These laws operate upon the soul & are moral or spiritual laws governing the soul Very few people on earth understand these laws; these laws govern our enjoyment of life e.g. law of attraction, law of cause & effect, law of compensation or karma, law of desire

Divine Love Laws

Laws that operate upon the soul at the highest level & allow infinite soul progression Almost no one on earth has heard of or knows these laws; they determine our universal existence e.g. law of repentance, law of forgiveness, law of divine truth, law of new birth etc

Children in God’s Image (The Human Soul)

What is the Soul?

One secret to understanding God’s Universe is to understand the human soul

The soul is NOT your physical body, nor your spiritual body (although many think differently)

The soul is the living, feeling, emotional, desiring, intentional, passionate heart of your true self

The soul has sensory apparatus, passion, desire, emotion, feelings, aspirations, intentions, free will, memory, personality, instinct, natural love, energy, appendages of the spirit body & physical body

Think of the soul as a container; an entity; full of experiences

Souls made in God's image

God's highest purpose of creating us was for us to exercise Free Will to come to experience God's Love

The primary reason we exist is for us to come to experience Love; either natural love or Divine Love

Our souls are governed by the Hierarchy of laws of the Universe

Our Primary Energy – The love connection that allows natural love to flow in personal relationships

Our Primary Qualities – Personal truth and personal love (natural love)

Our Primary Characteristics – Masculinity/Femininity

Notice that these energies, characteristics & qualities are very similar to God's; we are "in God's image"

What souls DO NOT have in pre-incarnation condition

No memory of the pre-incarnation state

No consciousness of self or of their own existence

No awareness of Free Will choice (choices begin from the moment of incarnation)

No awareness of itself as an individual (not yet individualized)

What souls DO have in pre-incarnation (before 1st incarnation) condition

Personality – Every soul has a unique personality

Characteristics – Every soul has unique characteristics & attributes

Sexuality – Every soul has a unique mix of sexual characteristics

Individuality – Every soul is unique as an individual (remember the soul is two soul halves)

Instinct – Every soul is created with instinctual attributes (including the instinct to incarnate)

Sensory Awareness – Every soul has senses used to gather information from or experience the universe

Incarnation of the Human Soul - Soul incarnation

Souls in the un-incarnated condition must incarnate to gain a consciousness of self (individualization)

There are still souls who are yet to incarnate in their 1st incarnation

Purpose of incarnation is for souls to use their own Free Will to discover:

Themselves – They gain “knowledge” of “who” they are, “why” they are, “where” they are

Their Environment – They gain “knowledge” by experiencing their own environment

Their Free Will – They learn to use their Free Will by acting upon desire & seeing consequences

Their Relationships – They establish personal relationships based about development in Love

Love – Each soul has the personal capacity to develop its love for all things in its environment

God – Each soul has the personal capacity to discover, get to know & experience God’s Love

The soul split

Souls are dual in nature; they split into two separate beings at the time of incarnation

The soul must split into two halves in order to complete the individualization process

Individualization begins when the first of the two halves becomes attached to the physical/spiritual bodies

Individualization completes when the souls reunite in a soul-union in the 22nd dimensional space

Dominant sexual characteristics determine the gender of the material/spiritual bodies for each half

The “other-half” of the soul is called the “soulmate”

Creation of the spirit and material bodies through conception

The bodies used by our soul in our 1st incarnation to experience life are:

The physical body – Used to assimilate experience from the physical dimension

The spirit body – Used to assimilate experience from the spirit dimensions (1st to 21st) Each body has additional sensors & capabilities than the previous body

The soul (in soul-union state) without a body has the highest amount of sensors & capabilities

An energetic connection is used to funnel or filter experiences from the dimension into the soul

The spirit body to physical body connection is often called the “silver cord”

The soul to spirit body connection has no earth name; but let’s call it the “golden cord”

These connections are the mechanisms via which one half of the soul experiences its environment

These connections are not required when the soul reaches the soul-union condition (22nd)

The mind of the spirit body is under the influence of the soul emotions (for most unknowingly so)

The brain of the material body is used by the mind of the spirit body to express itself

Soulmates

The highest attraction of the soul half is for its mate (its other half)

Soulmates have three possible physical/spiritual body gender combinations

Heterosexual – One half of the soul attracting a male form, and the other half a female form

Female Homosexual – Both halves of the soul attracting female forms

Male Homosexual – Both halves of the soul attracting male forms

There is no bisexuality of the soul; bisexuality is the result of environment based sexual injuries

The soulmate is the perfect partner; but only when no love injuries exist with both halves of the soul

Divine Love Path

What “Divine Love” is

“Divine Love” is the Love that comes directly from God (the entity)

“Divine Love” exists as emotion within God’s soul that can be given to and felt by any human

“Divine Love” only enters the human soul when the human “longs” to God for the Love to enter (prayer)

“Divine Love” transforms the human soul into a Divine creature able to reflect God to mankind

“Divine Love” can be developed, or grown, but not in the same manner as “Natural Love”

“Divine Love” can be infinitely received by the human soul; the soul grows larger with reception

“Divine Love” can only flow into the soul when the soul is in harmony with Divine Truth

“Divine Love” cannot be given through a human or spirit to another human or spirit

“Divine Love” is NOT the love state of the human soul at incarnation nor perfected “Natural Love”

“Divine Love” path of soul progression

The “Divine Love” path is the path to true at-onement with God

“Divine Truth” is essential on the “Divine Love” path; it is the “Truth that sets you free!”

On the “Divine Love” path, we discover the Absolute Truths of the Universe through our God connection

We can progress infinitely on the “Divine Love” path

The “Divine Love” path incorporates & exceeds all development in Natural Love

“Divine Love” path development is characterized by:

Emphasis on the soul; development of the soul; soul & emotion dominance over the mind

I express truthfully my emotions & desires; desire is essential; desires become harmonious with Love

Very little emphasis on intellectual development; I become emotionally intelligent

I come to trust God first; I become God-reliant; God-focused

I come to trust myself next; not reliant on anyone else (such as a guru); but reliant on God

I live my personal truth; but as I grow, I become at-one with God’s Truth; therefore, united with others

I become more child-like; with my emotions & my desires

My environment is never “controlled”, since all things happen due to the soul’s condition & attractions

On this path, I come to believe “I am God’s child” and God is an entity existing outside of myself

“Divine Love” religions, spiritual paths, and beliefs

Many religions, self-development, & new age circles teach portions of Divine Truth

No religion, self-development, & new age teaching actually teaches the Divine Truth in complete form

Most religions distort Divine Truth by intellect, philosophy & theosophical theories

There are barely any teachers of the full & complete Divine Truth (known in spirit world) on the earth

Absolute Truth is the hallmark of the “Divine Love” path

Natural Love Path

What “Natural Love” is “Natural Love” is the love that comes from inside the human soul, from within you

“Natural Love” exists as emotion within your soul that can be given to and felt by another human

“Natural Love” is the highest natural capacity to love of the human soul

“Natural Love” can be developed, or grown; like a plant, it has many branches of growth

Moral Development – You must not ... lie, cheat, steal, murder, commit adultery etc

Spirit gift development – Healing, mediumship, psychic abilities etc

Intellectual and metaphysical focus – Science, physics, mathematics, metaphysics, etc

“Natural Love” path of soul progression

The development or growth of Natural Love within the human soul is the “Natural Love” path

Typifies almost all forms of “spiritual development” on earth, & in the spirit dimensions to the 6th

“Natural Love” path development is characterized by:

Emphasis on the mind; development of the mind; mind dominance over emotions

Intellectual development; becoming learned intellectually but without emotional intelligence

Suppression or reframing of emotions & desires; control of desire; becoming “without desire”

Can emphasise self-reliance; not trusting anything outside of self; or

Not trusting self at all. Just trusting rules made by others or a guru purported to be in a “higher” state

A focus on my own personal truth; each person has a “different truth”

A focus on my becoming more adult-like; seemingly in control of my environment

On this path I come to believe “I am God” or “A God”; called connecting to the “God within”

“Natural Love” religions, spiritual paths, and beliefs

There are millions of teachers of these paths

Includes leaders in all forms of religions, self-development, & new age circles

Absolute Truth has disappeared in the profusion of philosophy, theology, theosophy & intellect

How To Progress Through the Universe (Moving to Higher Dimensions)

The Principle of Soul Condition

Soul condition is the sum total of the soul’s current attributes, qualities, desires, passions, longings, spiritual state, emotional state, memory, experience

Soul condition is determined by two primary factors:

Truth – Anything that enters & is retained by the soul that is harmonious with Divine Love

Error – Anything that enters & is retained by the soul that is disharmonious with Divine Love

Error often enters the soul in the guise of “truth”:

Error creates all love injuries

Love injuries create a belief that something is loving when it is not loving from God’s perspective

Love injuries then are retained by the soul & this deforms the soul & degrades its condition

Love injuries create all “sin”; “sin” is missing the mark of perfect Love Truth is then often felt to be “painful”; in reality, only error is painful

The soul’s absorption of experiences from its environment creates soul condition

From the moment of incarnation, the soul half begins sensory absorption of its environment

If the sensory absorption is harmonious with love, there is no pain associated with this process

If the sensory absorption is disharmonious with love, the soul experiences pain & suffering

Mankind on earth generally exist in the state of the 1st sphere or dimension

Since this is the case, all souls receive quite a lot of emotional damage creating pain

The suppression of the full experience of emotions causes the soul condition to degrade

A degraded soul condition causes pain to the soul itself, its environment & progeny

All love injuries within the soul need to be fully experienced to be released completely

Soul pain is from denial/suppression of emotions/passions/feelings/intentions disharmonious with Love

“Soul Progression” is the soul’s growth in love (natural love or Divine Love)

The growth of the soul is often called erroneously “the path to enlightenment”

The growth of the soul is really the “path to Love”; either the expression of natural love or Divine Love

The soul is continuously transforming & changing; either into a more loving space or less loving space

If the soul degrades in love; the pain & suffering of the soul increases

If the soul grows in love, the pain & suffering of the soul decreases

Soul attractions

The soul attractions are governed by the Law of Attraction (Law of Natural Love)

The soul condition is the controlling force of all attractions

Attractions include all; experiences, events, accidents, relationships, ailments, sickness, diseases etc

Painful or suffering experiences are caused by the soul's condition out of harmony with Love

Soul progression relates to movement through the Universe in dimensional space

1st to 6th Spheres

Soul develops either in "Natural Love" alone; or "Natural Love" & Divine Love together

The 3rd & 5th dimensions are more focused on the Divine Love principles

The 2nd, 4th & 6th dimensions are more focused on the intellectual Natural Love principles

6th Sphere

Perfection in "Natural Love"

Limit of all "Natural Love" paths

Limit of human soul progression without God

This is the "Nirvana" of the Buddhist, the "Paradise" of the Muslim & Christian Buddha, Mohammed, and other spiritual teachers from earth are in this condition

7th Sphere

Sphere of transition of the soul

The mind of the spirit body is absorbed by the soul's emotions

Can only be entered with sufficient reception of Divine Love

1st to 7th Spheres – I called this the "Kingdom of Mankind"

7th to 8th Sphere Transition – I called becoming "Born Again", the "New Birth" of the soul

8th Sphere

1st dimension in which we are now at-one with God (Christed)

Called the 1st Celestial sphere; all persons in and above this sphere are now angelic

The soul itself has been physically transformed by the reception of Divine Love

I called this the “Kingdom of God”

8th Sphere to 21st Sphere – The transition of the soul growing into soul-union

22nd Sphere – Soul now in a “soul-union” state; does not need spirit bodies

We can grow into any of these states on the earth or in the spirit world without reincarnating

The New Birth and At-Onement with God - The New Birth (Born Again) transition

The New Birth is the transformation of the soul from the human into the Divine

This is the most important part of your potential experience

The New Birth can only occur with your own full choice

Without the new birth eternal progression is impossible for the human soul

At-Onement with God

We no longer experience emotional pain & suffering

We no longer have to “try” to do anything; all actions are immediately taken by the soul

We no longer experience anger, fear, or any other emotions of dissatisfaction

We do not avoid anything that our attraction brings to us; everything is blissful All desire is automatically harmonious with Divine Love

Since all desire is harmonious with Divine Love; all desire is guaranteed to be satisfied

We are full of passion, desire, longing, expression, excitement, compassion, intelligence etc

We are NOT detached, emotionless, intellectual

Soul Union & Reincarnation

The Soul Union

This is the process of the re-joining of the two soul halves

This process can only occur with full desire of the free will of each half of the soul

Each half retains all of its experiences; but the other half also absorbs these experiences

Each half must be in the same condition of reception of Divine Love

Each half must be in the same condition of emotional absorption of Divine Truth

Each half of the soul will come to have the same desires, passions, longings, intentions, loves etc

How reincarnation actually occurs

Reincarnation is not a necessary experience for the soul to progress

Current earth teachings of reincarnation are very disharmonious with Divine Love

No spirit needs to reincarnate in order to deal with Karma (Law of Compensation)

Progression in the spirit world is just as possible (perhaps even easier) as progression on earth

No spirit ever needs to reincarnate

It is not possible to reincarnate when:

Either half of the soul has yet to experience the New Birth and at-onement with God

Either half of the soul still has a primary connection is with its own spirit body

Either half of the soul has yet to grow in Divine Love to the 22nd sphere state

Either half of the soul has unresolved error-based beliefs in either natural or Divine Love

Why reincarnate:

The primary reason is in order to demonstrate Divine Love to mankind through a living example

Another main reason is to teach the Divine Truth to mankind to help them avoid painful experience

A secondary reason is to experience a new soul based personal experience

More details about reincarnation.

Reincarnation began in 1962

Over the subsequent years 7 soul pairs reincarnated

Each of those soul pairs were people I knew from the 1st century experience

From 2004 more soul pairs have reached the soul-union state, and some have chosen to reincarnate

Reincarnation is an optional experience for any soul in the soul-union state

Humility

(Excerpt from the downloads section of the Divine Truth website)

Introduction

Spiritual development is not about knowledge, but rather about love
Reminders of the two forms of Love

Natural Love – the love that comes from within yourself and is expressed to others

Divine Love – the Love that comes from God, and which enters and transforms the human soul

Reminders of how to progress spiritually on the Divine Love Path

1. Pray to God for Divine Love
2. Pray to God for Divine Truth
3. Be Humble

This discussion is part of a series about your relationship with God

Humility is the most important personal quality that you MUST develop if you want a relationship with God

True Humility cannot be arrived at by “trying”, we must deal with the EMOTIONS that prevent humility

What Is Humility?

Dictionary definition of “being humble”

Having a lack of false pride, unpretending, meek, defining characteristic of an unpretentious and modest person, someone who does not think that he or she is better or more important than others, free of illusions of self-deception

Jesus’ definition of Humility

Having a burning desire and willingness to feel and experience ALL of your own emotions, whether those emotions are painful or pleasurable.

Having a burning desire and willingness to see yourself as God sees you Having a burning desire to be as you really are, NOT as you hope you are

What Humility is NOT!

It is not deprecating one's own sanctity, gifts, talents, and accomplishments

It is not having a false modesty or humility, falsifying for the sake of receiving praise or adulation

It is not underestimating your true worth, nor an inability to see or talk about our own or others virtues

It is not humiliation

Why Humility Is Essential (Aspects of Humility)

God's Love flowing into my heart depends upon my wholehearted desire to feel & experience ALL emotion

When I desire passionately to experience all of my own emotions:

My longing for God's Love becomes stronger than my longing for any other experience

My desire to feel my own emotions becomes my focus of attention in my personal life

I never attempt to use methods or techniques that shut down or dampen my emotional experience

I never get angry, resentful or afraid about having to feel my own emotions

I never feel that I am giving up anything or losing anything because I have chosen this path

Am I willing to lose family, friends, property, position, power etc just to receive God's Love?

Am I willing to look foolish & stupid in the eyes of those around me but continue to receive God's Love?

Am I willing to feel all the emotions about what I may lose on the path to at-onement with God?

Am I willing to feel all the emotions about being alone, being attacked, being belittled just to be me?

"Seek first God's Love and ALL these other things will be added to you"
Jesus

"No one can come to God who is not first willing to lose everything; father, mother, sister, brother, friends, position, power, glory for the sake of their relationship with God" Jesus

God's Love flowing into my heart depends upon my WILLINGNESS to take responsibility for, experience & release fully without reservation all the error within myself that prevents God's Love from flowing

When I desire to take full responsibility for the experience all of my own errors, I:

I have a strong longing within myself to feel all of the personal pain inside of myself

I take full responsibility for all of my actions, & never blame others for my unloving actions

I desire with all my heart to experience the Law of Compensation for what I have done to others

I desire with all my heart to experience the CAUSAL emotions of what happened to me in the past

I desire with all my heart to abandon ALL of my anger, justifications, minimizations & denial

I desire with all my heart to experience my FEAR about becoming a trusting child again

Do I have a tendency to justify my anger or fear to God, others or myself?

Do I have a strong resistance about feeling my personal fears?

Do I use my intellect to tell myself that “I am over that now” when all indications are to the otherwise?

Do I resist seeing the damage I have done for others, and refuse to take full responsibility for the effects?

Do I have a tendency to deny, justify, minimize or shift the blame onto others for my feelings?

Do I resist seeing my own body shape, body pains or illnesses as indications I am in denial?

“God resists the proud, but gives His Grace to the humble” James 4:6.

“When he was being reviled, he did not go reviling in return. When he was suffering, he did not go threatening, but kept on committing himself to the one who judges righteously.” 1 Pet 2:23

God’s Love can only flow into my heart when I am willing to be as I truthfully am

When I am being REAL:

I always admit to others & myself what emotions I have within me no matter how others criticize

I am always truthful, & I never avoid telling the truth in any situation no matter what the result

I am always honest with God & myself about my flaws & I never justify them to others or myself

Do I desire passionately to be the person I truly am inside, no matter how bad that looks to others?

Do I desire truth AT ALL COSTS, no matter what the price may seem to be?

Do I desire passionately to DO what I know to be Truth, rather than just listen to it?

Do I often shrink away from personal truth, and misrepresent my true feelings in my actions with others?

“For if anyone is a hearer of the word, and not a doer, this one is like a man looking at his natural face in a mirror. For he looks at himself, and off he goes and immediately forgets what sort of man he is.” James 1:23, 24.

“But he emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, being made in the likeness of men, and in habit found as a man. He humbled himself, becoming obedient unto death.” Phil 2:7, 8.

God’s Love can only flow into my heart when I am truthfully willing to be taught by God

When I am completely willing to be taught by God:

I no longer feel self-important or self-reliant

I do not feel emotions of criticism of God’s Laws or methods of teaching me

I demonstrate respect for God & Her Laws by instantly attempting to practice those I learn

I do not ignore or justify my own unloving thinking, words or conduct

I do not attempt to avoid my own unloving behaviour, nor to continue it knowingly

Do I love, respect and practice ALL of God’s Laws of Love?

Do I excuse myself from practicing what I know to be Divine Truth?

Do I arrogantly feel I am better than God, and that God should bend His Laws to suit my desires?

Do I love my Law of Attraction (LoA) & feel my emotions WITHIN myself that create my LoA?

Do I often get angry with God, or angry when I hear about God’s Laws?

Humility enables us to receive both Direct and Indirect emotional assistance & counsel

Direct Assistance is when:

Someone else with a loving motive & desire tells us directly what error is within

Someone else with an unloving motive & hurtful desire informs us what is “wrong” about us

Indirect Assistance is when:

A child acts around us a certain way that exposes denied emotion within us

Any animal around us acts in a certain way that exposes denied emotion within us

Any person around us acts toward us in a way that exposes denied emotion within us

Other people around us have discussions about matters that we believe we have resolved

Events that happen to us always indicate what we are denying in our soul condition (LoA)

God is constantly giving us direct and indirect assistance to help us become at-one with God

Most of the time, we reject both direct and indirect assistance from God because of a lack of humility

When I am completely humble and able to be taught by God:

I always look at the emotions inside myself when I get direct assistance

I always refer everything that is happening around me to attractions caused by my soul condition

I never blame others who have hurtful desires for taking actions that cause me pain

I always see that God is constantly trying to show me my own blockages to experiencing bliss

Do I receive direct exposure of my emotional condition with Joy or with Dread?

Do I long for others to tell me what things within me cause my disconnection with self or God?

Do I react with coldness, rage, anger, resentment, denial, etc when my emotions are exposed?

Do I recognize that even when others around me discuss an emotion there is something there for me?

Do I listen to people's comments to me as direction for me, or do I regard the person as lowly?

Opposition To Humility

Arrogance

Arrogance comes from a basic untruthful emotion that I feel I am better than others:

Arrogance; an offensive display of superiority or self-importance, overbearing pride

I am automatically judging others as lesser than myself

I am setting myself up as having authority over others, usurping God's position

I am blasphemous & treating God's children as lesser than myself

Releasing arrogance is VERY difficult emotionally, & arrogance betrays a VERY dark condition

Arrogance is therefore an indication that I am not being humble

Ego

True Ego is the centre of self that God created within you

False Ego is the centre you have within yourself that society (parents, environment) has created for you:

Ego is the false impression of myself created by my environment

Both my environment & I wish to retain ego so I do not have to feel myself as I truly am

I am unwilling to see myself as God sees me, & retain a view only as society or I see myself

I become addicted to feeling good by doing what others want, or avoiding what others ridicule

Ego causes us to become addicted to admiration from others, & may even cause "false" humility

If I wish to retain my false Ego, & resist its exposure, I am not being humble

Judgment & Criticism

More will be said about judgment in another talk “The Human Soul – Dangers & Pitfalls Of Judgment”

The Judgment being discussed here is not:

Discernment: noticing the truth & then acting on that truth in a loving manner

I must openly state emotional Truth to all people who I interact with

The statement of Truth about situations or people is a requirement to remain at-one with God

e.g. I can state you are not being loving, that may be a Divine Truth, and is not judgmental

Judgment is the action of deciding that someone else is lesser than me, or I am better than him or her:

It is the emotional treatment of someone as more lowly than myself

It is the emotional treatment of myself as if I am superior to others

When I am belittling, condescending, snobbish, denigrating, patronizing then I am judging & not humble

Intellectual & Emotional Denial Of Unloving Thoughts, Words & Actions

More has been said on this subject in the talk “The Human Soul – Denial Of The Soul”

Intellectual & emotional denial of my own unloving thoughts, words & actions causes me to:

Justify; “I know that happened, but everybody does it”

Minimize; “I know that happened, but it wasn’t really that bad”

Shifting The Blame; “I thought/said/did what I did because of you”

Deny God’s Laws; basically, explaining to myself that I don’t have to follow God’s Laws at all

Deny God; my own opinion of what is right is more important to me than God’s Truth

When I intellectually or emotionally deny my unloving thoughts, words & actions I am not humble

Anger With Others

More has been said on this subject in the talk “The Human Soul – Anger Is Your Guide”

Anger projected towards others is usually:

The result of the denial of my own fear or sadness,

The result of personal expectations or desires I feel others should satisfy for me,

An indication that I wish to blame others for my own painful emotions

An indication that I wish to blame others for my own personal desires not being met by others

Anger is therefore an indication that I am not being humble

Hatred Towards Others

Hatred or resentment towards others is usually:

A severe projection of blame aimed towards others to help me avoid my own painful emotions

I hate because I feel others must fix my own severe emotional pain

A desire to annihilate a person, place or thing because of the emotional pain it brought myself

A desire to cause as much pain to another person in order to avoid my own emotional pain

A desire to destroy the source of my own unhappiness or pain

A very strong emotion resisting Love (either from God or from others) from entering us

Hatred is therefore an indication that I am not being humble

Living In Fear

More has been said on this subject in the talk “The Human Soul – Fear Is Your Friend”

Living in terror or fear usually:

Is an excuse I use to prevent myself from feeling deeper much more painful emotions

Is holding onto a belief that the false is True & resisting the emotional release of the false

Is projecting damage to all living things around us & therefore not taking emotional responsibility

Living in fear, or working around fears in our life is therefore an indication of a lack of humility

Doubt

Living in doubt, rather than allowing the emotions under the doubt to surface:

I seek other people who are in doubt in order to support my own condition of doubt

I seek to cause other people to doubt to avoid my own fear of action

Doubt prevents us from living the Truth by giving us an excuse to avoid action

Doubt prevents us from acting on Truth we already feel in our own heart, which is a lack of humility

Seeking Power, Position, Glory, Respect or Value

Giving of yourself to others only for a feeling of glory, being noticed, respected, valued:

Often our motives for so-called “loving” action are totally selfish & self-focused

I seek emotions from others in order to feed my false ego, feed my false opinion of self

I seek emotions from others to avoid my own deeper causal emotional experience

I am avoiding the emotion of powerlessness, or being alone, no-one noticing me

This is a major emotional cause for our children to seek addictive substances

It is oppressive emotionally for others to always be required to emotionally support us

Giving of self only to get something emotionally in return is not a position of humility

Jealousy

Being unhappy, angry, resentful or in a rage that others are happy:

I project anger or needy emotions at others when others have things that I do not have

I am unwilling to experience the deeper emotions within myself about myself

I do not desire the best for others, but rather feel upset when others have success or joy

I feel that others should not be successful or joyous unless we also can be the same

Jealousy is an indication that we are not being humble

Commiseration

When we want others to commiserate with, agree with, or support our emotional state:

We grumble for the sake of attention

We complain about how “hard” everything is

We want others to agree with our own assessment of things

Commiseration is not taking responsibility for our own emotions & therefore not a state of humility

How Do I Know I Am Being Humble?

I will feel a passionate desire to feel & experience all of my own emotion without damaging others

I will feel a passionate desire to take responsibility emotionally for everything happening in my life

I will have a passionate desire to be as I really am with everyone around me

I will have a deep desire for God to teach me everything I need to know
Divine Truths will enter me easily without a struggle

I will receive direct and indirect counsel, criticism & assistance without resistance

I will enjoy being childlike even when those around me judge me or treat me condescendingly

Being Truthful with Yourself

(Excerpt from the downloads section of the Divine Truth website)

Introduction

Spiritual development is about love

Reminders of the two forms of Love

Natural Love – the love that comes from within yourself and is expressed to others

Divine Love – the Love that comes from God, and which enters and transforms the human soul

Spiritual development is not possible without truth

Personal truth – what God sees as the truth about you

Divine Truth – what God sees as the Truth of the Universe

Feelings That Prevent a Relationship With God & Soul Growth

Not facing the truth

Not wanting to feel the Truth about God from your own perspective

Not wanting to feel the Truth about God from God's perspective

Not wanting to feel the truth about yourself from your own perspective

Not wanting to feel the truth about yourself from God's perspective

Not wanting to give or receive love

Not wanting to love others

Not wanting to receive love from others

Not wanting to love God

Not wanting to receive God's Love

Reminders About Your Connection With God

You are a soul

You are connecting with all souls, including God's Great Oversoul

You connect to others via your own TRUE EMOTIONAL condition

You do not connect with others just by intellect or thoughts, or words, or actions

You can ONLY connect with God personally through your true sincere emotional condition

The Holy Spirit is the connection through which you connect with God

Staying in Divine Truth will:

Expose your emotional injuries in disharmony with your connection with others or with God

If you are resistive, will cause you to be cold and angry, and feeling oppressed and controlled

If you are not resistive, will cause you to submit to experience your emotions fully

Experiencing Emotions Disharmonious With Truth or Love

All emotions disharmonious with God's Truth or God's Love must be experienced before they are released

Do not choose to rest in the capping emotion

Eg. Angry with God for not protecting me when I was little, but just staying angry with God

Eg. Angry with all men because a man in past hurt you deeply, but never allowing a man into your heart

Eg. Angry with women because of your mother not giving you love, but treating all women badly

Do not choose to damage yourself or others by holding in the emotion

Eg. Angry with God for not protecting me, but denying I am angry at all, saying I love God

Eg. Angry with all men for a man in your past hurting you deeply, but wanting a man to love you

Eg. Angry with women because of your mother not giving you love, but seeking love from women

Choose to experience the emotion

1. Express the rage towards God fully, then experience the underlying grief
2. Express underlying anger towards the man fully in private, then experience the underlying hurt
3. Express underlying anger towards the woman fully in private, then experience the underlying hurt
4. Come to the point of forgiveness (which is emotional forgetfulness)

How God Feels About Your Feelings

Remember that:

God already knows, and also feels from you, the feelings you actually have

You cannot fool God about your true feelings (about anything)

God does not punish you about how you feel about God (or anything else)

God's Laws expect your honesty, and your eventual repentance

God feels pity and compassion for you choosing to remain in emotional pain

I will suffer more when I choose to:

Resist the experience of my own emotions

Eg. Shut down my own grief when I am sad

Act on my own desires that are not harmonious with Love

Eg. Use an addiction (food, sex, etc)

Act on my own desire to harm others rather than experience my own hurt

Eg. Lie rather than feel pain

How Do I Really Feel About God?

Make a personal list of how I feel about God really, and do try to not fool myself!

Example 1: My own feelings

I feel God has given me a responsibility and then made it as hard as possible for me to fulfill it. The feminine side of God is uncaring, does not nurture me, is unloving and unkind towards me, expects me to do what she wants without support, wants me to sacrifice myself and my life for her will, does not care about me being happy in my personal life, is callous towards my own suffering and pain, does not want me or love me, does not want to give to me, wants to humiliate me in public, wants me to be alone, wants me to be in pain, wants me to suffer. God hasn't protected me, hasn't kept me safe, hasn't loved me, doesn't care for me, will punish me if I say anything wrong, and she plays with my life. She does not want to send me help, and keeps on expecting too much of me. No matter how hard I try to do things right, she wants to make things even harder. God has made a mistake selecting me.

Example 2: A Friends Feelings

God has not protected me, and has not kept me safe even when I prayed with all my heart for the hurt to stop. God watched me be abused and did nothing. God hasn't loved me, and doesn't care for me. If I say a bad thing about God, he will punish me, God doesn't want me. God plays with my life, and I am just a pawn for him to move wherever he wants. God is a man and just lets men use me for sex, and lets men treat me as nothing. God doesn't love women, and feels women are sexually unclean. God feels women are unworthy, and must submit to men. Women are the ones that really hurt. Even when creating life, men just enjoy themselves and women really hurt. God made women to suffer, even in creation, and made men more physically powerful. God made men dominate me. God is a man, and women are forgotten.

Experience the anger of how I feel about God's "treatment" of me

I feel rebellious; I don't want to do what God wants. I am exhausted and tired of suffering. I feel infuriated with God, and want to hurt God as much as her laws have hurt me. I want to scream, and yell, and swear at God. She has exercised her power unjustly and I want her to be punished for it. I feel God is wrong. I am afraid because of the power God has and how it seems she wants to harm me with it. I feel overwhelmed with the responsibility. I am angry with God for giving me a duty that I cannot fulfill, and for not helping me in the way I wanted all the times I have asked for help. I am irate, hostile, aggressive, infuriated, seething with rage, full of violence, and want to abuse God, and crack a temper tantrum. I am outraged at the seeming injustice I keep on experiencing at God's hands. I want to swear and curse at God, and rebel.

Don't stay in anger, but now experience the grief of how I feel about God's "treatment" of me

God hates me, because I am unlovable. I am nothing and cannot do what God asks. I am afraid and exhausted. I am unworthy of any caring emotion, and only deserving of pain. I am helpless, and insufficient, and my life is not under my own control. I cannot be happy because God does not want me to be happy, and does not want me to have love in my personal life. I cannot do what God asks, it is too big for me to attempt. I am sacrificed by God, just because I love God and Truth. I feel overburdened and helpless. I have been abandoned by God and soon will feel destroyed completely. I feel disappointing, unworthy, forsaken, tortured. I feel ashamed, self-conscious, wounded, exhausted, devastated, heart-broken, miserable, and my agony does not stop. And there is no way out of my misery!

Feel The Emotions, Do Not Avoid Them

Express how you feel completely. Feel all of the feelings emotionally.

How I Feel About Each Gender

Make a personal list of how I feel about the opposite sex, mother/father, ex-partners

Example 1: Sum total of how I have been treated by women/mother

She is condescending towards me, cannot see any good qualities in me, is blind to seeing me, is self-absorbed and selfish, does not care who she screws, is disillusioned with love, does not have personal integrity, is not honest with herself, is unwilling to forgive, is blind to her own faults, is superficial, has a fucked up sexual desire for men who she can control and mother, talks about commitment but does not know its meaning, just wants security at all costs, does not want to take risks, does not want a deep love, treats me like a piece of shit unworthy of her love and attention. I feel she uses sex for her own selfishness, is callous about sex, wants to control me with sex, wants to control me totally, wants to hurt me, rejects love, rejects me, lies to me, withholds the truth from me, has no courage, wants to put me down all the time, does not want to love me, is callous about love, is willing to harm me rather than deal with her own emotions, treats me as if I am worthless, treats me as if I am beneath her. She treats me unjustly, treats me like I am an abusive man, belittles me, does not find me attractive, does not give of herself, only gives to me if she can control me, is not freely expressive of passion or love, is afraid of sex. She expects me to do for her what she refuses to do for me, wants to keep her distance, wants to not be vulnerable, is ashamed of me, is ashamed of herself when she is with me, tries her best to hurt me rather than feel her own hurt. She is blind to her own faults, but wants to pick on minor issues with me, she is willing to use her body to get what she wants, she has sex without her heart being involved, she uses me for sex, but desires someone else. She hates me, hates my body, hates who I am, is callous and indifferent towards any pain and suffering she causes, and she is not sorry for anything she has done. She feels I am not big enough, handsome enough, good enough, sexy enough, masculine enough, attractive enough or intelligent enough for her. She hates me being Jesus, and is ashamed of my identity.

Make a personal list of how I feel about the same sex, mother/father, ex-partners

Example 1: Sum total of how I have been treated by men/father

He is indifferent to me, does not care about me. He is ashamed of me, feels cursed to have me as his son, he is disappointed in me and is always angry with me. He does not talk to me, and does not want to know anything about me. He favors women. He is unkind, and has never shown me affection or kindness. He does not cry, and is ashamed to see me cry. He feels I am unworthy of attention, and not interesting. He avoids me. He wants to boss me around, and control me. If he cannot control me, he becomes violent. He has nothing to do with me. He hates me being Jesus and is ashamed of my identity.

How I Feel About Myself

Experience the anger of how I feel about opposite sex's "treatment" of me

I am bitter and caustic, I feel like raging and swearing at her. I am so angry I cannot get any words out. I am outraged at the injustice she does not see herself creating, and I feel contempt for her, she is despicable and unworthy of any of my attention. She deserves my scorn, and I want to make her feel what I feel when I hurt. I feel like rebelling against her, not matter what her motives, she deserves to be punished and I want to punish her. I want revenge. I feel injured and damaged, wrongly used, maltreated, and I want to yell and swear at her. I want to make her life as painful as she has made mine, and I do not want to be patient with her. I don't want to forgive, I just want her to look as ugly as I feel inside, so she is disgusted with herself and what she has done, but then I feel bad about that desire, when all I really want is for her to be sorry about how she feels and acts towards me. She wants me to change who I am, and can never accept me as Jesus.

Don't stay in anger, but now experience the grief of how I feel about opposite sex's "treatment" of me

I feel sad, afraid I will never be happy, cold inside and without hope. I feel like I am nothing as a man, without value to a woman. I feel ugly and small, a piece of shit to be wiped out of my woman's life. I feel un-noticed, unheard, unwanted, abandoned and rejected. I feel empty and alone. I am not attractive to my lady, not sexy enough for her to desire me, I am only good enough to be used. I am ashamed of myself, and powerless as a man. I am unworthy to be who I am. I am so sad that I cannot change who I am, and be someone else who is more acceptable to everyone. No one accepts me, everyone wants me to be someone else other than Jesus. I feel tormented, abused, despondent, discouraged, hopeless & wretched.

How do I feel about the same sex's treatment of me, with anger first, and then grief

Allow myself to work through those emotions as well

Now Relate These Feelings to the Masculine/Feminine Part of God

When we have these deep feelings about any gender, we assume this is how God views us

Eg. If the gender is female, then we usually attribute the belief to God's feminine qualities

Eg. If the gender is male, then we usually attribute the belief to God's masculine qualities

Once Emotional Release Has Occurred

Truths About Yourself Can Enter You

Your emotions about yourself will change, and you will begin to feel that you are complete:

You will see yourself as God truly sees you

You will feel humble, but also happy with yourself

You will feel powerful, because you now completely know yourself

You will feel vulnerable to love, and joyful in love

You will feel childlike in your experiences, not concerned about how others see you

Truths About God Can Enter You

Your emotions about God will change, and you will begin to feel that God is:

Loving, kind, compassionate, generous, clever, and cares for you deeply. She is wise, always waiting for you, never forcing you, always wanting the best for you. Her love is safe and secure, and can never be lost. She never abandons you.

He is a powerful creator, just, kind, understanding, never wants or enjoys my pain. He wants me to live and enjoy my life, and never desires retribution or revenge. You will come to feel God and Her true nature, and all of your definitions of God will also change.

God's Love Flows Into You Without Resistance

Since I am experiencing my emotions about God, I can now:

Receive God's Love as I release the untruthful beliefs emotionally

Understand in my heart, and feel overwhelmed by, God's Love entering me

God's Principles

Introduction to God's Principles

(excerpts from the 2016 AG God's Loving Laws Outline)

God's universe operates on God's Love

Every one of God's Laws from the smallest affecting our physical life and the greatest affecting our soul-based life are all based on love

It makes logical sense to get an education in love, and in particular, God's Love

Being educated from the highest source

Necessity to be educated by God

Otherwise, we will just have the same opinions as the world

The world's opinions have led us into the condition of pain and suffering we are in

To be educated from God we must first gain an education about connecting to God

Laws are involved in the connection with God

Laws are involved for the reception of God's Love into the human soul

God's definition of love

We need to accept God's definition of love

We need to release from ourselves our own false definitions of love

Developing My Will To Love

Analyse my will to Love and change

Face my resistance to Love and change

Using the will to develop faith, longing for truth, desire for action and emotion Develop my will to Love and change

Questions?

Are my current choices making me happy now and in the long-term?

Am I going to be my real self?

Am I going to have a relationship with God?

Am I going to connect to the other half of myself?

Everyone treats these questions as optional, but all of these questions must be answered in the long term, and God's Laws dictate that this is so.

God's Principles – Fundamental Facts

(excerpts from the 2016 AG God's Loving Laws Outline)

God

God is an infinite entity who existed before the Universe itself

God has Personality, Characteristics, Attributes, Nature and Desires

Each attribute is completed and perfected in God

Each attribute is not God, but only a part of God

God is Love, but Love is not God, but rather an Attribute of God

God is Truth, but Truth is not God, but rather an Attribute of God

God is Law, but Law is not God, but rather an Attribute of God

God is Will, but Will is not God, but rather an Attribute of God

Love, Truth, Law and Will are only parts of God

God's full personality, attributes, character, nature and desires are infinite

Properties of God's Principles

God's Principles form a framework for Law

Each law governed by the principles automatically achieve the goals and objectives of the principles

God's Principles can be grouped into classes for the purpose of examination

Groups of God's Principles:

Foundation Principles:

Love	Life	Economy	Permanence
Truth	Development	Function	Scope

Order Principles:

Hierarchy, Governance, Responsibility, Compensation

Soul-specific Principles:

Will, Desire, Redemption, Transformation

Properties of God's Laws

Self-Maintaining Creations of God

Governed by God's Principles

Driven by God's Character, Attributes and Desires

Powered by God's Energy

Provide loving consequences (in the form of benefits) when they are obeyed

Provide loving consequences (in the form of correction) when they are disobeyed

Fundamental Facts about God's LawsFACT:

Potentially an infinite number of God's Laws exist

CONSEQUENCE:

Detailed discussion and understanding of the individual operations of each law is difficult and very time consuming unless God has provided a simple way of understanding them

Humans will be in a process of eternal discovery of God's Laws, and human understanding of God's Laws currently is very limited, rudimentary and unsophisticated

The discussion of individual laws is not an economical use of our time, energy or resources. It becomes impossible to discuss in any detail any single law within our 34-hour programme

FACT:

New laws are created every moment

CONSEQUENCE:

You will learn how this is possible during the week. We cannot discuss each law at the speed that each new law is being created. The irony is that the more we discuss each law the farther we get behind in knowing all of the laws.

FACT:

Understanding God's Principles and God's Laws require understanding God's Character, Nature and Personality

CONSEQUENCE:

The secret to understanding law is to be able to feel God's Personality, Character, Nature and Attributes, and see how these parts of God form the Governing Principles of God's Laws

Even intellectually, it is far more productive to discuss the Governing Principles of God's Laws than to discuss God's Laws themselves

FACT:

Understanding God's Laws require following "God's Way

CONSEQUENCE:

A person who does not follow God's Way will not be able to emotionally or intellectually grasp the important and fundamental details of the principles governing God's Laws, or the operations of the laws themselves

Unless humans are transformed at the soul level the mind's intellectual capacity, and the soul's emotional capacity remains limited, finite, and illogical, unable to understand God's infinite Wisdom, God's Principles or God's Laws

FACT:

God's Laws are complex, intricate and mathematically defined

CONSEQUENCE:

God's Laws have intricate relationships between each other

God's Laws by nature have complex mathematical definitions and structure and form the fundamental scientific truth of the universe

FACT:

God's Laws cannot be broken

CONSEQUENCE:

Humans can attempt to rebel against God's Law but the rebellion will not be successful and they cannot exist outside of God's Law or outside of the laws natural workings

FACT:

Jesus & Mary have spent 2000 years examining God's Laws and the Principles guiding Laws

CONSEQUENCE:

It is impossible to transfer their knowledge to attendees in a 34-hour programme

It is impossible to transmit a soul-based understanding of law to people who are just beginning the process of transformation

The examples provided in this programme are not preferred examples, but rather are examples geared towards human's current limited understanding

Comments from Our Spirit Friends

"The audience must beware of attempts to intellectualise and categorise law. The sum total of Law is infinitely greater than the parts Jesus will be able to explain to you in the time he has available.

"God's Laws have intricate workings, and it cannot be assumed that the small amount of principles Jesus shares with you for the purpose of beginning your awakening to the understanding of God's Loving Laws are a complete discussion, or even anything more than a brief introduction on the subject.

"God's Design of Law is far too complex to explain to the audience in their current condition. As they grow towards God far more will become clear and more truth will be understood. Jesus has created this group to hopefully inspire you on the path of discovering God's Laws, and to demonstrate to you the wealth of Truth that God has available to those who seek for it."

Summary

Fundamental facts include:

God is an infinite entity

God's Personality, Characteristics, Attributes & Desires govern God's Principles

God's Principles of Law govern God's Laws

God's Laws govern the creation itself

Billions of Laws exist

Understanding Law requires following "God's Way" & receiving God's Love

Love Principles

(excerpts from the 2016 AG God's Loving Laws Outline)

Summary - Love principles envelop God's Love around each creation, principle and law ensuring:

Love governs all principles

Love is enforced, compelled and upheld

All creation experiences God's Love in different degrees

All creation demonstrates and facilitates the flow of God's principled love

The human soul can enter a love-based relationship

Definition – What the principles are:

The law shall be love and uphold love

The law enforces and compels love

The law demonstrates and facilitates the understanding of love

The law is compassionate

Objectives – Why the principles are applied to law:

To ensure all creation experiences the expression of God's Love

To ensure the human soul learns about the availability of God's Personal Love

To ensure the survival of all creation collectively

To ensure loving order in all creation

Application – The creation and laws affected:

Every law

All matter living and non-living

Reveals – What the principles reveal about God:

God's great desire is for all of His creation to be loved

God's Love is the highest governing principle of the Universe

God feels Love is more important than all other things

Examples – The principles' applications in law:

Gravity

Lovingly promotes an environment that results in my being able to fearlessly express myself and enjoy my life.

Aerodynamics

Gives me a possible experience which exceeds my gravity bound state resulting in enhanced joy and amazing wonder.

Law of Compensation

Compensation lets me know when love has been upheld or compromised by my attitudes, emotions, thoughts or actions.

Law of Forgiveness

Compassion is demonstrated to me if I am repentant by allowing forgiveness for unloving emotions, feelings, thoughts and actions taken, even when I cannot correct all of the effects of what I have done.

Conclusion

Love Principles:

Are impossible for humans to apply fully without receiving God's Love Ensure purposeful existence and happiness for all creation

Are principles most frequently opposed and ignored by humans

Are the principles we have been teaching

Truth Principles

(excerpts from the 2016 AG God's Loving Laws Outline)

Summary - Truth principles envelop God's Truth around each creation, principle and law ensuring:

Truth is inseparably joined with Love as the highest of all principles Truth is enforced and compelled

All creation lives within the framework of mathematical, scientific, spiritual and emotional fact

Precision and certainty in the fabric and framework of creation

Definition – What the principles are:

The law shall be God's Truth

The law shall expose God's Truth and uphold God's Truth

The law is the spiritual, emotional, scientific and mathematical fact

The law is the fabric and framework of creation

The law enforces and compels truth

Objectives – Why the principles are applied to law:

To ensure all creation experiences God's Truth

To ensure the human soul learns God's Truth

To provide a fixed framework for the operation of Love

To provide dependable and predictable law

Application – The creation and laws affected:

Every law

All matter living and non-living

Reveals – What the principles reveal about God:

God's great desire is for all of His creation to be in harmony with Truth

God's Truth is the framework for the expression of Love

God feels Truth and Love are indivisible

Examples – The principles' application in law:

Gravity

Is scientifically measurable and mathematically defined so that I can use the law with knowledge and certainty in my activities and life.

Aerodynamics

The law defines the primary conditions for flight, and once understood, I can build a device which engages the facts in order to fly.

Physical properties of elements & substances

All matter has individual characteristics and properties, and each element of the same kind will exhibit the same properties and react the same way under specific circumstances. Each substance of the same kind exhibits the same "truth".

Law of Attraction

Exposes to me the truth of my own condition by attracting circumstances and situations that expose the truth about my condition. Once I know my condition, I can see the causes for the events I attract

Physical illness in the human bodies

If I am ill, the truth principles in the Law of Compensation, the Law of Cause and Effect, and the Law of Attraction work together to expose that I am attempting to emotionally deny a truth about love (whether it be love of self, other half, others or the environment).

Conclusion

Truth principles:

Are impossible for humans to understand without receiving God's Love

Ensure existence, harmony and predictability for all creation

Ensure fearlessness, security and safety for all creation

Are principles most frequently opposed and ignored by humans

Are the principles we have been teaching

Life Principles

(excerpts from the 2016 AG God's Loving Laws Outline)

Summary – Life principles transfer God's Life Force to each creation, principle and law ensuring:

Life energy from God to be given to living creatures Life energy is transferred during pro-creation

Life is promoted, nurtured, respected and sustained Imbalance is prevented and repaired

Matter that "dies" is transformed to promote life

Definition – What the principles are:

The law shall allow God's Life Energy to enter creations

The law shall promote, nurture, respect, and sustain life

The law shall prevent and repair imbalance

The law shall transform death to promote life

The law shall allow for life to be given to creations

Objectives - Why the principles are applied to law:

To ensure creation, life, survival and balance

To ensure matter will constantly change in order to support life

To ensure survival before engagement of higher laws is enabled by ensuring that knowledge of the higher law is obtained before using the law

To allow living creations to pro-create or replicate

Application – The creation and laws affected:

Every law

All matter living and non-living

Reveals – What the principles reveal about God:

God loves life and created life

God promotes, nurtures, respects, values and sustains life

God feels that life is precious and sacred

God wants us to know the higher laws before we use them

Examples – The principles' applications in law:

Gravity

Creates an atmosphere, and prevents creatures requiring that atmosphere from leaving the atmosphere due to physical centrifugal forces.

Aerodynamics

Requires knowledge (instinctual or obtained by investigation) of the law before flight can be obtained and prevents accidental engagement of the law without understanding principles.

Compensation

Prevents the degradation of a soul to the point that the soul cannot sustain its own life.

Earth systems

The earth's systems can maintain themselves and work to 'right' themselves (repair itself, regain equilibrium) even under extreme pressure (pollution etc) from other forces.

Human bodies

The human body has millions of automatic inbuilt correcting, detoxifying and eliminating systems that enable us to maintain life even under severe hardship or physical and emotional strain

Conclusion

Life principles:

Allow any creation to receive God's Life Force and then be able to supply that life force through its own pro-creative ability. Life principles also ensure that life remains sacred and that all mechanisms are created to support and sustain life.

Humans frequently justify & minimize desires, attitudes, emotions, thoughts and actions that oppose life principles including:

War, abortion, health care, eating meat, pollution, fear of emotions, fear of death, etc

Development Principles

(excerpts from the 2016 AG God's Loving Laws Outline)

Summary – Development principles allow each creation, principle and law to evolve, grow and change positively ensuring:

Expansive change is forced upon all matter Growth is supported, encouraged and sustained

Positive development and evolution occurs for all matter

Increasing capacities can develop within all creation

Self-determination of the human soul

Definition – What the principles are:

The law shall force expansive change upon all matter

The law shall enforce, support, encourage and sustain growth

The law shall support, encourage and sustain development and evolution

The law shall support adaptation to different environments

Objectives – Why the principles are applied to law:

To ensure an enhanced condition of love develops over time

To ensure the entire universe and all creatures never remain stagnant

To ensure increasing capacities within all creation

To allow self-determination in the human

To allow life to adapt to harmful environments created by the human

Application – The creation and laws affected:

Every law

All matter living and non-living

Reveals – What the principles reveal about God:

God loves, desires and enjoys the growth and development of His creations

God has an expansive and generous nature

God is a parent who delights in the expansive growth and joy of the human

God values and encourages the development of all creatures

God is not motivated to punitively or arbitrarily restrict His Creations

Examples- The principles' applications in law:

Gravity

Gravity's existence allows my investigation and development in all forms of endeavour while remaining safe and secure.

Aerodynamics

Knowledge of the law allows enhanced forms of travel and experiences (i.e. growth and development in my ability to move around).

Human bodies

Sperm and egg. Woman's womb supports the environment of development. Allows reflexes and instinct to develop.

Compensation

This law encourages me when I'm out of harmony with law to get into harmony with law by encouraging me to develop and change.

Design and development of the universe

The entire universe allows positive and negative development, but supports and encourages positive development only.

Transformation

The principle of development supports the complete transformation of the human into a different creature upon the reception of Divine Love

Conclusion

Development principles:

Allow any creation to develop and change by ensuring that the mechanisms for change and adaptation exist within the creation itself and exist within the controlling laws.

Humans frequently justify & minimize desires, attitudes, emotions, thoughts and actions that oppose development principles including:

Being attached to the past, nostalgic, opposing release of emotions, opposing resolution of interpersonal issues, opposing changes of family and friends, opposing experimentation, placing financial matters ahead of development, resisting emotional recognition of personal truth, restricting children's natural curiosity and experimentation, controlling outcomes and attempting to reduce the consequence of choices, etc

Economy Principles

(excerpts from the 2016 AG God's Loving Laws Outline)

Summary – Economy principles ensure that each creation and law economically use resources by ensuring:

The equal value of resources (time, matter and energy)

The economical use of resources to create function

The automation of laws and creations (no external maintenance)

Economy is incorporated within creation and law

Definition – What the principles are:

The law shall consider time, matter and energy as resources of equal value

The law shall utilise all resources economically

The law shall be automatic and does not require external maintenance

The law shall be incorporated within the creation itself

The law shall benefit all creation

Objectives – Why the principles are applied to law:

To ensure all resources combined are treated with equal value

To ensure all resources combined are utilised efficiently for abundance

To ensure all systems are sustaining, self-maintaining and self-repairing

To ensure the individual creature is supported by creation collectively

To ensure humans understand benefits of collective economy

Application – The creation and laws affected:

Every law

All matter living and non-living

Reveals – What the principles reveal about God:

God feels time, matter and energy are equally valuable

God feels economy and abundance are mutually inclusive God feels economy results in abundance for all creatures God's economy is not motivated by a feeling of lack

God feels that love does not waste anything (we can think about this in terms of physical creation but also in terms of emotional and spiritual experiences)

God focuses on the real benefit rather than any short term "satisfaction"

Examples – The principles' applications in law:

Gravity

One law has the same benefit to all living creatures.

Aerodynamics

Knowing the higher law results in more economical use of time, energy and resources to accomplish larger outcomes (particularly if we redesigned the vehicle to have more loving energy sources and operation would result in no roads or destruction to environment through transportation)

Automation

Instinct built into each living creature. Default operation built into all matter. e.g. Breathing; living organisms do not require decisions to breath.

Decomposition

A decomposing tree creates fertile ground to sustain more life, food for insects, birds, animals and other living elements of the system, a pocket of light that allows smaller trees that were previously shaded to grow.

Conclusion

Economy principles:

Ensure all laws and creations economically use, and treat of equal value, all resources of time, energy and matter. Economy principles ensure that no resource is wasted, and that abundance exists naturally within the universe.

Humans frequently justify & minimize desires, attitudes, emotions, thoughts and actions that oppose economy principles including:

Placing financial matters ahead of time, matter and energy, creating without consideration for future resource usage, creating without concern for creatures that live afterwards, watering gardens, using chemicals that destroy, selfishly valuing my personal resources over the resources of others, etc

Function Principles

(excerpts from the 2016 AG God's Loving Laws Outline)

Summary – Function principles ensure that each creation and law has many functional purposes by ensuring:

The equal value of outcomes (results, beauty, and the use of resources of time, matter and energy)

Each law and creation has multiple functions that are automatically fulfilled

The economical use of resources to create multi-functionality

The automation of function and outcome

Creation itself instinctively "desires" to fulfil all outcomes

Definition – What the principles are:

The law shall quantify the economical use of resources (time, matter and energy), the obtained results, and beauty as outcomes of equal value

The law shall ensure all outcomes are automatically fulfilled

The law shall ensure creation itself instinctively "desires" to fulfil all outcomes

Objectives – Why the principles are applied to law:

To ensure all outcomes combined are treated with equal value

To ensure all outcomes combined are fulfilled

To ensure each creation itself fulfils all outcomes

To ensure each creation supports a system that fulfils all outcomes

Application – The creation and laws affected:

Every law

All matter living and non-living

Reveals – What the principles reveal about God:

God feels the only purpose of law is to create and enhance function

God sees no point in creating without function or for beauty only

God feels beauty is an inviolable part of loving function

God enjoys function and beauty as mutually inclusive

God creates function to inspire, satisfy, and increase the joy of the human soul

Examples – The principles' application in law:

Gravity

Gravity keeps all unconnected matter sustained within an atmosphere, and the atmosphere itself is sustained by gravity (along with other substances)

Aerodynamics

While only recently enjoyed by the human itself, birds and other creatures (insects, etc) have engaged flight that benefits humans (e.g. fly, ant, bee) collectively, and inspired humans (e.g. bird of prey) to learn the law.

Trees

Trees have a multitude of functions, which include assisting survival and the creation of a usable atmosphere, habitat, heating, oxygen generation, removal of carbon dioxide, soil production, water management, as well as smelling good, supplying calming energy, and being beautiful to look at for humans.

Every human specific law

Each human specific law has multiple functions of removing sin, causing transformation, as well as making the human itself feel, smell and look more beautiful.

Conclusion

Function principles:

Ensure all laws and creations have multiple functional purposes for their creation and existence, and treat of equal value, all resources of time, energy and matter, and all outcomes including function and beauty. Function principles ensure that each creation has multiple purposes and that each purpose benefits other creations.

Humans frequently justify & minimize desires, attitudes, emotions, thoughts and actions that oppose function principles including:

Not valuing resources (time, matter and energy), the obtained results, and beauty equally, creating without function, creating for a single function, destroying the environment to create, creating products that cover over truth (e.g. makeup for women), etc

Permanence Principles

(excerpts from the 2016 AG God's Loving Laws Outline)

Summary – Permanence principles mean that all creation can rely on permanent law by ensuring:

Laws are unchangeable, consistent, permanent, and self-enforcing Laws are structured, verifiable and mathematical

Laws are measurable, quantifiable and observable

Creation has safety and predictability in the universe

Definition – What the principles are:

The law shall be unchangeable, consistent and permanent The law shall be structured, verifiable and mathematical

The law's results shall be measurable, quantifiable and observable

Objectives – Why the principles are applied to law:

To promote faith & trust in the Creator, Love, Truth, the environment & life

To create stability and predictability in God's Universe

To promote discovery, experimentation, education & learning

To prevent negotiation, manipulation, and intentional misuse of the law

To allow intelligent creatures to consistently and reliably create

To enable discovery of individual truths via a large variety of fields of enquiry

Application – The creation and laws affected:

Every law

All matter living and non-living

Reveals – What the principles reveal about God:

God's Love & Truth is consistent and permanent, verifiable & unchangeable

God feels that Love must be consistent and permanent

God desires humans to discover truth through their desires

God is fixed and unmovable, unable to be manipulated, lied to or fooled

God feels the same for all creations of the same type

God wants to be trusted

Examples – The principles' applications in law:

Gravity

Gravity is consistent for the environment which allows for my security and safety in taking actions with predictability.

Aerodynamics

The higher law, once known and understood, can be reliably, consistently, mathematically, safely and securely engaged.

Fibonacci numbers in nature

As an artist (proportion, people, placement of objects, etc)

As a scientist (rotation of leaf placement photosynthesis efficiency etc)

As a cosmologist (design of galaxies, efficient distribution of energy)

As a marine biologist (efficient design and strength of living space - shells)

As a botanist (design of plants etc)

Cause and effect

Every effect of the same kind has the same cause.

Human soul

Changes in my soul are measurable and repeatable.

Conclusion

Permanence principles:

Ensure all laws are unchangeable, consistent, permanent, and self-enforcing and that creations can rely upon this fact. Permanence principles ensure that all creations of the same type function in the same manner so that function is certain.

Humans frequently justify & minimize desires, attitudes, emotions, thoughts and actions that oppose permanence principles including:

Suggesting that love varies itself under different circumstances Believing all law is a "process of negotiation"

Believing I can manipulate the law

Feeling if no one is watching then laws are not enforced

Feeling that I have a "special case or circumstance" to avoid law Believing that only actions can be governed

Believing that superiority absolves me of certain law

Believing that circumstances dictate whether to obey law

Believing that financial considerations allow for disobedience Believing freedom means being able to ignore or break law

Resisting growing faith based upon previous experience

Suggesting that there is no such thing as absolute truth, etc

Permanence Comparison versus Human Concept

God's Concept

God never varies the operation of Love under any circumstance

God's Laws cannot be negotiated with and are always consistently enforced

God's Laws cannot be manipulated or appealed to God's Laws are self-enforcing and always observe the attitudes, feelings & actions

God's Laws always operate, and the effect is guaranteed in all circumstance

God's Laws operate upon the attitude & feeling and action of the individual

God's Laws operate without partiality, and absolve no-one

God's Laws require obedience in all circumstances

God's Laws do not consider financial circumstances at all

God's Laws cannot be ignored and state that true freedom for all requires living in harmony with the laws of Love

Human Concept

Humans suggests that love varies itself under different circumstances

Humans believe all law is a "process of negotiation" with the law enforcer

Humans believe they can manipulate the law enforcer

Humans feel if no one is watching, then laws are not enforced

Humans feel that they have a "special case or circumstance" to avoid law

Humans believe that only actions should be governed

Humans believe that superiority absolves them of certain law

Humans believe that circumstances dictate whether to obey law

Humans believe that financial considerations allow for disobedience

Humans believe freedom means being able to ignore or break law

Scope Principles

(excerpts from the 2016 AG God's Loving Laws Outline)

Terms:

Creation includes any matter or creature from the smallest particle to the most complex living creation of the human soul

Energy includes information, energy, emotion, thought, communication, relationship or interplay within or between creation

Properties include all properties, characteristics, attributes, attractions, and restrictions of the creation itself

Inbuilt Rules means a set of laws and potentials built into the creation itself that govern the creation's properties and energy

External Rules means a set of laws and potentials created by creation combinations external to the individual creation itself that affect the creation's properties and energy

Summary – Scope principles guarantee creation is governed by law, and that new creations and laws can exist, by ensuring:

Inbuilt rules are placed within each creation (e.g. genetics)

Inbuilt rules determine the creation's potentials, energy flow and properties

External rules affect each creation's properties and energy

External rules allow for expansion of each creation's properties and energy

External rules allow for new laws and creations

External rules control the flow of energy between creations

Definition – What the principles are:

All creation shall be governed by law

Inbuilt rules shall be inbuilt into each creation

Inbuilt rules shall determine the creation's potentials

Inbuilt rules determine the energy flow and properties of the creation

New inbuilt rules are created when combined creations form a new creation

New inbuilt rules determine the energy flow and properties of the new creation

The energy flow shall be governed by inbuilt rules and external rules

Objectives – Why the principles are applied to law:

To allow for the Universe to exist

To allow for simple and complex non-living and living creations to exist

To allow for energy flow between creations

To ensure that no creation is capable of anarchy

To allow for automation of processes, functions, properties and life

To allow for infinite combinations and permutations of:

Creation

New forms of creation

Evolution and devolution

New inbuilt and external rules

To create and allow for:

Self-enforcing law

Self-maintaining law

New higher laws

External rules governing all creation

Internal rules governing individual creation

Properties for each individual creation combination

Application – The creation and laws affected:

Every law

All matter living and non-living

Reveals – What the principles reveal about God:

God is extremely intelligent

God is a careful planner and designer

God is interested in allowing creation to communicate & gain knowledge

God wanted mutually beneficial relationships between various creations

God wanted no creation to exist independently

God wanted potentials to be governed by the creation itself

God made provisions for all new creations and laws

God wanted a self-maintaining Universe

God wanted no creation to experience complete separation from God

God wanted all devolution to result in further creation

Examples – The principles’ applications in law:

Gravity

Gravity is not actually a single law or phenomenon. As a law it is actually a combination of creations and laws which, when combined make a higher law.

Aerodynamics

Aerodynamics is not actually a single law or phenomenon. As a law it is actually a combination of creations and laws which, when combined, make a higher law. It also involves many lower laws from a wide range of fields.

Human bodies

A combination of laws and substances, which include the flow of energy system (life), made from a combination of elements (which are governed by their own laws), made from a combination of atomic and sub-atomic particles (which also are governed by their own laws), which are made from a specific combination of particles (themselves also governed by specific laws).

In addition, some external creations (such as viruses, and bacteria) which exist as separate organisms governed by their own laws, exist within the body. Also, the body communicates with the controlling soul and spirit body through a set of laws, and has the potential to communicate with anything in the rest of the Universe through another set of external laws.

Each system within the body is also governed by its own set of laws but these, in a healthy system, work harmoniously to complete the whole creation and function of the human body.

Conclusion

Scope principles:

Determine the existence of the universe itself, everything within the universe, how everything communicates with all elements of the universe, how new creations and laws appear in the universe, and also the inbuilt soul-based mechanisms via which the highest creation within the Universe is able to communicate with God.

Humans frequently justify & minimize desires, attitudes, emotions, thoughts and actions that oppose scope principles including:

Creating objects and systems that work against the environment and require maintenance

Creating without understanding the laws governing the constituent elements of the creation (e.g. chemical genetic manipulation, anti-bacterial or viral medication etc)

Creating 'medicines', 'solutions' or 'remedies' that deal only with effects (and don't consider the scope of what is occurring and why a 'symptom' exists)

Attempting to overcome or interact with a single law, or the effect of a single law, without considering the other laws that operate in unison with that law, etc

Human Law Comparison

(excerpts from the 2016 AG God's Loving Laws Outline)

Reasons For Comparing Human Law with God's Laws

My personal pain

Since childhood I have been exposed only to parent and societal law

I have now developed attitudes towards law that come from the childhood experience

I have attitudes to God's Law which cause me much heartache and pain

I have the same attitude towards God's Laws that I have towards human law

I need to examine my attitude to God's Laws if I wish to become happy

Comparison allows me to examine problematic soul-based issues

If I compare God's Laws and human law, I have a chance to identify my own soul-based emotional injuries which prevent me from engaging God's Laws

God's Law versus Human Laws

God's Laws

The law maker is also the law enforcer and fully enforces obedience to every law

The law maker and enforcer is infinitely and always aware, perfect and infallible

Laws are created by the law maker only to benefit all creation

Laws created to maintain survivability, growth, and transformation of all matter and living creatures within the Universe

Laws operate whether the creation is aware or not

Laws operate on the "heart", soul, attitude, character, thoughts and emotions of the human, and the action taken

Laws operate consistently under all circumstances with no exceptions

Each law has loving penalties if disobeyed, and loving rewards when obeyed

The penalties and rewards are loving, consistent and predictable

Each law deals with and addresses both the cause (relating to why the human used their will to disobey or obey the law) and the effect (the fact that the human did so use their will in a loving or unloving manner)

Human Laws

The law maker is usually not the law enforcer or policing officer, and the law enforcer is not able to fully enforce obedience to any law created

The law maker and/or law enforcers have little awareness, are able to fail, and are imperfect

Laws created with mixed and often unpredictable benefits, sometimes for the benefit of all creatures, or only for the benefit of the human, the law maker, the law enforcer or the police

Laws primarily created for the purpose of being a deterrent and to enforce punishment upon the law breaker and to discourage the most disobedient

Laws operate only if the law enforcer is aware and willing to enforce the law

Laws operate only on the action taken, and then only if the action is observed, processed and enforced, by the law enforcer

Laws operate differently in each country and are inconsistently applied according to wealth, social status or position, race, gender, nationality, and hundreds of other variable factors

Results:

Comparing God's Laws with human law reveals:

Humans are "drunk" on their own perception of law

Humans see God's Law similarly to how they see human law Humans impose their perception of human laws on God's Laws

Humans create a huge amount of pain and suffering as a result of the "Human law "Hangover"

Human attitude to law is compromised because humans:

Are not able to fully enforce obedience to any law created

Have little awareness, are able to fail, and are imperfect

Create laws with mixed and often unpredictable benefits

Create laws for the purpose of being a deterrent and to enforce punishment

Must observe disobedience and be willing to enforce the law

Only penalize disobedient actions, and then only if the action is noticed by, caught by and willing to be enforced by other humans

Create laws that operate differently in each country and are inconsistently applied according to hundreds of variable factors

Create laws with unloving penalties, obedience is rarely rewarded, and the results are usually unpredictable

Create law that only deals with disobedience, and then does not fully address the effect but rather only provides "punishment" or "penalties" to act as a deterrent

Summary - Human law comparison reveals:

God's Laws are very different to human laws

Human resistance to God's Law is based upon the flawed viewpoints of love and truth that come from childhood parental and societal experiences

If I keep treating God's Laws like human laws, I will continue to remain unhappy and in pain

Introduction to Order Principles

(excerpts from the 2016 AG God's Loving Laws Outline)

God's Universe diagram

The human soul fits into the Universe

The human soul affects the Universe itself

The human soul affects the lower creations within the Universe

Definitions:

Human will:

The human has been given the gift of free will

Many gifts and responsibilities pertain to the use of the gift of free will

Many principles apply to the human soul because it has the gift of free will

Principles presented in this session have a direct impact upon the human soul

Self-responsibility:

Self-responsibility is the Law based requirement of self-awareness, to seek truth, love and understanding of all principles of Love and Law, and the loving ownership and expression of one's will, desire, passion, emotion, attitudes, intentions, thoughts and actions in harmony with God's Principles and Laws.

Groups or classes of God's Principles:Foundation principles

Love, Truth, Life, Development Economy, Function, Permanence, Scope

Order principles

Hierarchy, Governance, Responsibility, Compensation

Soul-specific principles

Will, Desire, Redemption, Transformation

Hierarchy

There is a hierarchy of Laws and a hierarchy of creations within the Universe. Jesus will outline and discuss how these two hierarchies are inseparable, conjoined and inter-related, and built upon the foundation of Scope principles. Hierarchy principles apply to all creation.

Governance

Since humans have been given power over all other creation (whether that is just a potential or realized) and the potential to create, humans are also bound to additional laws regarding the governance of other creations.

Responsibility

Since humans have been given power over all other creation (whether that is just a potential or realized), and they have the ability to use their will and make choices and decisions affecting other creations, humans also have been made responsible for the way in which governance is exercised.

Compensation

Since humans must choose to take actions in or out of harmony with Love, and such actions potentially affect other humans and other creations, humans are compensated for loving actions, and penalized and corrected for unloving actions.

Summary

Order Principles form the foundation for the principles that govern the potentials of the human soul

Hierarchy Principles

(excerpts from the 2016 AG God's Loving Laws Outline)

Terms:

Creation includes any matter or creature from the smallest particle to the most complex living creation of the human soul

Components are creations of less complexity combined in new ways Any lower creation is a potential component for a higher creation

Energy includes information, energy, emotion, thought, communication, relationship or interplay within or between creation

Properties include all properties, characteristics, attributes, attractions, and restrictions of the creation itself

Each creation's complexity is determined by the complexity of its individual components, energy and properties

Each creation of higher complexity has higher energy capabilities

If a creation has higher complexity and energy capabilities, it is also considered to be higher in hierarchy

Inbuilt Rules means a set of laws and potentials built into the creation itself that govern the creation's properties

External Rules means a set of laws and potentials created by creation combinations external to the individual creation itself

Rule set is the combination and interaction of inbuilt and external rules

Law is an individual set of laws or an individual rule set

Each more complex creation has more complex inbuilt rules

More complex inbuilt rules interact with more complex external rules and therefore create more complex laws

Context – Help to understand

Scope determines the existence of the Universe, everything within the Universe, how everything communicates with all elements of the Universe, and also the inbuilt soul-based mechanisms via which the highest creation within the Universe is able to communicate with God

Hierarchy determines the position or place of each creation and law within the Universe, and the power and energy each creation or law has over other creations and laws lower in the hierarchy.

Summary - Hierarchy principles:

Determine the hierarchy of law by the complexity of each law

Determine the hierarchy of creation by the complexity of each creation

Ensure more complex creation is governed by more complex laws

Ensure higher creations and laws exert more power, have more energy, and more complex properties

Definition - What the principles are:

The Hierarchy of creation shall be determined by each creation's complexity

The Hierarchy of law shall be determined by the complexity of each law

Each more complex creation in the hierarchy of creations shall be governed by a hierarchy of more complex laws

To ensure that creations and laws that are higher in hierarchy exert more power and have more complex properties

Objectives – Why the principles are applied to law:

To ensure each creation is governed by law

To ensure all matter can be broken down into its individual components

To prevent the complete destruction of any form of matter

To allow for the creation of more complex law

To allow for the creation and survival of more complex creations

To allow creations of higher complexity to contain more complex inbuilt rules

To allow for each more complex individual law to more powerfully affect creations of higher complexity

To allow for each more complex individual creation to have a more powerful energy flow and effect on creations of lower complexity

To allow for each more complex individual law to have a more powerful effect on laws of lower complexity

To create implied, instinctual or automatic governance, responsibility and compensatory systems which are not based upon will or desire but rather upon hierarchy

Application – The creation and laws affected:

Every law

All matter living and non-living

Reveals – What the principles reveal about God:

God desires His creations to have the ability to create

God is generous and sharing in His Nature

God desires that each creation lives in relationship with other creations

God feels that relationships are important and bring satisfaction of desires

God creates instinct in all creatures for common functions

God creates properties in all matter for common functions

God feels that common purpose brings more powerful beneficial results

God feels each creation component has value and is necessary and essential for the operation of the whole

Examples – The principles' applications in law:Gravity

Gravity is actually a combination of creations (matter) and laws (rule sets) creating a new law we call gravity. The greater the mass the greater gravitational force is exerted on other matter. This creates a law that maintains automatic safety for sustained life and development.

Aerodynamics

Aerodynamics is actually a combination of creations (matter) and laws (rule sets) creating a new law we call aerodynamics. It involves many lower laws from a wide range of fields including physics of motion, material properties, fluid dynamics, pressures and temperatures and so forth.

Human bodies

Hydrogen and oxygen, water, blood, cardiovascular systems, energy systems, human body discussion and example of creations of law and new law interactions with the environment and the injection of the life principle.

Human soul

Connection with physical body (most complex physical creation).
Connection with spirit body (most complex spirit-based creation). The human soul energy systems and receiving substances from God.

Conclusion

Hierarchy principles:

Hierarchy determines the position or place of each creation and law within the Universe and creates implied, instinctual or automatic governance, responsibility and compensatory systems.

Hierarchy extends the Scope principles by placing Scope within a Hierarchical system. Scope allows for Hierarchy to exist.

Humans frequently justify & minimize desires, attitudes, emotions, thoughts and actions that oppose hierarchy principles including:

Feeling and believing I individually and humans collectively do not have control over our own creations (e.g. sin, disease, sickness, accidents etc)

Feeling and believing I can circumvent or am more powerful than the laws that govern me, etc

Governance Principles

(excerpts from the 2016 AG God's Loving Laws Outline)

Terms:

Governance principles will be discussed in relation to self-aware beings with free will

Other beings are controlled by Governance principles, but the control is instinctual rather than will based

The human soul (not the body or spirit body) is a self-aware being with the ability to express free will depending on development

Energy includes information, energy, emotion, thought, communication, relationship or interplay within or between creation

Development increases in quality and capacity as the human soul lives in more harmony with God's Principles, and decreases as the human soul lives in less harmony with God's Principles

Power of governance is the energy able to be expressed by the human soul which varies in quality and capacity in direct relationship to development

Summary - Governance principles ensure:

Everything is under God's Authority

God's Laws control and govern all of creation

God's Laws allow human souls to share governance

Each human soul automatically governs, but the power of governance is determined by development

Definition - What the principles are:

God's nature, character, attributes, desires & personality determine God's Principles

God's Principles determine God's Laws

God's Laws shall control and govern all of creation

God's Laws allow all human souls to share governance

Each human soul automatically governs, but the power to govern is determined by development

Objectives – Why the principles are applied to law:

To ensure that God has ultimate and complete authority

To allow God's highest creation (the human soul) to share in governance

To gift to the human soul the ability to control its external environment based upon the human soul's development (positively or negatively)

To ensure the human soul becomes educated in the effects of the use of power

To give more power to those in higher development

To restrict the power of those in lower development

To allow the human soul to create independently of God

To ensure creations of the human soul that are out of harmony with God's Principles are eventually destroyed

Application – The creation and laws affected:

All law

All matter living and non-living

Specific laws pertaining to the human soul

Specific laws governing the creations of the human soul

Reveals – What the principles reveal about God:

God takes full responsibility for God's Creations

God entrusts Her highest creation to govern in harmony with God

God desires the highest creation to share Her Joy of creating

God gifted to Her highest creation the potential of greater power over the environment by giving them the potential to develop

God educates the highest creation in the loving use of power

God loves giving and sharing power

God makes provision for the human soul being repentant and changing

Examples – The principles' applications in law:

Gravity & aerodynamics

The human body is governed by gravity unless it learns of a higher law (aerodynamics) which can overcome gravity. The process of learning enables the human soul to develop more knowledge which then allows using different laws to overcome the limitations of gravity. The human soul creates a device using current known laws to benefit itself.

Law of Attraction

The human soul automatically governs via the soul's developed condition. The condition controls substances, creatures and events in harmony with the law so that the soul attracts these resources to aid in exposing to itself its current developed condition. The governance principle ensures these attractions occur to aid the soul in its own self-awareness.

Environmental responses

The soul is like a transmitting antenna sending to its environment its own governance condition (developed soul condition). Each external creation responds individually and collectively to the individual and collective soul condition of the human. Humans individually and collectively make decisions and choices either in or out of harmony with Love (thoughts, emotions, and actions) based upon condition. This improves balance or creates imbalance in the environment and the results can be measured.

Human bodies

Each system within the body is also governed by its own set of laws. In a healthy person the governing system works harmoniously to complete the healthy creation and function of the bodies.

Conclusion

Governance principles:

Ensure that God has authority over all Principles, Laws and Creations, but that each creation with free will and self-awareness does automatically, and can with education and knowledge, affect and control the positive or negative development of its environment.

Humans frequently justify & minimize desires, attitudes, emotions, thoughts and actions that oppose governance principles including:

Not taking control of their own creations external to and within their own bodies (e.g. sin, disease, sickness, accidents etc)

Desiring authority and power without love or development

Creating without the ability to govern

Denying the effect of their governance over other creatures upon those creatures, etc

Responsibility Principles

(excerpts from the 2016 AG God's Loving Laws Outline)

Terms:

Responsibility principles are will-based, and will be discussed in relation to self-aware beings with free will.

The human soul (not the body or spirit body) is a self-aware being with the ability to express free will depending on development and as such is the highest creation.

Energy includes information, energy, emotion, thought, communication, relationship or interplay within or between creation

Development increases in quality and capacity as the human soul lives in more harmony with God's Principles, and decreases as the human soul lives in less harmony with God's Principles

Power of governance is the energy able to be expressed by the human soul which varies in quality and capacity in direct relationship to development

Nature is each individual human soul's God given personality, attributes, characteristics, qualities, individuality, and primary fields of interest.

Self-Responsibility is the law-based requirement of self-awareness, to seek truth, love and understanding of all principles of Love and law, and the loving ownership and expression of ones will, desire, passion, emotion, attitudes, intentions, thoughts and actions in harmony with God's Principles and laws.

Role-Responsibility is the assignment of specific roles of governance in God's Universe dependent upon development, self-responsibility, and according to one's nature

Summary - Responsibility principles:

Force the human to be self-responsible

Encourage the human to desire self-responsibility

Allow God to reward true self-responsibility with role-responsibility (i.e. role-responsibility is a compensatory gift given to those with self-responsibility)

Definition - What the principles are:

The highest creation shall be a self-responsible being

The law shall enforce self-responsibility

The law shall reward self-responsibility with role-responsibility (i.e. role-responsibility is a compensatory gift given to those with self-responsibility)

Objectives – Why the principles are applied to law:

The highest creation must be made responsible for the ownership and expression of its will, desire, passion, emotion, thoughts and actions

To ensure highest creation is accountable

To ensure anarchy is not possible for any creation

To restrict the highest creation from irreversibly harming any creation

To educate the highest creation that love is responsible and accountable

To determine individuals who qualify for role-responsibility

To reward self-responsible individuals with role-responsibility

To ensure that an individual's nature is fully satisfied and experienced

To form a foundation for God's highest principles that apply to the human soul such as Will, Desire, Compensation, Redemption and Transformation.

Application – The creation and laws affected:

All laws governing the human soul

All laws governing the creations of the human soul

A secondary effect on all laws and all creation

Reveals – What the principles reveal about God:

God feels Love always takes responsibility for creation

God feels Love is always directly accountable for creation

God is not reckless in creating the highest creation

God has taken responsibility for His creation of the highest creation

God wants the highest creation to enjoy its own nature

God loves all creation enough to restrict the highest creation

God loves rewarding those who act lovingly

God feels joy comes from self-care

Examples – The principles' applications in law:

Gravity & aerodynamics

Soul responsibility is enforced upon any person who wilfully attempts to break the Law of gravity or aerodynamics by using the law to desire to, or actually, harm themselves or others through negligence or direct action.

Law of Cause & Effect

Ensures individuals discover the relationship between what has happened (the effect) and what has caused the effect (the cause) so that individuals take full responsibility for their will, desire, passion, emotion, thoughts and actions.

Law of Compensation

Ensures individuals discover and receive the rewards for their own individual and collective responsible choices, and discover and receive the penalties for individual and collective irresponsible choices.

Law of Repentance

Ensures individuals become emotionally aware and emotionally repentant for each unloving choice and decision and become emotionally aware of his or her powerlessness to undo everything that has resulted from his or her unloving behaviour.

Conclusion

Responsibility principles:

Responsibility principles ensure that God's highest creation is self-responsible and is given role responsibilities in line with individuality and development.

Scope, hierarchy, governance, responsibility and compensation form a foundation for principles that apply to the potentials of the human soul such as will, desire, redemption and transformation.

Humans frequently justify & minimize desires, attitudes, emotions, thoughts and actions that oppose responsibility principles including:

Wanting to be saved (by God, Jesus, parents, friends, partners, others) from the results of my creations

Not taking responsibility for my emotions, desires, words or actions

Wanting power without responsibility or development

Wanting role-responsibility without self-responsibility

Placing people in positions of societal power (role responsibility) when they are not self-responsible

Looking up to and seeking guidance, 'truth' and 'love' from people who are not self-responsible (e.g. family, gurus, teachers, counsellors, etc)

Law Related Attitudes & Emotions

(excerpts from the 2016 AG God's Loving Laws Outline)

Law Drama

Entities involved in the "Drama"

God

Humans generally & myself personally

Human law makers (parents, caregivers, politicians and rulers)

Human law enforcers (parents, caregivers, judges and police)

Analysis of general attitudes and emotions towards law helps us identify our "Hangover"

General Comments

Human law makers and human law enforcers (excluding parents and caregivers) are:

Generally, much better acquainted with the problems associated with human law than the average human is Generally, have a higher appreciation of the application of law to assist society than the average human does

Consider

If humans are to become at-one with God, they will need to have the same attitudes and emotions about God's Laws that God has

Whenever we have a different attitude or emotion than God does, we are automatically sinning, and therefore creating more pain and suffering for ourselves

Comparison of Attitudes and Emotions

Note on the following:

Each entity's law related attitudes and emotions about law

Each entity's law related attitudes and emotions about the other entities in the drama

Each entity's law related attitudes and emotions about themselves individually

God's Attitudes and Emotions About:

Who/What

God

Summary of Attitudes and Emotions

God knows he is the ultimate law maker and law enforcer, and does not need humans to acknowledge this Truth. God is also not concerned about having problems enforcing law, since He knows he has created a perfect system with only loving outcomes where every law is self-enforcing.

Who/What

Law

Summary of Attitudes and Emotions

All of God's Laws are essential and created to:

- allow all creatures and matter survive, and;
- allow all living creatures to grow, thrive and develop, and;
- allow humans to be redeemed and transformed and blissfully happy.

Who/What

Human Law Makers

Summary of Attitudes and Emotions

God allows human law makers to create laws as they see fit even though human laws should not be necessary. If the laws created by humans are in harmony with God's Love, then the human law makers will be supported by God. If not then the human law makers will be penalized by God's Laws.

Who/What

Human Law Enforcers

Summary of Attitudes and Emotions

God allows human law enforcers to enforce laws as they see fit. If the enforcement is in harmony with God's definition of love, then the human law enforcers will be supported by God's Laws. If the enforcement is not in harmony with God's definition of love, then the human law enforcers will be penalized by God's Laws.

Who/What

All humans

Summary of Attitudes and Emotions

God Loves humans, views them as His Highest Creation, treats each human equally, desires their individual and collective happiness, and is compassionate towards them. He knows that if humans choose to obey His Laws they will receive everlasting benefits and be happy. If humans choose to disobey His Laws, they will create their own misery.

Human Law Maker's Attitudes and Emotions About:Who/What

God

Summary of Attitudes and Emotions

Generally, do not believe they will need to answer to a higher law maker nor are they concerned about whether their laws are in harmony with the laws of the Highest law maker. Those who believe in God make many false presumptions about God's Laws, and those who are agnostic or atheist generally ignore any consideration of God's existence or power.

Who/What

Law

Summary of Attitudes and Emotions

Generally, believe that laws should be made as a deterrence, using fear as a governing tool, to create order, to impose moral, economic, religious and society rules. They do not believe compliance with law should be rewarded, but strongly believe penalties and punishment are essential to maintain order. Generally, do not believe God has laws that govern the human condition.

Who/What

Human Law Makers

Summary of Attitudes and Emotions

Generally, see their own power as supreme and do not believe they will need to answer to a higher law maker or if they believe in God they presume their laws are in harmony with the laws of the Highest law maker. Believe they are performing a public service.

Who/What

Human Law Enforcers

Summary of Attitudes and Emotions

Generally, believe that the law enforcer is their tool to enforce the penalties of the law they created.

Who/What

All Humans

Summary of Attitudes and Emotions

Generally, believe that humans are inherently imperfect and that it is human nature to break law. Therefore, humans need to be restricted or deterred from harming or damaging themselves or others. Humans are never going to be loving or self-aware, so law makers need to stop unsociable behaviour by creating laws to govern society.

Human Law Enforcer's Attitudes and Emotions About:Who/What

God

Summary of Attitudes and Emotions

Generally, do not believe they will need to answer to a higher law maker nor are they concerned about whether the enforcement of human law is in harmony with the laws of the Highest law maker. They see their own power as gifted by human law makers, and at times believe themselves to be above such laws.

Who/What

Law

Summary of Attitudes and Emotions

Generally, see law as an arbitrary decision of the law maker, which changes from time to time. Feel enforcement must be tempered by practicalities. Do not believe in rewarding compliance with law, but strongly believe penalties and punishment are essential to maintain order. Believe that laws are a deterrence and use fear of penalty or punishment as a controlling tool.

Who/What

Human Law Makers

Summary of Attitudes and Emotions

Generally, believe they must enforce the law of the law makers, whether they personally agree with or support the law created, whether those laws are loving, fair, or in harmony with God's Laws or not. Feel that human law makers do not consider or understand the practicalities of enforcing the laws they create.

Who/What

Human Law Enforcers

Summary of Attitudes and Emotions

Generally, believe that they are the tool of enforcement of law. Believe law enforcement is a difficult job that requires constant compromise and commitment.

Who/What

All Humans

Summary of Attitudes and Emotions

Believe that humans are inherently imperfect, and that human nature is to break law. Humans need to be restricted or deterred from harming or damaging themselves or others. Humans are never going to be loving or self-aware, so law enforcers need to stop unsociable behaviour by enforcing laws to govern society.

Human Attitudes and Emotions About:

Who/What

God

Summary of Attitudes and Emotions

Do not believe they answer to a higher law maker whether they believe in God or not. If they believe in God, they believe God cannot be fully understood, is punishing, wrathful and makes arbitrary decisions with no permanence, consistency or justice. If agnostic or atheist, they generally do not consider God at all.

Who/What

Law

Summary of Attitudes and Emotions

Generally, do not believe in God's Laws, or if they do believe God has laws, do not understand or know those laws. See human law as an arbitrary decision of the law makers, only adhere to laws they personally agree with, see all law as negotiable, and are proud of their ability to avoid the consequence of law where possible.

Who/What

Human Law Maker

Summary of Attitudes and Emotions

Generally, see human law makers as lacking awareness, imperfect and able to fail, and generally disrespect law maker decisions.

Who/What

Human Law Enforcer

Summary of Attitudes and Emotions

Generally, fear human law enforcers when such enforcers are visibly present and in the vicinity but generally disrespect law enforcers.

Who/What

Themselves

Summary of Attitudes and Emotions

Generally, see their own power as supreme and do not believe they will need to answer to a higher law maker whether that be God or any human law maker. Generally, each human is self-involved and selfish, sees themselves as the arbiter of their own life, sees themselves as superior to other humans, and is governed primarily by their own emotions, feelings and thoughts, and believes that they personally should be shown mercy rather than having a law enforced on them.

Who/What

Other Humans

Summary of Attitudes and Emotions

Generally, believe humans are inherently imperfect and it is human nature to break law. Therefore, humans need to be restricted or deterred from harming or damaging themselves or others. Humans are never going to be loving or self-aware, so law makers need to stop unsociable behaviour by creating laws to govern society and law enforcers need to force everyone (other than me personally) to obey the law.

Conclusion - Law Related Attitudes & Emotions:

Human attitudes to and emotions about law, and in particular about God's Laws, come from each individuals own experience with human authority, which is inconsistent at best, and very destructive at worst.

Attitudes and emotions from the childhood experience are imposed upon any authority and severely affect the human desire to obey law. This creates a "human law hangover" that is imposed upon God's Laws, and which also the main creator of human unhappiness and pain.

Humans frequently justify & minimize desires, attitudes, emotions, thoughts and actions that oppose obedience to God's Law including:

Believing God is punishing or wrathful and makes arbitrary decisions with no permanence, consistency or justice

Believing God's Law is negotiable

Wanting laws to apply to others but not to self

Disrespect of authority, etc

The human law "hangover":

Analysis of general attitudes and emotions towards law helps us identify our "hangover". We will examine how these attitudes and emotions play out in the use of our desire and will to discover and be obedient to God's Laws in the presentation "Human Law Hangover".

Summary - God's Perspective:

God's Laws are essential to human existence and survival

God's Laws allow all living creatures to grow, thrive and develop

God's Laws allow humans to be redeemed and transformed and blissfully happy

God loves all humans personally and knows humans are the highest creation

God allows law makers and enforcers to make and enforce laws

God desires human laws to be in harmony with God's Laws

Human Perspective:

Human attitudes and emotions to law are damaged and distorted

Humans personally see laws as restrictive, arbitrary and negotiable

Humans are normally self-oriented having little concern for the welfare of others

Human law makers use laws as a deterrent for bad behaviour

Humans create laws mostly to maintain society cohesion

Human Law Hangover

(excerpts from the 2016 AG God's Loving Laws Outline)

Introduction

My personal pain

Since childhood I have been exposed only to parent and societal law

I have developed attitudes towards law (human and God's) that come from my childhood and adult experience

I have attitudes to God's Law which cause me much heartache and pain

I need to examine my attitude to God's Laws if I wish to become happy

Examining how attitudes affect my relationship with God's Laws & Principles

Human and parental law has created attitudes, emotions and beliefs within me about God's Laws and Principles that harm my perception and ability to engage my will to be obedient to God's Laws.

Law Comparison "Hangover"

God's Law

The law maker is also the law enforcer and fully enforces obedience to every Law

Human's Law

The law maker is usually not the law enforcer, and the law enforcer is not able to fully enforce obedience to any law created

My Erroneous "Hangover" Beliefs & Emotions

My obedience to God's Laws cannot or should not be enforced by anyone

When I sin against God's Law I will probably get away with the sin

God & God's Laws are unpredictable and inconsistent (just like my parents were)

God will be very tolerant of my choices and desires to sin (just like my parents were)

God will never enforce any law since that would be against my own definition of mercy

God's Law

The law maker and enforcer is infinitely and always aware, perfect and infallible

Human's Law

The law maker and/or law enforcer has little awareness, is imperfect and able to fail

My Erroneous "Hangover" Beliefs & Emotions

God made a flawed humanity without the ability to be perfectly obedient

Since I am "flawed" God and other humans should make allowances for my flaws

God cannot "see", "hear" and "know" everything since humans in authority cannot

I should be able to "hide" and be dishonest about my own disobedience and sin

Confession is just harming myself rather than a part of redeeming myself

God's Law

Laws are created by the law maker and enforcer only for the benefit of the created creatures

Human's Law

Laws usually created with a mixed and often unpredictable benefit, sometimes for the benefit of all creatures, sometimes only for the benefit of the human, sometimes only for the benefit of the law maker, and sometimes only for the benefit of the law enforcer

My Erroneous "Hangover" Beliefs & Emotions

God's Laws are a nuisance and should be ignored for the sake of personal advantage

God's Laws are just for the sake of God and do not benefit me personally

My only consideration should be what I judge as my personal welfare

Human welfare collectively is more important than the welfare of other creations

My anger and defiance towards God's Laws is valid and in my own interest

No law maker or enforcer including God has my own interest at heart

If I feel threatened, I should be allowed to break the law and allowances should be made

Being obedient means having to do what others want and "working" for others in authority

God's Law

Laws are created for the purpose of maintaining survivability, growth, and transformation of all matter and living creatures within the Universe

Human's Law

Laws primarily created for the purpose of being a deterrent

My Erroneous "Hangover" Beliefs & Emotions

God's Laws only impose restrictions on my life and make it harder to survive

God only created Law to restrain my "bad" nature that He created anyway

God's Laws do not reward me for obedience

God's Laws do not enable my free will

God's Laws are punitive and punishing, driven by an angry God who wants to harm me

God only wants to stop me from being happy

God's Laws limit my freedom and make it harder to survive in the "real" world

God's Laws are not practical

God's Law

Laws operate whether the creature is aware or not

Human's Law

Laws operate only if the law enforcer is aware and willing to enforce the law

My Erroneous "Hangover" Beliefs & Emotions

Being "ignorant" of the law is to my own advantage.

Allowances should be made for me if I do not know God's Laws

Allowances should be made for my "bad" (unloving) decisions and choices

I react angrily, resentfully, and indignantly when I am "corrected" for wrongdoing

I am able to cover over sin and get away with sin
 If I am not "caught" in the moment of sin punishment will never happen
 If God is "good" God would let me get away with sin
 I should not be punished for sins that I thought only affected me

God's Law

Laws operate on the "heart", soul, attitude, character, thoughts and emotions of the human, along with operating upon the action taken

Human's Law

Laws operate only on the action taken, and then only if the action is observed, processed and enforced, by the law enforcer

My Erroneous "Hangover" Beliefs & Emotions

God's Laws only apply to physical events
 God's Laws correct actions only (rather than thoughts, attitudes, character & emotions)
 I can lie or misrepresent to God what is in my heart
 If I have not been "caught" then I will never be punished
 If God "catches" my disobedience I will be able to negotiate the punishment with God
 If God "catches" my disobedience I only have to change my actions (not my heart)
 God is unjust to examine my heart

God's Law

Laws operate consistently under all circumstances with no exceptions

Human's Law

Laws operate differently in each country and are inconsistently applied according to wealth, social status or position, race, gender, nationality, and hundreds of other variable factors including withholding truth, misrepresenting truth, lying, and violence

My Erroneous "Hangover" Beliefs & Emotions

My version of superiority (race, gender, status etc) should count with God
 I am a "special case" that God should make allowances for

My unloving behaviour is justified by other's unloving behaviour

God should know that other people's unloving behaviour is worse than my own

Other people's motivations are worse than my own

Punishment should be able to be negotiated based on my status

God's Law

Each law has loving penalties if disobeyed, and loving rewards when obeyed, and the penalties and rewards are consistent and predictable

Human's Law

Each law generally only has penalties when disobeyed, and then only if the disobedience is observed, processed and enforced, by the law enforcer. Many penalties are unloving. Obedience is rarely rewarded. The results are usually unpredictable.

My Erroneous "Hangover" Beliefs & Emotions

There are no rewards for heart-felt obedience to God's Laws

I will only be penalised if I am "caught"

If it appears I have not been "caught" then I have avoided the penalty

God does not penalise at all because God should be "loving"

God cannot be relied upon to give just penalties and will not be compassionate

I will not be rewarded for being honest and truthful about my sins

God should let me get away with things that others should be punished for

God will punish me for things that others get away with

I only have to do it right and I should not have to "feel" it right

If I punish myself then I should be able to avoid punishment by the Law

I should not get punished when I am already punishing myself

God's Law

Each law deals with and addresses both the cause (relating to why the human used their will to disobey or obey the law) and the effect (the fact that the human did so use their will in a loving or unloving manner)

Human's Law

Law only deals with disobedience and then does not fully address the effect but rather only provides "punishment" to act as a deterrent to further disobedience. Does not address the cause of any action, and does not reward loving action.

My Erroneous "Hangover" Beliefs & Emotions

I should be able to just change my action rather than have to correct my attitude

I should be able to avoid recognition of the harm I have caused to others and the environment

God's Laws are "anally retentive" and "nit-picking"

God wants to punish me for no real reason e.g. I did not do it, I only felt it!

God's Laws will not punish me when I don't believe I should be punished

God's Laws will not force me to face the consequences of my disobedience

Being happy means being able to do what I want when I want

Conclusion

Human law hangover:

Humans are "drunk" on their own perception of law

Humans see God's Law similarly to how they see human law

Humans impose their perception of human laws on God's Laws

Humans create a huge amount of pain and suffering as a result of the human law "hangover"

Unless I personally stop treating God's Laws like human laws, I will continue to remain unhappy and in pain

Summary

Human law hangover:

There is an enormous difference between God's Laws and human laws

Each human law hangover prevents us from desiring to obey God's Laws

Sin is generated by the desire to avoid discovering and obeying God's Laws

Each sin creates more pain and suffering for humans individually and collectively

Compensation Principles

(excerpts from the 2016 AG God's Loving Laws Outline)

Terms:

Compensation principles are will-based and will be discussed in relation to self-aware beings with free will. The human soul (not the body or spirit body) is a self-aware being with the ability to express free will depending on development and as such is the highest creation.

Self-Responsibility is the law-based requirement of self-awareness, to seek truth, love and understanding of all principles of Love and law, and the loving ownership and expression of one's will, desire, passion, emotion, attitudes, intentions, thoughts and actions in harmony with God's Principles and laws.

Compensation is the reward provided to the soul and its environment for self-responsibility (the obedience to God's Principles), or the corrective penalty enforced upon the soul and its environment for the disobedience to God's Principles.

Summary – Compensation principles:

Educate the human soul about the concept of sin

Provide compensation (reward or correction) to the soul

Ensure self-responsibility is the measure for compensation

Force the highest creation to be responsible and accountable

Compensate consistently and predictably according to the soul's actual level of self-responsibility whether the external environment is affected or not

Definition - What the principles are:

The law shall provide compensation to the soul and its environment

The law shall ensure self-responsibility is the measure for compensation

The law shall ensure that the highest creation is made responsible and accountable for its own level of self-responsibility via compensation

The law shall have a consistent compensatory effect according to the soul's level of self-responsibility whether the external environment is affected or not by the soul's emotions, decisions, and actions

Objectives – Why the principles are applied to law:

To compensate the highest creation for its own level of self-responsibility

To educate the highest creation that love creates pleasure and sin creates pain

To educate the highest creation that the gift of free will brings responsibilities

To create the framework for evolution and devolution of the soul

To allow intelligent creations to solve problems associated with cause & effect

To generate within the highest creation a desire for truth and love

To build on the Responsibility principle to create the foundation for God's highest principles that apply to the human soul such as will, desire, redemption and transformation

Application – The creation and laws affected:

All laws governing the human soul

All laws governing the creations of the human soul

A secondary affect on all laws and all creation

Notes:

Sins committed by others that affect me attract pleasurable compensation and allowance towards me

Sins committed by me that affect others trigger a pleasurable compensation and allowance towards others

Sins committed by me attract a negative penalty towards myself

Sins committed by any person trigger a negative penalty toward those who committed the sin

Reveals – What the principles reveal about God:

God feels Love always rewards self-responsibility

God was not reckless in creating Her highest creation

God has taken responsibility for Her creation of the highest creation

God wants the highest creation to understand how to enjoy life

God loves all creation enough to restrict the highest creation

God loves rewarding those who act lovingly

God feels joy comes from self-responsibility

God feels everything is connected, and nothing operates in a vacuum

God feels love provides loving limitations and takes corrective action

God honours free will choices and decisions

God feels humans must take full responsibility for their own creations

God feels the heart-felt condition of the human is of extreme importance

God believes in and supports the redemption of the human towards goodness

God feels recovery from bad choices is possible since he made it possible

Examples – The principles' applications in law:

Gravity & aerodynamics

Compensation is provided, through the form of physical, emotional, and spiritual pleasure or pain, for obedience or disobedience to the laws of gravity or aerodynamics. The amount of compensation is applied consistently based upon the level of self-responsibility and the intention of the individual.

Law of Cause & Effect

Ensures individuals are compensated for the cause that exists within them based upon their level of self-responsibility so that the individual is educated about the relationship between causes and effects, and can take actions to remove causes that generate undesired or painful effects.

Law of Compensation

This law merges the principles of Will, Desire, Scope, Hierarchy, Responsibility and Compensation into a single complete law system that is then applied to the human soul itself, and in a secondary manner, to all of creation. Provides rewards and corrections.

Law of Repentance

Repentance is God's desired attitude from the human towards disobedience to all law. Repentance would not be possible as a concept if Compensation principles did not exist. i.e. Compensation provides the measure of whether something is "good" (in harmony with Love) or "bad" (out of harmony with Love). Without the measure, no repentance is possible. Disobedience without compensation would result in no correction of disobedience, and therefore repentance for disobedience would also not be possible.

Conclusion

Compensation principles:

Ensure that God's highest creation becomes aware of and is compensated (rewarded or corrected) for the manner in which it engages self-responsibility.

Compensation principles are also linked to scope, hierarchy, governance and responsibility, and form a foundation for God's highest principles that apply to the human soul such as will, desire, redemption and transformation.

Humans frequently justify & minimize desires, attitudes, emotions, thoughts and actions that oppose compensation principles including:

Feeling that disobedience will never be penalized or corrected and obedience will never be rewarded

Feeling they can sin with impunity, minimizing and justifying sin

Feeling that they only sin if they act (e.g. get your "sexual" appetite anywhere, release it at home)

Complaining about the negative compensation effects that the person has created through their own free will choices, etc

Introduction to Soul Specific Principles

(excerpts from the 2016 AG Understanding God's Loving Laws)

Soul Specific Principles session covers God's Principles that allow:

The human soul half's potential and the complete soul's potential of expression while connected to the spirit and physical bodies in the physical universe

The human soul's potential in:

The soul universe

Other universes which may come into existence due to the future transformation of the human soul

The potential discovery of higher parts of the human soul which either come into existence, or which have always been present, but which can only exist in higher universes

The potential of the human soul to create higher universes

Terms

Hierarchical universes can be constructed, each one governing and containing multiple universes of the lower hierarchical type.

Physical universes are the lowest human based hierarchical universes and are the physical and spiritual universes (complete with all spheres) able to be perceived through the senses of the physical and spiritual bodies.

Soul universe is the current highest human based hierarchical universe. It can only be perceived by the soul in a self-aware state and also contains unaware souls.

Will is the genuine personal expression of the gift of Free Will, is determined by the current soul based emotional condition, is developed by desire, is measured by its relative harmony with God's Principles, and drives the thoughts, beliefs, attitudes, actions, allowance of inspiration and response to memories of the individual.

Desire or aspiration is the genuine expression of current soul-based faith, can only occur in self-aware beings, is measured by its relative harmony with God's Principles, is expressed as an intended or aspired to soul based emotional state, motivates future will-based decisions, choices and actions, and differs from instinctual need.

Sin is the existence of will or desire in disharmony with God's Principles whether the will or desire is acted upon or not.

Human redemption is the process of paying the penalty for and removing sin from the human soul in order to recover the human soul back to its created pristine condition. It is a will based self reliant process that involves the enforced painful release of emotion. Forgiveness is accomplished through emotional "forgetfulness" of past sin and the correction of the desire to sin.

Divine redemption occurs only through a personal relationship with God, and is the process of wilfully desiring and engaging God's Help to remove sin from the soul. It recognizes that only God can remove all the effects of our sin, asks God to help removing the cause of sin, to receive God's Truth on all matters, and to eventually obtain immortality.

Transformation is the potentiality offered to the human soul with sincere and passionate desire to exceed its original created condition and potentials as a human, and to allow God's Personal Love to be absorbed by the soul in order to transform the soul into an immortal Divine creature with the potential of infinite expansion. Transformation principles are the most complex principles.

Groups or classes of God's Principles

Foundation principles

Love, Truth, Life, Development

Economy, Function, Permanence, Scope

Order principles

Hierarchy, Governance, Responsibility, Compensation

Soul specific principles

Will, Desire, Redemption, Transformation

Will

Human will is driven by the soul's current condition and determines what the soul will automatically do in the current moment unless desire is engaged to progress or regress.

Desire

Human desire is driven by what the soul currently has faith in and determines what the soul desires in and for its future. Desire can be positive and drive progression, or negative and drive regression.

Redemption

Redemption is a process by which the human itself can return either to its original created condition (human redemption), or to a new condition which prepares the soul for a relationship with God.

Transformation

Transformation is the potential offered to the human soul with sincere and passionate desire to exceed its original created condition and potentials as a human, and allows God's Personal Love to be absorbed by the soul in order to transform the soul into an immortal Divine creature with the potential of infinite expansion. Transformation principles are the most complex principles.

Human Will Principles

(excerpts from the 2016 AG God's Loving Laws Outline)

Terms:

Free Will is the God given gift of the ability to be a self-aware being able to make self-responsible and self-generated decisions and choices, and able to have desires which come from self-awareness rather than instinct

Will is the genuine personal expression of the gift of Free Will, is determined by the current soul based emotional condition, is developed by desire, is measured by its relative harmony with God's Principles, and drives the thoughts, beliefs, attitudes, actions, allowance of inspiration and response to memories of the individual.

Will is driven by the soul's current condition and determines what the soul will automatically do in the current moment unless desire is engaged to progress or regress.

Summary - Human Will principles:

Ensure all laws respond to the will of the human

Ensure all laws satisfy the will used in harmony with God's Love and correct the will used in disharmony with God's Love

Give power and joy to God's Highest Creation to create independently, to govern, to be responsible, compensated and redeemed

Definition - What the principles are:

The Law shall respond to will

The Law shall satisfy will used in harmony with God's Principles

The Law shall correct will used out of harmony with God's Principles

Objectives – Why the principles are applied to law:

To allow God's Highest Creation to create independently

To ensure God's Highest Creation governs and is self-responsible

To give role-responsibility to humans who are self-responsible

To enforce compensation to humans for the use of will

To ensure that all creation responds to human governance

To ensure God's Laws create attractions based upon will

Compensation, responsibility, governance, redemption and transformation principles are applied uniquely to humans because of the gift of free will

Application – The creation and laws affected:

All Laws governing the human soul

All Laws governing the creations of the human soul

A secondary effect on all laws and all creation

Reveals – What the principles reveal about God:

God respects and honours His gifts to humans

God generously desires humans to experience the joy of creation

God feels that real joy comes from being self-responsible

God feels love involves providing potentials for the expression of will

God wants us to be emotional beings with capacity for happiness

Examples – The principles' applications in law:

Gravity & Aerodynamics

Engaging the laws of aerodynamics is only possible for humans by using will to understand the laws. Compensation is applied for will-based engagement with both laws.

Law of Attraction

Our will (current soul-based condition) determines what we currently attract. All attractions either correct or reward our condition. Determining attractions with the mind is a pointless exercise.

Law of Cause and Effect

Human health is only possible by understanding the relationship between the unloving use of our will and disease or sickness occurring in the human body. Each specific disease or sickness results from a specific unloving emotion, either directed towards self, another person, or the environment.

Redemption of the human soul

Redemption principles operate automatically to change the will by causing the creation of pain when we sin and the release of pain when the pain becomes too intense to suppress within us.

Redemption principles can be engaged with desire by making a choice to emotionally engage forgiveness and repentance with faith in emotional release being of benefit, which rapidly speeds the process of redemption.

Redemption principles can be engaged with God, by sincerely desiring God's love and forgiveness (the desire is repentance), which has the added benefit of preparing the soul through prayer for the reception of God's Love and the establishment of a relationship with God.

Development of the human soul

Development of the human soul (to the perfect natural human) is possible without awareness due to the Laws of Compensation and principles of redemption operating upon the will. i.e. By causing the creation of pain when we sin and the release of pain when the pain becomes too intense to control. Eventually development results in the redemption of the human soul to the point of the perfect natural human, but no further development can be obtained without desire.

Conclusion

Human Will principles:

Human Will principles allow the human soul to be the creation at the top of the hierarchy system, to be responsible, to govern, and be compensated and redeemed. Human Desire principles allow the potential for change, growth, development and transformation of the human soul into a Divine being with immortality.

Will is driven by the soul's current condition and determines what the soul will automatically do in the current moment unless desire is engaged to progress or regress.

Humans frequently justify & minimize desires, attitudes, emotions, thoughts and actions that oppose human will principles including:

Attempting to use will-power to change

Refusing to admit to my current emotional condition

Refusing to admit my sin

Refusing self-awareness, pride, being driven by addiction, acting upon unloving desires (causing my will condition to degrade)

Denying responsibility for my will (denying I have choice)

Blaming others for the use of my will (my past pain, others in my life), etc

Human Desire Principles

(excerpts from the 2016 AG God's Loving Laws Outline)

Terms:

Human Desire or Aspiration is the genuine expression of current soul-based faith, can only occur in self-aware beings, is measured by its relative harmony with God's Principles, is expressed as an intended or aspired to soul based emotional state, motivates future will-based decisions, choices and actions, and differs from instinctual need.

Desire is driven by what the soul currently has faith in and determines what the soul desires in and for its future.

If will and desire are in harmony change is not possible

Summary – Human Desire principles:

Ensure all laws respond to the desire of the human

Ensure all laws satisfy the desire used in harmony with God's Love and correct the desire used in disharmony with God's Love

Allow the potential for change, growth, development and transformation of the human soul into a Divine being with immortality by engaging God's Principles of Redemption and Transformation

Definition - What the principles are:

The Law shall respond to desire

The Law shall satisfy desire used in harmony with God's Principles

The Law shall correct desire used out of harmony with God's Principles

Objectives – Why the principles are applied to law:

To allow God's Highest Creation to change and grow irrespective of its current soul condition or external environmental factors

To allow God's Highest Creation to experience the happiness of having desires in harmony with Love satisfied

To allow God's Highest Creation to experience the pain of having desires out of harmony with Love satisfied

To ensure that humans see the true effect of their desires upon creation

To ensure God's Laws create attractions based upon desire

To ensure new potentials exist for humans based upon desire

To ensure that "wish and desire is closely interwoven with the opportunity for gratification" Aphraar, Through the Mists

New potentialities of Compensation, Responsibility, Governance, Redemption and Transformation principles are enabled by human desire

Application – The creation and laws affected:

All Laws governing the human soul

All Laws governing the creations of the human soul

A secondary effect on all laws and all creation

Reveals – What the principles reveal about God:

God respects and honours His Gifts to humans

God generously desires humans to experience the joy of desire

God feels that real joy is experienced by having loving desires satisfied

God's Love provides potentials that result from the expression of desire

God wants humans to be desirous beings with new aspirations

God feels desire is an essential part of living

God feels love gives humans the potential to change

Examples – The principles' applications in law:

Gravity & aerodynamics

Engaging the laws of aerodynamics was only possible for humans by someone using their desire with faith to understand the laws. Desire is rewarded by knowledge being obtained.

Law of Attraction

Our desire (genuine expression of soul based faith) determines what we attract now to enable change. All attractions "satisfy" our current desire, even when those desires are unloving. Unloving desires can be measured by the pain they create.

Human hunger

True hunger compared to addictive eating. True hunger is an automatic animal instinct necessary for survival of the body connected to an undeveloped soul. Addictive hunger is a desire to satisfy the demands of our current emotional condition (our will).

Redemption of the human soul

Redemption principles operate automatically to change the will by causing the creation of pain when we sin and the release of pain when the pain becomes too intense to suppress within us.

Redemption principles can be engaged with desire by making a choice to emotionally engage forgiveness and repentance with faith in emotional release being of benefit, which rapidly speeds the process of redemption.

Redemption principles can be engaged with God, by sincerely desiring God's love and forgiveness (the desire is repentance), which has the added benefit of preparing the soul through prayer for the reception of God's Love and the establishment of a relationship with God.

Transformation of the human soul

Transformation of the human soul (into the Divine angel) is not possible without desire. Desire draws Transformation principles into play in Laws operating upon the human soul, and desire for God also engages God's Desire to transform the human through the transmission of God's Love into the human soul.

The subsequent result is not only an increasing relationship with God, but, due to the reception of God's Love, the transformation of the soul itself into a new creature with increased current capabilities and future potentials.

Conclusion

Human Desire principles:

Human Desire principles allow the potential for change, growth, development and transformation of the human soul into a Divine being with immortality. Human Will principles allow the human soul to be the creation at the top of the hierarchy system, to be responsible, to govern, and be compensated and redeemed.

Desire is driven by what the soul currently has faith in and determines what the soul desires in and for its future. If will and desire are in harmony change is not possible

Humans frequently justify & minimize desires, attitudes, emotions, thoughts and actions that oppose human desire principles including:

The concept that desire must be suppressed to attain spiritual enlightenment

Constantly needing to be inspired

Resisting the development of my own aspirations Resisting the development of faith

Remaining ignorant of my own potential

Refusing to recognize and respond to my own desires (either acting upon loving desires or removing the causes of unloving desires)

Telling myself I have 'desire' for something when my actions do not reflect this desire and my will does not change, etc

God's Authority

(excerpts from the 2016 AG God's Loving Laws Outline)

Introduction

Human law "hangover" & authority

The manner in which those in authority (parents, teachers, custodians, law-makers and law-enforcers) treat children creates a "hangover" that has a major influence upon how each human adult views authority, and in particular views God's Authority

Definitions

Subject

Authority

Information

The label given to the sum total of God's Principles of Scope, Hierarchy, Governance, Responsibility and Compensation working in unison through Laws that force assignment of authority to each soul that creates

Each soul is the highest authority over its creations as long as all constituent elements of its creation have been created by that soul

Subject

Love

Information

God's definition of Love includes each soul:

Governing and having power over its own creation

Being the highest point of hierarchy over its own creation

Having the final responsibility for its own creation

Being compensated for the results of its own creation

God's Authority

Subject

Scope of God's Authority

Information

God is the Great Oversoul and has immutable authority over all of God's Principles, Laws and Creation, and potential Laws and Creation formed through God's Governing Principles, whether that authority is recognized by creation or not

God has authority over human creations that contain elements that God created

e.g. children (God created their soul, and the laws governing the bodies)

e.g. elements of creation by humans that needed elements God created in order to exist or survive (i.e. most physical creations)

God does not have direct authority over human creations that do not contain elements that God created but God does have authority over the Principles and Laws that govern the effects of such creations

Human Authority

Subject

Scope of Human Authority

Information

God does not have direct authority over human creations that do not contain elements that God created but God does have authority over the Principles and Laws that govern the effects of such creations. Humans have direct authority over human creations that do not contain elements God created.

e.g. sin

e.g. a child's sin

e.g. disease in the body

e.g. my soul based spiritual condition (except any substance that exists within the soul that is from God received by choice)

e.g. my emotions out of harmony with God's Principles

e.g. my creations out of harmony with God's Principles such as creations that pollute, damage life, etc

God has no authority over the human use of will but does have authority over its effects upon the soul and the environment because he has governance over the laws that govern the soul itself

God expects humans to destroy their own creations that are out of harmony with God's Principles, and has created laws that assist the human in the destruction of such creations

Human Choices & Decisions

Item

Accepting God's Authority

Information

A person who emotionally accepts God's Authority automatically loves, respects and accepts God's Personality, Attributes and Character, God's Principles, God's Laws and God's Creations and is more open to desiring God's Love

Item

Rejecting God's Authority

Information

Is not possible as a real condition, but rather is an emotional imaginary condition created by humans

Is the choice to believe, feel and act as if God's Authority does not exist

Is a choice to reject God's Personality, Attributes and Character

Results in not being able to establish a relationship with God or receive God's Love

Will automatically create unhappiness, not only for myself but also for others

Is a part of my sin against the Holy Spirit

Since receiving God's Love is necessary to understand God's Principles and Laws, if I attempt to understand God's Principles without accepting God's Authority:

I am incapable of a soul based emotional understanding God's Principles, Laws, and Creations

I automatically do not love and respect God

I cannot absorb God's Truth

I cannot receive God's Love

Conclusion

Rejecting God's Authority:

Actual rejection of God's Authority is not possible as a real condition, but rather is the choice to act as if God's Authority does not exist. When I do this, I choose to reject God's Personality, Attributes and Character. This results in not being able to establish a relationship with God or receive God's Love.

Acting as if God's Authority does not exist therefore automatically creates unhappiness, for self and others, and is a part of my sin against the Holy Spirit.

Humans frequently justify & minimize desires, attitudes, emotions, thoughts and actions that oppose God's Authority including:

Attempting to gain direct authority over God's Creations while at the same time attempting to deny personal direct authority over our own creations and claim that the God has authority over them

Ignoring God's Principles and Laws Ignoring God

Telling myself that it is not practical to live in harmony with God's Principles and Laws

Creating sin

Creating systems that damage harmony in the environment Not releasing unloving emotions

Not releasing unloving beliefs

Believing and acting like I own other people (e.g. partners, children), etc

Summary – God's Authority:

God has immutable authority over all of God's Principles, Laws and Creation

God has some authority over human creations that contain elements that God created

God has no authority over human creations that do not contain elements that God created

God has no authority over the human use of will but does have authority over its effects upon the soul

God expects humans to destroy their own creations that are out of harmony with God's Principles and has created Laws that assist the humans to do this

Human Authority:

Humans have direct authority over what they create if those creations do not contain elements that God created

If human creations contain elements that God created, then humans do not have authority over those elements

God's Laws are working to destroy human creations out of harmony with Love

Human Redemption Principles

(excerpts from the 2016 AG God's Loving Laws Outline)

Terms:

Sin is the existence of will or desire in disharmony with God's Principles whether the will or desire is acted upon or not.

Human redemption is the process of paying the penalty for and removing sin from the human soul in order to recover the human soul back to its created pristine condition. It is a will based self-reliant process that involves the enforced painful experience and release of sin related emotion. Forgiveness is accomplished through emotional "forgetfulness" of past sin and correction of the desire to sin.

Divine redemption occurs by desiring a personal relationship with God. It is the process of desiring and engaging God's Help to remove the effects of sin and the desire to sin from the soul. It recognizes that only God can remove all the effects of sin (since sin affects other creations) and asks God to help remove the cause of sin within the soul.

Divine redemption is a God reliant process driven by desire that involves awakening to sin and becoming emotionally repentant towards God and all of God's Creations. Forgiveness is accomplished by God responding to the emotional repentant desire and God's Love enters the soul to remove the effects of sin existing in the soul, and the soul's desire to sin. During Divine redemption we receive God's Truth on all matters and the soul is prepared to eventually obtain immortality.

Summary – Human Redemption principles:

Enforce compensation upon human will and desire

Ensure human redemption of the soul's will to recover the human soul back to its created pristine condition

Encourage a desire for Divine redemption to speed the recovery of the human soul, begin to establish and grow a relationship with God, and precondition the soul allowing transformation into the Divine to begin

Definition - What the principles are:

The Law shall enforce compensation upon will and desire

The Law shall ensure human redemption

The Law shall encourage Divine redemption

Objectives – Why the principles are applied to law:

To allow the soul to recover from its own degradation

To repair the soul's personal relationship with all other creation and self

To allow the removal of pain and its causes from the soul

To ensure compensation for all sins committed by the soul

To encourage within the soul the development of a desire for a more pleasant personal life and a more pleasant effect on other creation

To educate the soul about the effects of sin, and to encourage repentance and forgiveness in relation to sins committed towards self, other humans, God's Creations, God's Laws, God's Principles and God Herself

To educate the soul about its own lack of ability and power to fully correct the results of sin without God's assistance

To encourage the soul to desire an ever-expanding infinite relationship with God

Application – The creation and laws affected:

All Laws governing the human soul

All Laws governing the potential of the human soul

A secondary effect on all laws and all creation

Reveals – What the principles reveal about God:

God desires humans to recover from their own degradation

God desires humans to understand the cause of their own unhappiness

God desires close relationships between individual humans and between humans and other creations

God desires a loving personal relationship with every human

God rewards forgiveness and repentance

God desires humans to realize that they need God

God desires humans to exercise desire rather than being motivated by fear or forced by law

God does not bear a grudge towards sinners and does not eternally punish them

God does not need a "sacrifice" in order to forgive sin but rather God prefers obedience

Examples – The principles' applications in law:

Gravity & Aerodynamics

Each physical law has built-in properties which examine the intention and motivation of the human. If the physical law is wilfully broken with intent to harm oneself or another soul, then there are very severe penalties imposed upon the soul with that intention and motivation, even if the intention was only felt rather than acted upon.

Law of Compensation

The Law of Compensation itself involves the application and inclusion of every principle discussed until this point. Human Redemption principles ensure that Compensation principles are not permanently applied to the human soul without some remedial feature; otherwise, the result would be the human soul never being able to recover from degradation.

Redemption of the perfect natural human

Redemption principles ensure that the human, no matter how he or she has used his or her will or desire, can recover from all the degradation and return to its original created perfection.

Development of relationship with God

Redemption principles ensure that the human can not only redeem self without God's assistance, to the point of its original created perfection, but can also begin to be educated about the necessity of a complete relationship with God and to engage God's mercy to allow self to begin transformation from its original created condition into another creature, the Divine angel. Redemption principles allow the human to see that it needs God in order to complete the process of full redemption, and therefore any further development must also require God.

Conclusion - Human Redemption principles:

The Human Redemption principles work upon my will to remove sin in order to recover myself back to the created pristine condition (human redemption). If I engage my desire, Human Redemption principles can also begin the process of entering a relationship with God and eventually obtain immortality (divine redemption).

Desire for Divine redemption will speed the emotional recovery of the human soul, begin to establish and grow a relationship with God, and precondition the soul to allow transformation into the Divine to begin.

Humans frequently justify & minimize desires, attitudes, emotions, thoughts and actions that oppose human redemption principles including:

Rejecting the concept of sin

Wilfully sinning

Rejecting God's definition of love

Retaining human definitions of love

Rejecting repentance

Immoral and unethical emotions and actions

Remaining ignorant

Attempting to reverse sickness and disease through physical means, etc

Human Transformation Principles

(excerpts from the 2016 AG God's Loving Laws Outline)

Terms:

Hierarchical universes can be constructed, each one governing and containing multiple universes of the lower hierarchical type.

Physical universes are the lowest human based hierarchical universes and are the physical and spiritual universes (complete with all spheres) able to be perceived through the senses of the physical and spiritual bodies.

Soul universe is the current highest human based hierarchical universe. It can only be perceived by the soul senses of a soul in a self-aware state and also contains unaware souls ready to incarnate.

Transformation is the potentiality offered to the human soul with sincere and passionate desire to exceed its original created condition and potentials as a human, and to allow God's Personal Love to be absorbed by the soul in order to transform the soul into an immortal Divine creature with the potential of infinite expansion (but not infinite as God is). Transformation principles are the most complex of all of God's Principles.

Summary – Human Transformation principles:

Allow desire driven transformation from the human soul into a Divine soul

Allow desire driven absorption of God's attributes by the human soul Allow the entire soul (both halves) to join in full self-awareness

Assign the gift of immortality to the human soul who transforms

Assign the potential of infinite expansion and expression to the human soul

Definition - What the principles are:

The law shall enable the transformation of the human into the Divine

The law shall offer the potential of immortality

The law shall offer other Divinely infinite potentials to the human soul

The law shall enable the soul to create ever increasing new universes to allow for the soul's infinite expansion and expression

Objectives – Why the principles are applied to law:

To create the external potential for every soul to understand God and receive communication and substances from God

To create the internal potential in every soul to understand God and receive communication and substances from God

To ensure the soul with desire can expand in its internal capabilities and awareness enough to grasp, understand, receive communication and substances from God

To allow the soul with desire to have indisputable proof of God's Personal Love and also, as a result of receiving God's Love, God's Existence & Character

To ensure the soul with desire can complete the necessary transformation required to become Divine

To allow substantive parts of God's Attributes and Character to be absorbed by the human soul

To ensure the human soul is able to become immortal

To ensure the human soul has infinite potential

To ensure the whole soul can become self-aware

Application – The creation and laws affected:

All laws governing the human soul's expression of desire

All laws governing the potential of the human soul

A secondary effect on all laws and all creation

Reveals – What the principles reveal about God:

God's Love is infinitely generous

God's Love does not force transformation upon unaware souls

God's Love responds to sincere desire and longing

God has a personal interest in each person and their happiness

God desires humans to understand what God feels like

God desires humans to become immortal (guarantees living forever)

God has principles and laws that govern the flow, reception and transmission of love from any source

God desires to share God's Attributes and Substances with all of her children

God desires open communication with all of Her children

Examples – The principles' applications in law:

Prayer

Prayer is not governed by laws that contain any universe. Since prayer begins in the soul and enters the soul of God (who is not contained within any universe but who contains all universes and potential universes infinitely), the laws that govern transformation of the human soul are beyond all universes. Transformation principles enable laws governing prayer to exist and to operate in and outside of the laws governing all universes.

Prayer is an emotion felt within the soul, but since the soul is connected to the two bodies, prayer feels like it is coming from the bodies.

If prayer was coming from the brain existing within the body, and was bound by the currently discovered laws of the physical universe and operating at the speed of light, and if God was only as near as the nearest star, it would take 8 years to transmit the prayer from the body to God, and another 8 years to receive a reply.

Reception of God's Love

God's Love exists outside of all universes. Transformation principles allow God's Love to be received by souls who perceive themselves to be within the physical universe, and allow those souls to gain awareness of the union condition and expand beyond the soul universe into ever increasing universes of larger size.

The unaware soul

The unaware unified soul does not and cannot exist within the physical universe. The unaware soul remains within the soul universe while connecting into 2 pairs of bodies (physical and spiritual) through the instinctual incarnation process in order to engage in the embryonic stage of learning about itself.

The physical and spiritual bodies are required by one half of the soul in order for the soul half to experience the physical and spiritual universe. This allows the soul half to be educated about love, inter-dependence, masculinity and femininity, and a huge number of other topics.

Soul union condition

Soul union is the condition of being completely self-aware as a unified soul. The physical and spiritual bodies cannot enter the soul universe, but the soul, due to Transformation principles not only exists in the soul universe, but potentially can expand into ever increasing hierarchical universes made from different substances and having a larger size but still contained within the infinite.

Conclusion

Human Transformation principles:

Human Transformation principles are the most highly complex principles governing God's Laws and God's Highest Creation, create laws that exist outside of all current universes, and also outside of any new potential universes that could exist.

Desire for and reception of God's Love is the human controlled mechanism by which transformation of the soul into a Divine creature occurs, and the transformed soul becomes completely self-aware, is assigned the gift of immortality and has the potential of infinite expansion and expression.

Humans frequently justify & minimize desires, attitudes, emotions, thoughts and actions that oppose human transformation principles including:

Rejecting God

Rejecting God's Love

Rejecting God's Truth

Rejecting God's Principles and laws

Rejecting faith

Rejecting the potential of a spiritual afterlife

Agnostic or atheistic beliefs

Religious beliefs in disharmony with God's Love and Truth Wilfully engaging unloving behaviour

Desiring ignorance

Retaining human definitions of love

Desiring to remain self-reliant

Believing 'I am God'

Arrogance, narcissism, and desire to hold onto current self-perception

Holding onto emotions that resist the reception of love (from any source), etc

Knowing & Loving God

(excerpts from the 2016 AG God's Loving Laws Outline)

Introduction

Wanting to know and love God

A person who wants to know and love someone automatically wants a relationship

Wanting to know and love God causes a strong desire to become at-one with God

The result of becoming at-one with God causes us to obey God's Principles and results in our automatically obeying God's Laws even if we are yet to discover them

Methods For Learning More

Method 1:

Discover each of God's Laws through experimentation

Discovery process

Have will and desire for self-learning only

Measure the pain resulting from the use of will and desire

Realize that a law must have been broken

Attempt to find out what the law is through experimentation

Discover God's Truth about the law

Obey each discovered law

Problems

Slowest method

Often the experimentation causes more pain

Process needs to be followed with every individual law

New laws are being created faster than we can learn about them

An almost infinite amount of laws exist

Understanding most laws at an intellectual level is impossible

Method 2:Learn about each of God's Laws from someone else*Learning law process

Learn God's Laws from someone else

Obey each learned law in every facet of one's life

Problems

Slow intermediate method

Requires a person who has already discovered each law

Process needs to be followed with every individual law

New laws are being created faster than we can learn about them

An almost infinite amount of laws exist

Understanding most laws at an intellectual level is impossible

Method 3:Learn about each of God's Principles from someone else Learning principles process

Learn God's Principles from someone else

Obey each Principle in every facet of one's life

Problems

Faster intermediate method

Requires a person who has already discovered each Principle

Process needs to be followed with every individual Principle Understanding

Principles at an intellectual level is impossible Understanding Principles requires God's Love to be received

Method 4: Receive Love from and learn about GodLearning principles process

Learn God's Personality, Characteristics, Attributes, Nature and Desires from God

Live a life of obedience to Principle and respect of God because you desire to

Problems

Fastest method

Understanding God requires God's Love to be received Understanding God at an intellectual level is impossible

Requires the development of desire and a growth of will

Understanding Sin

God's Principles and Laws expose sin

Sin would not exist without the existence of God's Principles and Laws

I cannot understand sin unless I understand God's Principles and Laws

If I do not understand sin, I cannot be aware of when I sin

I sin if I live in disharmony with any single one of God's Principles or Laws

Conclusion

Knowing & Loving God:

Having a relationship with God and receiving God's Love is the most rapid method of coming to understand, and also to benefit from understanding, God's Loving Principles and Laws

A person who loves God wants to accept God's Authority, and also will accept God's Principles and Laws

If I do not understand God's Loving Principles and Laws then I will not know when I am sinning, and therefore have no awareness of how to stop or remove the sin

Summary – Knowing & Loving God:

The fastest method to know and love God is to learn about God's Personality, Characteristics, Attributes, Nature and Desires from God

Once I know and love God, understanding God's Principles and God's Loving Laws becomes possible

Once I understand God's Loving Laws, I begin my awakening to sin

The Conscience

Introduction to the Human Conscience

(excerpts from the 2017 Themed Discussion of Forgiveness & Repentance)

Reminders about God's Truth:

- Remember that from God's perspective, Truth is; Absolute
- Always emotional, since Truth is always what opens our soul to Love, happiness and progression
- Discovered only by having a passionate desire
- Always fascinating and exciting
- Promotes further freedom
- Expands our capacity to understand, and therefore to Love

Given that God's Truth is so important to our happiness, it would make sense that God provided a mechanism for the human soul to receive His Truth that is independent of the soul's desire or understanding of Love.

Some of God's Truths can only be understood by first receiving God's Love, and, in fact, any Truth beyond the 6th Sphere of the spirit world can only be understood by receiving the transformation to the soul that God's Love provides, since these higher Truths cannot be understood with the mind of the spirit body, or the brain of the material body.

The mechanism for receiving God's Truth is called the conscience.

Reminders about God's Love:

Receiving God's Love is NOT a way of receiving God's Truth.

God's Truth must be received FIRST, in order for the soul to prepare itself for receiving God's Love. As such, it is the Truth, or more specifically, God's Truth, that sets us free.

Once God's Love has been received, It begins the process of transforming the human soul into a new creature that is ABLE to receive God's deepest Truths. This means that the soul now has the POTENTIAL of receiving and understanding deeper truths, but the soul must still seek these truths or desire truth, before truth can be received. Truth must be desired before it is received (just like love must be desired before it can be received).

When Love is received, it also has the effect of confronting deeply held emotional false beliefs within the soul. If the individual is humble, and chooses to release emotionally these deeply held false beliefs, now the soul itself is capable of receiving more truth. Again, it is not the Love that forces the change or delivers Truth, but rather, it is the individual's heartfelt response to that Love that triggers more humility, and therefore more ability to receive Truth.

Reminders about God's Laws and the design of the human soul

Before any discussion about the conscience is possible, we must first present some reminders about God's Laws and the design of the human soul.

Remember:

- God created Laws which govern everything in the universe
- Every Law of God measures energy and its flow
- The human soul's thoughts, desires, beliefs, emotions, actions are all energy and therefore able to be quantified by each Law
- God's Laws, and the design of the human soul allow God to be able to transmit energy to humans, and receive energy from humans
- Truth and Love are the highest form of energy from God's Perspective, and therefore, Truth and Love can flow to and from the human

God created mechanisms for humans to receive the highest forms of energy from God, and therefore different mechanisms were provided to the human soul to receive Truth and Love.

The mechanism for receiving God's Truth has been labelled by humans as the conscience.

What is the human conscience?

Remember that God desires that we know the truth about everything in the universe and that we develop the capacity to understand it. God desires this because of the importance of Truth for our future life and happiness.

God also knows that this Truth, when discovered, will open the heart up to the reception of God's Love, and therefore open the heart up to a relationship with God.

Some of God's Truths can only be understood by first receiving God's Love, and, in fact, any Truth beyond the 6th Sphere of the spirit world can only be understood by receiving The way that we develop the capacity to understand it is by receiving God's Love.

What the human conscience is:

- A mechanism built into every soul at creation
- The way of receiving direct communication of Truth from God (the only other way is to be tuned into God's Love)
- Operationally independent of our love-based condition
- A gift from God designed to help us to know God's Truth about matters before we establish direct love-based communication with God
- Operating for children and adults alike
- Likened to truth antennae tuned into the frequency of God's communication of truth regarding any information
- Operating under normal circumstances unless the human detunes emotionally from it or refuses to ask questions of God and refuses to question their personal conduct (especially in relation to ethics)
- Dependent upon the current knowledge and reasoning ability of the individual to ask questions that God answers. For this reason, desired ignorance is an enemy of the conscience.
- Like a door to the soul that God's Truth is continually knocking on to provide information to the soul about its choices and decisions
- One way that God is attempting to educate his children directly (there are many indirect methods of education that God has provided, but only a few direct methods)

Important notes about the human conscience

Please take care about referring to the conscience as "my conscience". The reality is that while God designed our soul with a mechanism that is in tune to God's Truth, unless God desired to share this Truth, and God's Laws allowed for the measurement and sharing of Truth, the conscience would not operate.

"My conscience" is in reality a mechanism that requires external prodding to operate, so in some ways it could be called "God's conscience or God's mind in me."

There are three primary receptors in the soul, two relate to God and one to our soulmate God can only answer the questions we have the cognitive ability to ask

The conscience includes God and human participation

Conscience is a receptor built into each human soul that allows for the transmission of Truth directly from God.

God ALWAYS shares Truth with every human at all times via the conscience mechanism or receptor whether that human listens or acts upon that Truth or not.

The human can use their desire to either detune or completely deny the conscience or conversely use their desire to improve the sensitivity of the conscience.

In this way it could be said that the conscience is a mixture of the way God designed the human soul (God built the conscience into the human soul), God's Laws (allowing the measuring of and the communication of energy forms), God's Truth (an attribute of God which is absolute in knowledge), and God's Love (the loving desire of God to share the happy Truth with all of God's children).

What the human conscience is NOT

- The same as receiving God's Love.
- i.e. God's Love is not available to us unless we have a sincere longing or desire for it. God's Truth is available to us whether we ask for it or not (and whether or not we are open to love). We have to detune from the conscience mechanism in order to deny God's Truth.
- To be confused with receiving direct information (sometimes truthful and sometimes not) from spirits who are claiming to be God
- To be confused with our own emotional responses to Truth, such as guilt, shame, anger, etc
- To be confused with our own emotional responses to religious, political, societal or parental beliefs and actions, which are human creations. e.g. sex before marriage, homosexuality, disobedience to parental law, etc
- To be confused with emotionally "feeling bad" or "feeling good" about thoughts, beliefs, desires, words or actions (which are our own emotional responses based upon internal soul based emotional mechanisms triggered by soul-based conditions, many of which are based upon our absorption of emotional error during childhood)
- To be confused with having poor self-esteem or poor self-worth

Basic introduction of the science surrounding the operation of the human conscience

- Referring to our reminders about God's Truth, God's Laws, and the design of the human soul, the following is a very basic introduction to the science surrounding the conscience is:
- God created Laws which measures energy and its flow, and the human soul's thoughts, desires, beliefs, emotions, actions are all energy and therefore able to be quantified by each Law

- God created the human soul with a strong passionate desire for truth surrounding oneself, the environment, and the universe (which can be easily seen in most younger children)
- God created the soul with truth antennae that is tuned into God's feelings and emotions about God's Truth about everything
- Although conscience is a part of the human soul design, and therefore with us since the moment of creation, we must grow in self-awareness in order to use it
- i.e. A child is completely in tune with its conscience, but does not have the development to ask the same complex questions as an adult completely in tune with the conscience can. Children must be taught about the conscience in order to use it properly.
- When humans have a thought, word, action, intention or desire of any kind (which we call our behaviour) our conscience automatically receives God's truth about our behaviour
- The conscience is a soul-based emotional form of communication (not intellectual although it does cause thoughts as a result of the emotion), operates upon our emotions and is sensed emotionally
- The conscience is NOT our emotional response to God's Truth, since our own emotional response depends upon many factors, including our emotional injuries

How the conscience provides feedback from God

When humans have a thought, word, action, intention or desire of any kind (which we call "our behaviour"), the conscience measures, and provides God's feedback to what it measures, in the following manner:

- If our behaviour is in harmony with Love, the Truth received from God through the conscience mechanism will cause us to feel that we have done right, and this emotion promotes happiness and certainty about the decision
- If our behaviour is out of harmony with Love, the Truth received from God through the conscience mechanism will cause us to feel that we have done wrong, promotes doubt about the decision, and therefore helps create a desire to correct the wrong
- If we feel nagging feelings (such as anger, resentment, guilt, shame or regret) when we ignore issues of love and truth and happy feelings when we uphold love and truth, then our emotions are becoming more in tune with the conscience mechanism

- Children have a natural inquisitive desire for truth, if this desire is upheld by correct parenting, then the child will remain connected with their conscience, and the desire to ask deeper and more detailed questions will develop
- The conscience provides us with the opportunity to have God's voice in our soul

God's Truth has very little to do with "right and wrong", but instead is God sharing "what is fact", what is absolute, what will create further increased happiness for the human, or what will result in pain and suffering for the human.

It is not our own sensitivity to Truth, but rather God's emotional sensitivity to Truth that the conscience receives. It is God's emotion about what is Universal Truth or Fact.

It is not the same as receiving God's Love. But God's Love is necessary to receive before we can understand the higher Truths of the universe.

Conscience is not based upon our desire (although our desires can shut down the conscience). Rather it is an inbuilt mechanism of the soul that allows God to communicate His Truth to me.

God defines relationship as the transmission of love based upon desire. Since there is a transmission of information from God's Soul to ours, conscience has the potential to create a relationship. The conscience is a part of God's relationship with us, but only a part of our relationship with God if we so choose to respond to it.

Is the conscience like source code built into my soul that means God has programmed me to be good? God has not programmed us to be good. This is obvious from the general actions and activities of the average person.

The ultimate purpose of the conscience is to lead us to God's Love. Example: In the first century Jesus realised that the fastest way to receive answers was to ask God

Personal fundamental desires, to be developed:

- Desire to be Loving (not wanting or "needing" love for self, but rather desiring to love others from our heart)
- Desire for God's Truth (not just adhering to our own concepts and beliefs)
- Desire to be humble (to emotion, and to new ideas, concepts and beliefs)
- Desire for faith
- Desire for God's morality
- Desire for personal ethics

Since the conscience shares with us God's Truth about Love, obviously the more harmonious my beliefs, concepts, and emotions are with God's Love, the easier I will find listening to God via the conscience mechanism.

Notice this is not the desire to be loved by others (which is often a demand that my large number of addictions surrounding what I believe about love - my erroneous version of love - be satisfied by others).

Rather it is a desire to love, from the heart, everyone, and everything in my environment, including having a loving relationship with God.

Since the conscience shares with me God's Truth, obviously the more I have a sincere desire for God's Truth, the easier I will find listening to God via the conscience mechanism.

The conscience is designed and already activated to receive God's Truth

Humility involves removing the connection between what I believe about myself and my opinions, from my sense of self-worth, as well as feeling and experiencing all of my emotions whether they are painful or pleasurable.

The conscience is a soul-based function. Due to the nature of the soul, all soul-based functions involve emotion

When I am humble, I:

- Desire to feel, experience, and release all of my emotional responses to God's Truth (some of which shall be happy, and others resistive)
- No longer desire to fight against God's Truth
- Desire to remove from myself all of the emotional responses inside me that indicate I am fighting against God's Truth
- Desire to no longer maintain my own belief systems, and self-belief, when God's Truth is indicating to me that such belief systems are false
- Am no longer addicted to maintaining my belief systems, and my beliefs about myself, in order to maintain my own concept of my worth in family and society
- Desire to see the truth about, and sincerely correct, the reasons why my behaviour is unloving (even if this means feeling some painful emotions, or means that people in my environment no longer understand me)
- Use logical intellectual reasoning to support what God is telling me via my conscience, rather than using false intellectual reasoning to discount the Truth
- Automatically am more open to God's Truth, making it much easier for God to share the Truth with me via the conscience mechanism

Example: Wars are caused by people fighting for their false belief systems

When we lack humility, we accept our damaged emotional beliefs as truth

Example: Holding onto childhood hurt creates false belief systems about receiving and giving love

Faith involves having a desire to believe in God, God's Laws, God's Truth and God's Goodness, rather than attempting to believe what those in my environment accept about such subjects.

I need to have faith (the basis for desire), that God designed a flawless system, that God wants me to understand, and God wants me to be happy.

When I have faith, I:

- Believe that all God's Truth I receive via the conscience mechanism and then act upon, will benefit myself, all others, and my environment
- No longer accept humanities version of God as truthful, which allows me to trust God more
- Believe that good things are possible, and that pain and suffering is the result of sin, rather than some flaw in God's Creation
- Automatically am more open to God's Truth being a good thing for me to accept, making it much easier for God to share the Truth with me via the conscience mechanism

True morality is God's definition of morality, or, put more plainly, God's definition of what is right and wrong when it comes to the treatment of self, the treatment of others, and the treatment of the environment.

God's morality is generous and always gives more than what is asked and more than what ethics would expect.

A desire for an understanding of God's Morality must be developed by the individual.

When I desire God's Morality, I:

- Believe that all God's Truth about what is moral, when acted upon, will benefit myself, all others, and my environment
- See that meeting my own addictions, and the addictions of others, is not moral in God's opinion, even though it may be ethical from my opinion
- No longer remain attached to worldly immoral thinking and emotions
- No longer remain addicted to the satisfaction of my own immoral desires

- Believe that happiness is only possible if I accept and live by God's viewpoint of what is moral
- Automatically am more open to God's Truth about morality generating more happiness for me personally, and in my relationships, making it much easier for God to share the Truth with me via the conscience mechanism

True ethics is to treat all people equally, emotionally believing and practicing a spirit of doing to others what I would like them to do to me.

While human ethics does not match God's generosity, or God's Morals, human ethics is the basis for the equal and just treatment of all persons.

A desire for ethics must be developed by the individual.

When I desire ethics, I:

- Am open to seeing when and how I treat others worse than I would like them to treat me
- Am open to seeing the truth about how I treat others, rather than justifying my poor treatment of others
- Am no longer attached to my demands that others treat me better than they treat themselves
- Am open to God showing me how my behaviour is unethical, without being defensive or resistant to such knowledge
- Automatically am more open to God's Truth about ethics, and the necessity for me to treat each person equally will make it much easier for God to share the Truth with me via the conscience mechanism

External influences affect and control the development of a desire to listen to and act upon truth received by the conscience.

Guilt is not the conscience but rather a personal emotion

Since most people are very disconnected from God's Truth about all matters, this would indicate that most people are not sensitive or in tune with the conscience.

How to improve our own connection and sensitivity to the conscience:

1. Develop the fundamental desires that open me to conscience
2. Remove external influences that detune me from conscience
3. Listen to and act upon the conscience

How can I work on the problems with my fundamental desires?

Daily effort is going to be required, particularly initially, in order to work on the fundamental desires that enable me to tune into the conscience. Effort will be required to:

- Develop a sincere desire to Love (to love others as God Loves)
- Develop a sincere desire to know God's Truth
- Develop a sincere desire to give up my own concepts and opinions in favour of God's concepts and opinions
- Detach my worth from my opinions and emotions
- Develop a sincere desire to feel all of my own emotions
- Develop a sincere faith in God, God's Laws and Principles, and God's Goodness, and trust that God can communicate to me Truth
- Develop a sincere desire to accept God's version of morality
- Develop a sincere desire to live in harmony with ethics and equality

How can I reduce the effect of external influences upon my fundamental desires?

- Develop a sincere desire to educate myself about the conscience mechanism, how it operates, the potential beneficial effects of acting upon conscience, and the current damaging effects of my purposeful desire to ignore it
- Develop a sincere desire to emotionally remove from myself all of the emotional impediments that cause me to detune from my own desires, and especially from my desires to live my life God's Way
- Remove from myself my need to please and be approved by my family and society
- Remove from myself my compulsion to satisfy my personal spiritual, emotional, sexual, and physical addictions that help me to ignore my conscience
- Be humble to experiencing all of the emotional pain within me that prevents me from having a desire to live my life God's Way

Remember in the context of our discussion we are referring to behaviour as any thought, belief, emotion, word or action. Remember also, that receiving information through the conscience requires soul connection, and a desire for God's Truth (which many of us do not have on most subjects).

It is clear that God, through the conscience, is able to tell us what behaviour out of harmony with love that will cause pain and suffering, and also, is able to tell us what behaviour in harmony with Love that will cause us pleasure and joy. Obviously, most of us do not desire to listen to, or if we did desire to listen, we do not desire to act upon, the information.

To become more in tune with the conscience, how can I listen to and act upon information I receive through the conscience?

Firstly, it needs to be stated that, in the world we live in, listening to the conscience is much easier than acting upon the information received by it.

In order to listen we need:

- Humility
- Desire for truth

In order to act we need (in addition to the above):

Desire for Love	Resilience
Faith	Persistence
Morality	Patience and goodness
Ethics	& many other personal qualities
Courage

Obviously, we will only benefit from the conscience if we act on the truth received, and so, this will help us develop many beautiful personal qualities that will become a part of our character.

How does the conscience play a role in forgiveness?

The conscience helps us to know what we need to forgive by:

- Telling us God's Truth and God's Moral Position about others' behaviour (what God views as loving and unloving behaviour)
- Telling us God's Truth and God's Moral Position about the consequence of others behaviour for themselves and for us

Once we are correctly informed about God's Truth, and God's Moral Position, about how others have treated us, this allows us to begin the process of grieving and releasing the emotions we have inside us that are really the result of others behaviour.

Once we release these emotions, we can forgive the persons who caused our pain and suffering.

How does the conscience play a role in repentance?

The conscience helps us to know what it is that we need to repent by

- Telling us God's Truth and God's Moral Position about our behaviour (what God views as loving and unloving behaviour)
- Telling us God's Truth and God's Moral Position about the consequence of our behaviour for ourselves and for others

Stage one of repentance is being correctly informed about God's Truth, and God's Moral Position, about how we have sinned against God, ourselves and others, which allows us to begin the process of grieving and releasing the emotions we have inside that are the result of the painful corrective compensation we incurred by engaging such behaviour.

Stage two of repentance is after we release the painful corrective compensation emotions from stage 1, we can then see the reason why we engaged in such behaviour. Then we are correctly informed about God's Truth, and God's Moral Position, and about how others have treated us in our childhood. This allows us to begin the process of grieving and releasing the emotions we have inside us that are the result of others behaviour (forgiveness).

Once we have completed both sets of emotions, we have repented for our "sins" or our unloving behaviour that causes pain and suffering for ourselves and others.

God's wonderful gift of the conscience

Gifts given by God involve our choices

The conscience operates for everyone equally

The conscience never forces us into action

The conscience creates the opportunity to voluntarily act

While we can all hear God's Truth via the conscience, the question is whether we will take action on the truth we receive

Connection to the conscience depends on our sincerity

The conscience helps us find out what we have done right and wrong from God's perspective

The conscience and God's Gift of Free Will act in harmony with each other God's Laws reward desiring and taking voluntary loving actions

A recurring theme in the discussions about forgiveness and repentance is choice and how God enables choice

Primary factors to consider

- Conscience is God's voice inside your soul telling you God's Truth
- Compensation is pain you caused yourself by choosing to ignore or live in disharmony with Love, and therefore, choosing to ignore or live in disharmony with God's Truth which comes via the conscience

Other factors to consider

- Any emotional response to the conscience is our own
- Conscience does not create pain in the soul although it may trigger a painful emotional response
- The Laws of Compensation operate to create correction in the soul in order to release the pain caused by sin and get into a better condition
- Compensatory corrective pain is created when we ignore the conscience

Type of pain includes:

- Physical i.e. Response to our decisions to attempt to exceed the design specification of our physical or spiritual body and break loving physical laws designed to keep these bodies healthy and flow on compensatory effects of suppression of emotional and spiritual pain
- Emotional i.e. Response to our decision to break moral or ethical laws designed to keep us in alignment or balance in the universe in which we live, and to keep us happy
- Spiritual i.e. Response to our decision to neglect a relationship with God and break God's Laws about Love and Truth designed to keep us in a state of bliss

My own pain is NOT always caused by my own unloving behaviour. However, everyone's pain, including mine is ALWAYS caused by somebody's unloving behaviour - therefore because of someone not listening to the conscience.

Pain that is caused by other's unloving behaviour is always easier to release than compensatory pain that is caused by our desire to be unloving, and to be selfish and harm others.

Truth about the conscience mechanism:

- The conscience is a messenger of truth
- It does not direct me to do things
- It does not belong to me only, since God sends Truth via the mechanism

- It is impossible for "my conscience" to bother me or cause me to choose a certain action

However, if we are at all sensitive to our conscience and we act in disharmony with the truth it is indicating, then we will feel emotionally "bothered".

Painful emotional responses to conscience are created by my desire to hold onto an injury which is being confronted by God's Truth, my desire to resist truth or love, my desire to keep sinning, and my desire to deny sin. I must have some aspiration for ethics or morality and allow emotional experience (humility) in order to stop the feeling of my conscience "bothering me".

Can my conscience be damaged?

The conscience mechanism itself built into every soul can never really be damaged

We can use our will to detune from God's Truth being received via the conscience which does result in our inability to receive and act upon the information

We can submit to the will of others who want to detune us from listening to God's Truth and also want us to take on their opinions, beliefs, actions and justifications

Is the conscience the reason why I feel bad emotionally?

The conscience does not make us feel, it is just a source of information. There are many reasons why we feel bad emotionally, including:

- I feel afraid of what others think about me or my actions
- I feel shame about my actions because others (spirits or people on earth) believe that I or my actions are bad
- I feel compensatory painful emotions as a result of my choice to sin
- I feel shame in response to the conscience signally to me that my actions are sinful from God's Perspective
- I become fearful about the emotions that will be triggered when I act in harmony with what the conscience tells me is loving and correct
- Other injured states within my soul that cause me to suppress fear, shame, grief or anger

If we were to connect to God, we would be emotionally challenged every minute of the day

Most people do not want to be emotionally challenged every minute of the day, so they do not listen to the conscience

Is fear, shame or guilt caused by the conscience?

The conscience only informs us of God's Truth, or the about how God feels, about all subjects where knowledge is available. When we are at-one with God, we never feel guilt, shame or fear about what the conscience tells us.

Fear, shame, and guilt are personal emotions, which all need to be experienced in order to be released.

Fear, shame, and guilt obviously come from internal emotional belief systems that are out of harmony with love of self. They are initially caused by parental and societal attack and the attempt by parents or society to destroy the worth of the child in order to get the child to conform. However, much of our guilt, shame, and fear come from our own unloving choices and the compensation we incur due to those choices.

True guilt is caused by knowledge that we have sinned (caused by compensation and the operation of our conscience), and when we are humble, sadness about our choices and their results is true guilt's linked emotion.

True guilt is the knowledge that we have sinned

Summary of many reasons for an angry or fearful resistive emotional reaction to the truth about the existence of our conscience

- Not wanting to be told what to do
- Wanting to sin and not be told that we are sinning, not wanting to be told when something is right or wrong
- Anger or frustration about detuning from conscience
- Avoiding feelings of guilt about past behaviour
- Avoiding feelings of guilt about current intentions and desires, and our intended future behaviour
- Education immediately creates more sensitivity to conscience and knowledge about how we were detuned from it in childhood - this may trigger painful emotions which we do not wish to feel because of a lack of humility
- Fear of honouring conscience rather than the demands of others around us since others may attack us for following it
- Not having faith that God's Truth is Absolute, or beneficial for day-to-day life
- Fearing spirits and their messages
- Etc

When we first hear about the conscience, we will often feel angry or afraid
 If we do not have emotional reactions when we hear about the conscience we may be deluded about emotional truth and how it affects our life

How can I reconnect with the conscience?

If I am not connected to my conscience due to a lack of education and emotional injuries surrounding my desire to please my parents and subsequently society, I must make attempts to reverse or change each of these factors.

Summary of how to reconnect with my own conscience

- Develop all of the desires mentioned in session 10 of God's Laws of Forgiveness and Repentance about the conscience
- Remove the emotions and feelings mentioned in session 10 of God's Laws of Forgiveness and Repentance about the conscience via an emotional experience
- Educate yourself about the conscience (sessions 9-13 of God's Laws of Forgiveness and Repentance about the conscience)
- Attempt to listen to, and act upon the conscience on a daily basis
- The conscience can tell us clearly what we need to repent for and what we need to forgive

Forgiveness & Repentance

Forgiveness & Repentance Concepts

(excerpts from the 2017 Themed Discussion of Forgiveness & Repentance)

Introduction

'Emotional processing' of the wrong emotions

One of the biggest problems we have is self-deception with emotions

Attempting to 'experience' an emotion that is preferable, rather than the actual emotion

Self-deception emotions will not result in progression since these emotions are not the Absolute Truth about our lives

Self-deception emotions are dangerous, in that they can cause further soul damage

Truthful 'emotional processing' revolves around two types of relationships:

1. The relationships where others or we ourselves have treated us unlovingly from God's viewpoint, and which resulted in causal soul-based injuries within ourselves, which we must learn to forgive
2. The relationships where we have treated others, or ourselves at the insistence of others, unlovingly from God's viewpoint, and which resulted in causal soul-based injuries in others and ourselves, for which we must learn to repent for

Revision Of Basic Principles

Revision of our 'Three Selves'

The real self - that God created in Love

The hurt self - that the environment, and our own choices created out of harmony with Love

The façade self - that the environment, and our own choices created out of harmony with Love to avoid both of the above

Revision of emotion

All progression is progression in feelings of love

For true progression in love (Natural Love or God's Love) to occur unloving emotions must be released

The soul cannot have a loving emotion, and an unloving emotion exist within it on the same subject at the same time

Releasing unloving emotions that are 'causal' will automatically allow our progression

Experiencing and acting upon other non-causal emotions will be circular, and will not allow progression, and often can harm the condition of our soul further

Progression toward God

Progression towards God involves:

Having a pure, sincere, desire and longing for God's Love

Having a pure, sincere, desire and longing for God's Truth

Having a pure, sincere, desire and longing to be humble

We must come to see ourselves as God sees us, and see the Truth as God sees it

We must do this in our personal life in four areas:

Desiring to know the Absolute Truth regarding the universe

Desiring to know the Absolute Truth about ourselves

Desiring to Love God

Desiring to Love everything God has created, including ourselves

Suffering Has Two Primary Causes:

The refusal to repent:

This occurs when we have been unloving towards others or ourselves, which created pain, which we then denied or suppressed, and the Law of Compensation is operating upon our soul to correct our own unloving actions because we refuse to repent.

The refusal to forgive:

This occurs when others have been unloving towards ourselves, or we have been unloving towards ourselves at the request or insistence of others, which created pain, which we then denied or suppressed, and the Law of Compensation is operating upon our soul to correct our response to others' unloving actions because we refuse to forgive.

Forgiveness Relationships

Definition of 'forgiveness' relationships

A relationship with another person who caused our pain from God's perspective by being unloving to us during our childhood or any time during our life

A relationship with another person who suppressed our pain from God's perspective by being unloving to us during our childhood or any time during our life

A relationship with one's self where we purposefully or unknowingly chose to punish ourselves at the emotional request of others because of the pain or perceived pain others claim we caused them

ALL of these kinds of relationships usually begin at conception and continue throughout our life. Most of these relationships are well established during our childhood.

Addiction relationships

Addiction relationships are created automatically when we:

Refuse to forgive the persons who actually created our pain

Refuse to forgive the persons who suppressed our pain

Refuse to forgive ourselves for the punishment we inflicted on ourselves

Refuse to feel our own pain from these relationships

When we refuse to forgive, we automatically create addiction relationships in order to:

Avoid our personal pain

Avoid our personal suppression of pain

Avoid healing our tendency to punish ourselves for the harm we have inflicted on others

Substitute pleasure for pain

Repentance Relationships

Definition of 'repentance' relationships

A relationship with another person who we caused pain to by involving them in our addictions in order to avoid our own pain

A relationship with another person who we suppressed by forcing them, coercing them, or manipulating them in any way into meeting our addictions to avoid our own pain

A relationship with one self where we purposefully or unknowingly engaged in harm to ourselves in order to avoid the personal pain resulting from our own unloving choices

These kinds of relationships begin as we develop the use of our own will to sin (take unloving actions)

These kinds of relationships usually begin after the developmental phase of our childhood (7 yrs) & extend into adulthood

Addiction relationships

Addiction relationships are created automatically when we:

Refuse to repent towards the persons who we created pain for Refuse to repent towards the persons we suppressed

Blame others for our own pain

When we refuse to repent, we create addiction relationships in order to:

Avoid our personal pain

Avoid our personal suppression of pain

Avoid healing our tendency to punish ourselves for the harm we have inflicted on others

Substitute pleasure for pain

Repentance Is Linked To Forgiveness

Hurt was created by others

We were taught to suppress or deny the hurt created by others

This caused us to refuse to forgive (experience the hurt emotionally) any hurt created by others

Since we still hurt, we created façade & addictions to numb and deny the hurt, and to fill the hole within us that the hurt created

In our choice to avoid hurt by creating addictions & façade we used our addiction and façade to hurt others

We denied, minimized, justified or otherwise blamed others in order to ignore the fact that we were hurting others

We denied minimized, justified or otherwise blamed others for the reasons why we chose to hurt others

Since we have hurt others through our own choice, we have done things for which we need to repent for, which will be an even more emotionally painful process than forgiving, AS WELL AS still needing to emotionally forgive the original hurt by feeling the original hurt

How Do I Forgive?

First emotionally recognize, experience & feel ALL of the addictions and façade which others or we created within us to avoid our emotional response to others or ourselves hurting us

Then emotionally recognize the full extent of the truth about the damage done to us by others or ourselves

Then emotionally experience & feel ALL of the emotions associated with the hurt within ourselves as a result of the damage

This is a reversal of the process of the way others or we chose to hurt us!

How Do I Repent?

First emotionally recognize, experience & feel ALL of the addictions and façade which we or others created to avoid our own hurt

Then emotionally experience & feel ALL of the damage we did to others or ourselves while in our addictions and façade

Then emotionally experience & feel ALL the emotions associated with the reasons why we made the choice to hurt others or ourselves rather than feel our own original hurt

Then recognize & emotionally experience & feel all of the feelings of hurt which we created in others & ourselves due to our choices to avoid our own original hurt

Then we need to follow the forgiveness process! Forgiveness cannot be avoided!

This is a reversal of the process of the hurt we chose to create in others or ourselves!

Examples

e.g. A female who's father avoided her & spent no time with her when she was young. She entered relationships with men whom she could control, and they would make her feel wanted.

The forgiveness relationship is with her dad (She must forgive his disinterest in her), and the repentance relationships are those that she chose in her addictions (She must repent towards those who she used to avoid forgiveness with her dad).

If she blames her partners for their behaviour, and desires their repentance when really she is the one who needs to repent for what she created, then all she is doing is harming other people in her addiction, which causes more soul damage to herself.

e.g. A male who grew up with a mother who was always afraid, so he learned that the best way for him to act around a woman is to save the woman from her own fear and pain. He entered relationships with women that he had to rescue from fear, to protect, and make them safe.

The forgiveness relationship is that with his mother (he must forgive her requirement that he do something about her fear), and the repentance relationships are those that he chose in his addictions (he must repent towards the partners whom he used to avoid forgiveness with his mother).

If he blames his partners for their behaviour, and desires their repentance when really he is the one who needs to repent for what he created, then all he is doing is harming other people in his addiction, which causes more soul damage to himself.

e.g. A female who's father made her very frightened and unsafe. She attracted a male relationship with a person whom she did not wish to open her heart to because she was afraid. She gave birth to a male child. She wanted this male child to look after her and make her feel safe. Eventually her son became angry with her, and he now drinks and takes drugs. She feels offended by her son's anger, and upset by his drug taking, and she believes that he needs to repent towards her.

The forgiveness relationship is that with her dad (she must forgive him for his emotional violence towards her), and the repentance relationships are those that she chose in her addictions (she must repent towards her partner, whom she expected to make her safe, and her son, whom she has used to make her feel safe).

If she blames her partner for his behaviour, and desires his repentance when really she is the one who needs to repent for what she created, then all she is doing is harming her partner in her addiction, which causes more soul damage to herself. If she blames her son for getting angry with her, when she has purposefully attempted to manipulate him and used him as a means of avoiding her own pain, which is the primary reason he has turned to substance abuse, then all she is doing is still wanting her addiction met by her son, and further damaging her own soul and the soul of her son. The son's personal choice towards addiction is primarily caused by the mother's treatment of him, and so therefore it is hypocritical for her to get angry with her son when she is a primary cause of her son's addictions.

Conclusion

Progress Towards God cannot be undertaken without Forgiveness and Repentance

I must forgive actual harm (from God's perspective) done by others to myself or others

I must repent actual harm (from God's perspective) done by myself to myself or others

I must forgive actual harm (from God's perspective) done by myself to myself

I cannot repent for things I need to forgive, or forgive things I need to repent for

The actual emotional reasons for the behaviour must be felt in order for forgiveness & repentance to occur

Forgiveness & Repentance in Practice

(excerpts from the 2017 Themed Discussion of Forgiveness & Repentance)

Revision Of Basic Principles

Suffering has two primary causes:

The refusal to repent

The refusal to forgive

Forgiveness relationships

Revolve around the hurt self's (child) feelings

These are relationships where we need to forgive others or ourselves for actions taken out of harmony with Love towards us

Repentance relationships

Revolve around the façade self's (adult) feelings

These are relationships where we need to repent towards others or ourselves for our actions taken out of harmony with Love

Addictions & Façade are caused by our refusal to forgive & repent

Addictions & façade are caused by our desire to avoid our own pain and suffering

Blocks to Forgiveness

There are many blocks to forgiving others or ourselves for what has been done to us

The key is to identify these emotional blockages and work through them emotionally

If we do not do this forgiveness can never take place, and we shall need to rely upon the Law of Compensation doing its work upon our soul in a slow and laborious painful process

We will not list all of the blocks here, but rather will list a few of them only

Accepting guilt from others when I am innocent of unloving behaviour in the situation

When I feel guilt about things that I am not truly guilty for

I feel guilty for things that others actually perpetrated towards myself or others

Accepting responsibility when I am innocent of unloving behaviour in the situation

When I feel responsible for things that I am not responsible for

I feel responsible for things that from God's perspective I am not responsible for

E.g. A child taking responsibility for how the parent abused it

E.g. A child feeling responsible for starvation in the third world when only their parents can repair the problem

Accepting blame from others when we are innocent of unloving behaviour

When I feel I am to blame for things that others did out of harmony with love

Wanting to blame myself so that others stop treating me badly, or so that I can avoid the pain of recognizing that others wish to treat me badly for no reason, when it is the people who treat me badly that are to blame for their own behaviour

Self-punishment, the attempt to avoid assigning responsibility to the person who is actually responsible for the unloving behaviour by blaming oneself

When I punish myself for unloving actions others have taken towards me

When I become violent towards myself for being treated badly by others

Wishing to destroy, punish, or harm people who perpetrated the unloving behaviour

When I harbour resentment towards the people who have hurt me, and instead of feeling the pain of others treatment of me, I decide to perpetrate harm towards others (often others not related to my own original hurt)

Blocks to Repentance

There are many blocks to repenting towards God, others and ourselves for what we have done to the environment, others or ourselves

The key is to identify these emotional blockages and work through them emotionally

If we do not do this repentance can never take place, and we shall need to rely upon the Law of Compensation doing its work upon our soul in a slow and laborious painful process

We will not list all of the blocks here, but rather will list a few of them only

Making others feel guilty for my own unloving behaviour

I refuse to see my own unloving behaviour, and I believe that others have done things to harm me when in fact I have done things to harm them from God's perspective

E.g. Believing that others should love me when others are allowed to decide to not love me

Making others take responsibility for my own unloving behaviour

Manipulating, coercing, and otherwise blackmailing others into taking responsibility for my own unloving behaviour

Refusing to take personal responsibility for my own unloving behaviour

Minimizing, justifying, shifting the blame, and using emotional methods (such as tantrums, tears, drama etc) to refuse to take full emotional responsibility for my own unloving behaviour towards myself or others

Blaming others for my own unloving behaviour

Justifying our own unloving behaviour by assigning blame for our own behaviour onto someone else, whether that person actually treated us unlovingly or not

Punishing others for my own unloving behaviour

Attempting with my thoughts, words and actions to punish others subversively or overtly for what I perceive is their unloving behaviour

Attempting with my thoughts, words and actions to punish others subversively or overtly for what I know is their unloving behaviour

Attempting to avoid the recognition of my own unloving behaviour through manipulative techniques or addictions

This is an attempt to remain in denial of my own unloving behaviour by using devious and underhanded methods to avoid the recognition of our own unloving behaviour

Conclusion

We need to understand our emotional blockages towards repentance and forgiveness

We need to see how our emotional blockages towards repentance and forgiveness are acted out in our behaviour

We need to see our refusal to forgive or repent as a choice exercised by our personal will

Homework

Can you see where you need to repent?

Can you see where you need to forgive?

When have you claimed to repent or claimed to forgive, when you obviously have not?

When have you been attempting to forgive someone, when really you need to repent for your actions towards them?

When have you been attempting to repent for your actions when really you did nothing wrong from God's perspective?

What actions have you taken in your façade self (adult) in order to avoid the hurt self's (child's) emotional experience?

What actions have you taken in order to deny or suppress the hurt self's (child's) emotional experience?

What techniques are your favourite techniques to avoid repentance and forgiveness?
